

Advertising

R O D E R I C K W H I T E

Fourth Edition

Contents

Foreword	ix
Preface/Acknowledgements	xi
1. Introduction Advertisements, not just advertising—advertising in context—the brand and the marketing mix—the role of advertising—integrated communications—the rest of the book.	1
2. The Agency World The traditional agency—new agency structures—the growing range of specialists—selecting an agency—paying the agency.	12
3. Managing the Client–Agency Relationship Setting the terms—methods of payment—running the relationship—structuring contact—the budget.	26
4. How Advertising Works Advertising and brands—the traditional view—people using ads—frameworks—strong or weak force?—consumer expectations—attitudes—what’s needed for success?	42
5. Planning Advertisements: The Strategy Strategies and objectives—the planning cycle—advertising: objectives and strategy; the target audience; target reactions—positioning the brand.	56
6. Planning the Advertising: Creative Briefing Creative briefing forms—describing the target audience—strategy: target reactions—the proposition—supporting evidence—creative briefs—briefing.	76

7. Creating the Ads 90
General principles—essential elements: branding and category identification; attention-getting; likeability; simplicity; be original; offer benefits; humour; sex; response opportunity—individual media—press: words or pictures; size and shape; colour; formats/genres—TV and cinema: genres; techniques; music; voice; length—radio.
8. Evaluating Advertisements 110
Is it any good?—pre-testing and creative development: pre-testing; creative development research—post-testing and campaign evaluation—sales and share—consumer feedback/tracking—econometrics and modelling—not enough data?
9. The Media—Where should we put our ads, and why? 127
The available choice—media choices—where do we start? : the budget; media objectives ; cover vs. frequency; brand life-stage; other factors—inter-media choice—one medium or several?—intra-medium decisions: individual media; size and length; position—scheduling—evaluation.
10. Television 150
Commercial TV in Britain—how TV is bought and sold—planning TV—thinking beyond spots—buying TV—audience research—commercial production.
11. The Press 170
Newspapers—regional newspapers—newspaper readership research—how space is sold—magazines—magazine categories—magazine research—buying magazine space—press planning—press production.
12. Secondary Media 191
Outdoor advertising—using posters: poster research; other opportunities; poster buying—the cinema—planning and buying—radio: radio as a medium; audience research; buying radio—ambient media.
13. Response and Interactive Advertising 203
The one-to-one agenda—some principles—direct response advertising—direct mail—telemarketing—interactive media—the Internet—interactive TV.
14. Planning the Campaign 214
A big budget campaign—bursts vs. continuity—forms of communication—different media—the competition—evaluation—putting the plan together—small budgets: targeting; size; amplification; small budgets in practice.

15. Advertising and the Law	229
The law—contracts—trade descriptions—intellectual property—comparative advertising—endorsements—data protection—self-regulation: the ASA; Codes of Practice—TV and radio.
16. Advertising and Economics	240
Advertising in the economy—advertising and markets—advertising and the company—advertising and price—monopolies—the media—consumer benefits.
17. Advertising and Society	252
Children—antisocial products—dishonesty—arts and environment—sexism, racism—consumerism—undermining values—servant or seducer?
18. Global, Glocal, Local?	265
Globalization—global ads—tribes and tribulations—glocal advertising—‘all out of step’.
19. The Future	274
Globalization—unbundling—total communications—the one-to-one revolution—evaluation—technology—consumer attitudes.
Glossary	287
Further sources of information	294
Bibliography—reference material—the trade press—web sites.
Index	301