

NEWS

Papers · magazines

MediaWriting

Print, Broadcast and Public Relations

Suranaree University of Technology

31051000577599

W. Richard Whitaker

Janet E. Ramsey

Ronald D. Smith

Brief Contents

Detailed Contents vii

Preface xvii

Chapter 1	Introduction to Media Writing	1
Chapter 2	Research in Communication	20
Chapter 3	Interviewing	49
Chapter 4	Basics of Writing and Editing	72
Chapter 5	Law and Ethics	112
Chapter 6	Basic News Stories	138
Chapter 7	Reporting What Others Say	159
Chapter 8	Obituaries, Rewrites and Roundups	181
Chapter 9	Feature Writing	197
Chapter 10	Writing Broadcast Copy	213
Chapter 11	Reporting for Radio and Television	238
Chapter 12	Objectives and Strategies for Public Relations Writing	264
Chapter 13	Communicating Through Organizational Media	280
Chapter 14	Communicating Through the News Media	300
Chapter 15	Communicating Through Promotional Media	332
Chapter 16	Media Writing in the 21st Century	349
	Credits	367
	Index	369

Detailed Contents

Preface xvii

Chapter 1	Introduction to Media Writing	1
	Changes in Media Writing	2
	Media Writing as Mass Communication	3
	The Purpose of Communication	3 • Communication Challenges 3
	Media Research and Theory	5
	Individual Differences Theory	5 • Social Categories Theory 5 • Social Influence 5 • Selective Processes 6 • Stereotypes 6 • Wants and Needs Gratification 6 • Opinion Leaders 6 • Narcotizing Dysfunction 7 • Cultivation 7 • Spiral of Silence 7 • Implications for Media Writers 8
	The Media Business	8
	Roles Within the Media	9 • Theories of the Press 10 • Broadcast Regulation 11
	What Makes News?	12
	Criteria for Newsworthiness	13
	Public Perceptions of Newspeople	14
	Newspeople's Perceptions of the News	15
	A Question of Balance	15
	Box 1.1 It Happened to Me: Theoretically Speaking	16
	Chapter Exercises	16
	Notes and Suggestions for Further Reading	17
Chapter 2	Research in Communication	20
	Check It Out	21
	Research and Analysis	21
	Box 2.1 It Happened to Me: Oops! Got It Wrong!	22
	• The Research Process	22 • Criteria for Useful Research 23
	News Sources	24
	Cultivating Primary Sources	24 • Using Reference Materials 25 • Box 2.2 It Happened to Me: Using a Newspaper as Reference Resource 27 • Freedom of Information Act 27

Computer-Assisted Reporting 29

Commercial Databases 30 • Commercial Online Services 31 • Other Than Online 32

The Internet 32

The World Wide Web 33 • Breaking News Goes on Line 33 • Maps of the Internet 35 • Government Databases 36 • Nongovernmental Web Sites 38 • Box 2.3 How To: Looking for a Job on the Internet 39 • Newsgroups 40

Use and Abuse of Statistics 40

Not-So-Random Sampling 40 • Misleading Averages 41 • Box 2.4 It Happened to Me: Hardship Living 41

Surveys and Questionnaires 42

Problems With Survey Methodology 42 • Characteristics of Good Surveys 43 • Conducting Survey Research 43 • Box 2.5 How To: Guidelines for Writing Survey Response Categories 45

Research and the Challenge of Communications 46

Chapter Exercises 47

Notes and Suggestions for Further Reading 48

Chapter 3 Interviewing 49

The Importance of Interviewing 50

Box 3.1 It Happened to Me: Caught Between Source and Editor 51

Characteristics of a Good Interviewer 52

Kinds of Interviews and Subjects 52

Preparing for an Interview 53

Choosing Sources and Subjects 53 • Brainstorming and Making Contacts 54 • Persuading Reluctant Interview Subjects 54 • Box 3.2 How To: Interview Appeals 55 • Conducting Additional Research 55 • Asking for the Interview 56 • Establishing Ground Rules for the Interview 51 • Agreeing on Off-the-Record Status 58 • Using Tape Recorders and Notebooks 59 • Writing Interview Questions 60

Conducting the Interview 63

Warming Up the Subject 64 • Personal Conduct During the Interview 64 • Asking the Tough Ones 65 • Box 3.3 How To: Interviewing in a Professional Manner 66 • Establishing Good Communication 66

Ending the Interview 68

Improving Interviewing Skills 68

Chapter Exercises 69

Suggestions for Further Reading 71

Chapter 4 Basics of Writing and Editing 72

Writing Effectively 73

Principles of Standard Usage 74

- 1. Use Technically Accurate Language 74 • 2. Use the Appropriate Level of Formality 74 • 3. Avoid Grammatical Myths 76 • 4. Avoid Bulky Sentences 76 • 5. Make Sure Subjects and Verbs Agree 76 • 6. Make Sure Nouns and Pronouns Agree 77 • 7. Place Words Properly 78 • 8. Be Moderate with Adjectives and Adverbs 78 • 9. Avoid Empty Phrases 79 • 10. Keep Elements Parallel 80 • 11. Keep Punctuation Simple 80 • 12. Stick with the Stylebook 83

Principles of Simple Language 83

- 1. Think Before You Write 83 • 2. Write Naturally 83 • 3. Eliminate Unnecessary Words and Phrases 84 • 4. Avoid Redundancies 84 • 5. Prefer Simple Words 84 • 6. Use Contractions Carefully 85 • 7. Avoid Creating New Words 85 • 8. Avoid Foreign Constructions 85 • 9. Avoid Unwanted Rhyme and Alliteration 86 • 10. Use Short Sentences 86 • 11. Vary Sentence Structure 86 • Box 4.1 How To: Fog Index 87 • 12. Prefer Active Voice 88 • Box 4.2 How To: When Passive Is Permissible 89

Principles of Meaningful Language 89

- 1. Create Word Pictures 90 • 2. Use Analogies 90 • 3. Use the Right Word 91 • 4. Use Precise Descriptions 91 • 5. Use Strong Verbs 91 • 6. Replace Clichés with Original Words 92 • 7. Avoid Journalese 92 • 8. Rewrite Jargon 93 • 9. Avoid Loaded Words 93 • 10. Avoid Pretentious Words and Euphemisms 94 • 11. Write Honestly 94 • 12. Use Inclusive Language 95

Professional Writing Style 99

Chapter Exercises 99

Suggestions for Further Reading 111

Chapter 5 Law and Ethics 112

Sensationalism Sells 113

Role of the News Media 113

- An Ideal Media Role 114 • Box 5.1 It Happened to Me: General Orders Favorable Coverage 115 • Professional Ethics 115

Legal Pitfalls 117

- Libel and Defamation 117 • Fair Comment 122 • Privacy 122 • Accusations of Wrongdoing 123

Free Press—Fair Trial 123

- Box 5.2 It Happened to Me: The Perils of Naming Names 124 • The Canadian View of Trial Coverage 126 • Judges and the Media 126 • Restrictions in Canada 127 • Voluntary Press-Bar Guidelines 127 • Police and the Media 128 • Box 5.3 It Happened to Me: Building a Case for Defamation 129

Access to Information 130
 Reporters and Their Sources 130 • Access to Records and Documents 131
Broadcast Regulation 132
 Underlying Principles 132 • Elements of Regulation 133
Journalistic Sensationalism 134
Independence Needed 134
Chapter Exercises 135
Notes and Suggestions for Further Reading 136

Chapter 6 Basic News Stories 138
 Determining What Is News 139
 Print News Stories 140
 Writing an Inverted Pyramid Story 140
 The Lead Paragraph 141 • Box 6.1 How To: Two Lengths of Leads 142
 • Summarizing the News 143
 Observing Style and Other Technicalities 144
 Box 6.2 How To: Leads to Avoid 145 • Box 6.3 It Happened to Me: What's in a Name? 146
 Transitions 146
 Three Basic Hard News Stories 148
 Questions to Ask 148 • Ethical Considerations 149 • Avoiding Libel 149
 • Box 6.4 It Happened to Me: Campaign Dilemma 150 • Box 6.5 How To: Allegedly, Reportedly and Apparently 151 • Reporting Names 151 • What Must Be Included 152
 Including a Chronological Narrative 153
 A Worthwhile Effort 154
 Chapter Exercises 154
 Suggestions for Further Reading 158

Chapter 7 Reporting What Others Say 159
 Weaving Interviews into News Stories 160
 What Is Quotable? 161
 Using Quotations 161
 Direct, Partial and Indirect Quotations 162 • Attribution 162 • Variety in the Use of Quotations 165

Speech Stories 166

Covering the Entire Event 166 • Challenges of Covering Speeches 167 • Leads for Speech Stories 168 • Recipe for a Good Speech Story 168 • Box 7.1 How To: Using a Quotation as a Lead for a Speech Story 169

Interview Stories 170

Box 7.2 It Happened to Me: Fun Interview 171 • What If the Source Misstates? 171
• Writing Interview Stories 172

Survey Stories 173

Stories from Official Documents 174

Ethical Considerations 175

Accurate and Fair Quotations 175 • Denials by Interview Subjects 176

A Great Responsibility 177

Chapter Exercises 177

Suggestions for Further Reading 180

Chapter 8 Obituaries, Rewrites and Roundups 181

Moving Beyond the Inverted Pyramid 182

Obituaries 182

The Obituary Formula 183 • Box 8.1 How To: A Typical Obituary Formula 184
• News Judgment in Writing Obituaries 184 • Box 8.2 How To: Some Obituary Leads 185 • Box 8.3 It Happened to Me: Suicide Judgment Call 186 • Listing Family Survivors 187 • Checking Accuracy and Completeness 187 • Box 8.4 How To: Language for Obituaries 188

Rewrites 188

Rewriting Wire Service Stories 189 • Rewriting for a Later Edition 189 • Rewriting News Releases 190 • More Extensive Rewriting 190 • Responsibilities of the Journalist 191 • What's Missing? 191

Roundups 192

Box 8.5 It Happened to Me: How to Lose a "Friend" 192

A Good Training Ground 193

Chapter Exercises 193

Suggestions for Further Reading 196

Chapter 9 Feature Writing 197

Alternative Story Formats 198

Characteristics of Features 198

Box 9.1 How To: Comparing Features and News 200

Feature Treatment 200

Feature Leads 201

Box 9.2 How To: Writing Interesting Feature Leads 202

Kinds of Feature Stories 203

Narratives 203 • Color Stories 205 • Human Interest Stories 206 • Profiles 207
• Box 9.3 It Happened to Me: Happy New Year? 207 • Brights 208
• Backgrounders 208 • Anniversary Stories 209 • How-Tos 209 • Labeled
Feature Stories 210

Consider the Possibilities 210

Chapter Exercises 211

Suggestions for Further Reading 212

Chapter 10 Writing Broadcast Copy 213

News Is Often Unexpected 214

Composing “Good-Sounding” Copy 215

Informality and Clarity 216 • Readability 216 • Box 10.1 How To: An Anchor’s
Secret 216

Writing the Lead 217

Types of Broadcast Leads 217 • Box 10.2 It Happened to Me: Bloody Sunday 218
• Box 10.3 It Happened to Me: Death in the Early Hours 219 • Soft Leads 219
• Names and Numbers 220 • Box 10.4 It Happened to Me: Leading With Numbers 220

Clarity in Broadcast Copy 221

Pronunciation 221 • Strong Words 221 • Box 10.5 How To: Writing
Pronouncers 222 • Simplicity and Economy 223 • Transitions 224
• Contractions and Abbreviations 224 • Overly Informal Language 225
• Punctuation 226 • Quotations 226 • Numbers and Statistics 228

Sports Reporting 229

Weather Reporting 230

Box 10.6 How To: Weatherspeak Quiz 230

Making Newscasts Interesting 231

News Judgment in Broadcast News 232

News Bulletins 232 • Content of the Newscast 233 • Box 10.7 How To: Tips for Writing Broadcast Copy 234

Print or Broadcast: Which Is “Better”? 234

Box 10.8 How To: Weatherspeak Answers 235

Chapter Exercises 236

Suggestions for Further Reading 237

Chapter 11	Reporting for Radio and Television	238
	Inside the Newsroom	239
	TV Newsroom Organization and Responsibilities	240
	Putting the Pieces Together: The Producer	241 • Box 11.1 It Happened to Me: Leave the Driving to Us
	Working Relationships	242
	Writing for Television News	242
	Television Scripts	243 • Writing Style
	Sound Bites	244 • Lead-ins
	Teasers	245
	Radio News Coverage	246
	Radio Reporters	247 • Radio Scripts
	Radio Scripts	247
	A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words	250
	Box 11.2 How To: Video Terms for Broadcast Scripts	251 • Video Logic
	Shooting Video	252
	When Disaster Strikes	254
	Box 11.3 It Happened to Me: We Interrupt This Lunch for a Bank Robbery	255
	Reporting Hard News and Features	257
	Video News Releases	257
	Box 11.4 It Happened to Me: Supermarket Robberies and Advertising Sales	258
	Box 11.5 It Happened to Me: Getting Our Message Out via VNR	259
	Public Affairs Programming	259
	Box 11.6 It Happened to Me: Lumber Mill Closings Open Story Opportunities	260
	Editorials and Commentary	260
	Box 11.7 It Happened to Me: Controversial Commentary	261
	Fairness and Balance	261
	Chapter Exercises	262
	Suggestions for Further Reading	263

Chapter 12	Objectives and Strategies for Public Relations Writing	264
	Persuasion in Communication	265
	A Comprehensive Look at Public Relations	266
	Public Relations Activities	266 • Codes of Ethics for Public Relations
	Codes of Ethics for Public Relations	268
	Integrating Related Disciplines	269
	Identifying the Organization's Publics	269
	Publics, Markets and Audiences	270 • Types of Publics
	Types of Publics	271

Planning Communications 272

Define the Public Relations Situation 273 • Select and Analyze Key Publics 273
• Box 12.1 How To: Preparing a Planning Sheet 274 • Box 12.2 It Happened to Me: Asking the Right Question 275 • Write a Benefit Statement 275 • Define Public Relations Objectives 276 • Specify a Readability Range 276 • Determine How You Will Evaluate Success 277

Choosing Appropriate Communication Channels 277

A Strategic Process 277

Chapter Exercises 278

Suggestions for Further Reading 279

Chapter 13 Communicating Through Organizational Media 280

Using Organizational Outlets 281

Speeches 281

The Speechwriting Process 282 • Box 13.1 It Happened to Me: How Not to Write a Speech 283 • Box 13.2 How To: Avoiding Common Errors in Logic 286
• Guidelines for Effective Speechwriting 287

Fliers and Brochures 289

Writing Copy for Fliers 290 • Box 13.3 How To: Creating Readable and Functional Fliers 291 • Designing Fliers 291 • Writing Copy for Brochures 291 • Designing Brochures 293

Newsletters 295

Types of Newsletters 295 • Mission of the Newsletter 296 • Writing for Newsletters 297

Powerful Tools 297

Chapter Exercises 297

Suggestions for Further Reading 299

Chapter 14 Communicating Through the News Media 300

The Quest for Publicity 301

Messages with News Value 302

Box 14.1 How To: 10 Ways to Make News 304

Materials That Generate News Media Coverage 304

Fact Sheets 304 • Factoids 305 • Events Listings 305 • News Releases 308
• Box 14.2 How To: Using Appropriate Terms 309 • Feature Releases 309 • Photo Captions 311 • Media Advisories 312 • Public Advisories 312 • Story Idea Memos 313 • News Conference Statements 313 • Interviews 314 • Opinion Pieces 315

News Releases	315
Basic Elements	315 • Writing Components 316 • Writing Style 317 • Public Relations Versus Flack 320 • Types of News Releases 321 • Building a Better News Release 321 • Box 14.3 How To: Personnel Appointment Release 322 • Box 14.4 How To: Too Much Localizing? 323
Professional Relationships	324
Sensitive Issues Between Journalists and Practitioners	324 • Box 14.5: How To: Maintaining Good Relationships with Journalists 325
Decisions to Rewrite News Releases	326
Box 14.6 It Happened to Me: That Story Looks Familiar!	327
Winning the Competition for Coverage	327
Chapter Exercises	328
Suggestions for Further Reading	331

Chapter 15	Communicating Through Promotional Media	332
	Public Relations Advocacy	333
	Position Statements	333
	Writing Position Statements	334 • Designing Position Statements for Impact 336
	Opinion Pieces	336
	Letters to the Editor	336 • Box 15.1 It Happened to Me: Sowing Seeds of Support 337 • Box 15.2 It Happened to Me: Nearly Submerged 338 • Box 15.3 It Happened to Me: Encouraging Tolerance 339 • Op-Ed Pieces 339
	Direct-Mail Appeals	339
	Advertising	341
	Product Advertising	342 • Public Relations Advertising 342 • Advertising Media 343 • Writing Print Advertisements 344 • Writing Broadcast Advertisements 345
	Exciting Career for Writers with Vision	346
	Chapter Exercises	346
	Suggestions for Further Reading	348

Chapter 16	Media Writing in the 21st Century	349
	Welcome to the Information Age	350
	Impact of Technology	350
	From Teletext to Interactive Multimedia	351 • Analog and Digital 352 • More Ways to Communicate Information 353

Changes in Media Forms 354

- Customized News 355 • End of Agenda Setting? 357 • New Technology, New Applications 357 • Live, in Real Time 359
- Other Technologies, Systems Converge 360

No Signposts on the Information Highway 361

Careers in Communication 362

- "May You Live in Interesting Times" 363 • Opportunities from New Technology 364

Notes and Suggestions for Further Reading 365

Credits 367

Index 369