

Designing Web-Based Training

A large, stylized graphic in the bottom right corner features several concentric, curved lines that transition in color from white and light blue on the left to red, orange, and yellow on the right, creating a sense of motion and depth.

1 MEET WEB-BASED TRAINING 1

- WHAT IS WEB-BASED TRAINING? 2
 - Heritage and history of WBT 2
 - Not just electronic classrooms or CBT over a wire 6
- WHAT DOES WBT CHANGE? 6
- WBT IS JUST IN TIME FOR JUST-IN-TIME TRAINING 7
 - Shortage of trained technology workers 7
 - Workers want more training 7

WBT IS WELL UNDER WAY 8

- Technology advances daily 8
- The Web is growing even faster 8
- WBT is growing just as rapidly 8
- Corporations are already training over the Web 9
- Over half of universities and colleges use WBT technology 9

WHY DO YOU WANT TO USE WBT? 9

- What will you do for your organization? 9
- What will you do for learners? 10

DESIGN FIRST, LAST, AND IN BETWEEN 13

- Design is a process 13
- Religious issues and why we avoid them 14

2 EVALUATE WBT 17

THE IDEAL USE OF WBT 18

- The ideal learner 18
- The ideal course 19

ADVANTAGES OF WBT 19

- WBT can save vaults of money 20
- WBT improves learning 22
- Other advantages for learners 27
- Other advantages for instructors 31
- Other advantages for organizations 32

DISADVANTAGES OF WBT 34

- WBT requires more work 34
- Learners fear losing human contact 36
- Technical requirements are difficult to meet 38
- WBT disrupts established ways that work 38
- WBT can distort learning 40
- Traditional training is viewed as a reward 41
- Dropout rates may be high 41
- WBT cannot teach certain subjects, right? 42

ESTIMATING COSTS 43

10 MOTIVATE LEARNERS 417

DOES MOTIVATION MATTER? 418

- Why do learners drop out, slow down, or give up? 418
- Pick the right motivators 419

SET CLEAR EXPECTATIONS 419

- Tell learners what is expected of them 420
- Ask learners what they expect 420
- Have learners rate objectives 421

REQUIRE COMMITMENT 422

- Require commitment to finish the course 422
- Require a positive approach 423
- Require learners to affirm responsibility 423

FEATURE THE WIIFM 424

- Promote the advantages of online learning 424
- Signal the importance of the course 424
- Explain learning materials 424
- Specify objectives in learners' terms 424
- Create real-world value 425

MAKE WBT FUN AND INTERESTING 425

- Begin by provoking interest 425
- Use motivating words 426
- Ensure high quality 426
- Involve learners 426
- Make WBT more like a game 427
- Vary the content and presentation 427

OFFER Bribes (EXPLICIT EXTERNAL REWARDS) 428

- Monetary rewards 429
- Token gifts 429
- Fame and prestige 429
- Tribal membership 430
- Contests 430

PACE AND PROMPT LEARNERS 431

- Publish a schedule 431
- Space out activities 431
- Require weekly contributions 432
- Remind and encourage learners 432

PROVIDE ENCOURAGING FEEDBACK 432

- Say it's OK to be a little afraid 432
- Encourage learners 432

Give feedback as soon as possible	433
BUILD A LEARNING COMMUNITY	433
Construct a community of learners	433
Increase human interaction in the course	434
Encourage learners to seek help	434
INTERVENE WITH UNMOTIVATED LEARNERS	435
Identify unmotivated learners early	435

11 Go GLOBAL 439

THE CHALLENGE OF GLOBAL TRAINING	440
Problematic provincialism	440
Differences matter	441
WBT can teach globally	442
Not all training is totally global	443
GENERAL STRATEGIES FOR GOING GLOBAL	443
Say what you expect from learners	443
Accommodate different levels of technology	444
Accommodate different learning styles	446
Be a polite foreigner, not a phony native	447
Mix media	447
Test, test, and test again	450
Include a glossary	451
Include a cross-cultural summary	451
Give learners time to absorb information	451
AVOID COVERT NATIONAL CHAUVINISM	452
Use generic objects in examples	452
Avoid local expressions	452
Think from the viewpoint of your learner	453
Format addresses flexibly	453
MAKE NUMBERS EASY TO UNDERSTAND	454
SPEŁŁ out ¥our ¢urr€nCY unit$	454
Remember that decimal points are not always dots	454

State dates clearly	455
Make your time zone known	455
Include both international and American units	455
Include international telephone numbers	456
BE CAREFUL WHEN SHOWING PEOPLE	456
MAKE MEDIA GLOBAL, TOO	457
Pictures	457
Narration	462
Music	463
Animation	463

 Consolidate support for multiple courses 484

LOWER THE HURDLES 484

- Identify technical barriers 484
- Reduce technical requirements 486
- Limit the number of new technologies 487
- Simplify and integrate technology 487
- Obtain safe conduct through firewalls 491
- Require some computer skills 492

SOLVE PROBLEMS BEFORE THE COURSE STARTS 492

- Help learners meet requirements 492
- Specify requirements fully 493
- Test compliance with requirements 497
- Provide complete setup instructions 504

SUPPORT LEARNERS DURING THE COURSE 505

- Designate a starting point 505
- Create necessary support resources 506
- Learn from problems 513

TEST YOUR COURSE 513

- Test on a minimal system 513
- Test on all supported browsers 514
- Test the most common operations 514
- Focus your testing 515
