the public libr@rian's guide to the Internet

Sally Criddle • Alison McNab • Sarah Ormes • Ian Winship

Contents

The authors		vii
Introduction		ix
Part 1	The basics
1	What is the Internet and how can it help you and your library?	3
2	Understanding and using Internet addresses	11
3	Essential communication skills on the Internet	15
4	Net techniques explained	29
5	Searching for information	43
6	Browsing for subject information	55
Part 2	Guide to resources
7	Business and finance resources	65
8	Children's resources	73
9	Community information resources	89
10	Consumer information resources	93
11	Family and local history resources	101
12	Government resources	110
13	Health resources	116
14	Home computing and Internet resources	122
15	Illustration resources	130
16	Learning and education resources	136
17	Literature resources	143
18	Reference resources	150
19	Science and technology resources	162
20	Travel resources	170
21	Resources for professional use	179

Part 3 Integrating the Internet into public library services

22 Producing web pages 197

23 Developing online public library services 208

24 Providing public Internet access 223

Conclusion: What's next? 228

Glossary 237

Index 245