

David Butler

Enterprise Planning and Development

small business start-up survival and growth

Contents

	Acknowledgements	xv
	Preface	xvi
Chapter 1	The entrepreneurial ethos and environment	1
	Finding a way through the maze	1
	The political context	2
	The training and education context	4
	The owner-manager culture	5
	Enterprise, entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship	7
	Entrepreneurial attitudes and characteristics	9
	The Made or Born argument	13
Part I	Start-up and survival	15
Chapter 2	The importance of planning for start-ups	17
	Why should I bother with a business plan?	17
	The business plan as a means of focusing ideas	18
	The business plan as a yardstick to measure progress and achievement	20
	Raising finance for start-up or expansion	21
	How often should I update my business plan?	23
	How much detail should the business plan contain?	24
Chapter 3	Structuring the business plan	26
	What format should the business plan take?	26
	The layout of the business plan	28
	Section 1: The business idea	28
	Section 2: The proprietors of the business	30
	Section 3: The resources required	34
	Section 4: Financial plans	38

	Section 5: Marketing	41
	Section 6: The implementation of the proposals	47
	Section 7: Summary	50
	Section 8: Appendices	50
Chapter 4	Developing the business idea	52
	The purpose of the business	53
	Is this a new or existing business?	54
	The legal format of the business	55
	Sole trader	55
	Partnerships	56
	Limited company	58
	Co-operative	61
	External influences	62
Chapter 5	Developing entrepreneurial skills	64
	What skills does my business need to make it successful?	65
	The skills audit: What skills do you (or your staff/associates) already have?	67
	SWOT analysis	67
	Exercise: What makes a successful entrepreneur?	68
	Planning and prioritising your work	70
	Identifying personal goals and objectives	71
	Action plans for self-development	72
	Effective management requires regular self-evaluation	73
Chapter 6	Market research and planning	75
	Market research	76
	The size and nature of the market	77
	The target market share	78
	The nature of the competition	78
	Your own goods or services in comparison	79
	Market segmentation	80
	The marketing plan	81
	Product	83
	Price	84
	Place	84
	Promotion	85
	People	86
	Physical	86
	Process	86

The sales plan	87
Sales activities	87
Sales skills	89
Setting targets and measuring achievement	90
 Chapter 7
Identifying relevant legislation	93
Health and safety legislation	94
Factories Act (1961)/Offices, Shops & Railway Premises Act (1963)	94
Health & Safety at Work Act (1974)	95
Control of substances hazardous to health	96
Reporting of Injuries, Diseases, & Dangerous Occurrences Regulations (1982)	96
Fire regulations	97
Environmental legislation	97
Environmental Health Act	97
Town & Country Planning Acts 1971	98
Building Regulations	99
Local Government Miscellaneous Provisions Act (1982)	99
Control of Pollution Act (1974) and related legislation	100
Trading legislation	101
Sale of Goods Act (1979 & 1995)/Consumer Protection Act (1987)	101
Advertising Standards/Trades Descriptions Act	102
Data Protection Act (1984)	103
Employment Law	103
Employment Acts	104
Employment Protection Act (1975)	105
European Working Hours Directive (1998)	105
Contracts of Employment Act (1972)	106
Employer's Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations (1972 & 1998)	106
Minimum wage regulations	107
Stakeholder pensions	107
Financial & Company Law	107
Finance Acts	108
H. M. Revenue & Customs VAT Regulations	108
Laws of taxation	108
Companies Act (1985 & 1989)	109
Partnership Act (1890)	110
Business Names Act (1985)	111

	Copyrights, Designs & Patents Act (1988)	111
	Consumer Credit Act (1974)	111
	Insolvency Act (1986)/Company Directors Disqualification Act (1986)/Enterprise Act (2002)	112
	The Enterprise Act (2002)	113
	Contract Law (debt recovery etc.)	114
	Property Law	114
	Anti-discrimination Law	114
	Race Relations Act (1976)/Equal Opportunities Commission	115
	Disabled Persons Employment Act (1944)	115
	Disability Discrimination Act (1995)	116
	Sex Discrimination Acts (1975 & 1989)	117
	Equal Pay Act (1970)	117
	Trade Union Reform & Employment Rights Act (1993)	118
	Sources of information	118
Chapter 8	Resource requirements	121
	Business premises	121
	What sort of premises will I need?	121
	What size of premises will I need?	123
	What are the options for acquiring premises?	125
	Other aspects of obtaining premises	127
	What insurance cover will I need for the premises?	128
	What other types of insurance should I be considering?	128
	Physical resources	131
	How do we identify what physical resources are needed?	132
	Transport	133
	Fixtures and fittings	134
	Plant and machinery	135
	Furniture and office equipment	135
	Resale stock	136
	Raw materials and components	136
	Materials and consumables	137
	Public utilities	138
	Supplier relationships	140
Chapter 9	Recruiting and employing staff	142
	The job description	146
	The person specification	147
	Terms and conditions of employment	147

	Advertising the position	149
	Sifting and selecting the applicants	151
	Methods of selection	152
	Interviewing staff	152
	Discipline and grievance procedures	154
	Staff appraisal	156
Chapter 10	Planning and managing the business finances	158
	Financial planning	158
	The personal survival budget	159
	The break-even analysis	160
	The budgetary plan	162
	The cash-flow forecast	166
	The profit or loss forecast	170
	Financial controls	172
	Basic accounting and double-entry book-keeping	173
	Monitoring budgets and cash flow	175
	Profit margins and mark-up	175
	Stock control	176
	Aged debtors and creditors accounts	178
	Credit-control procedures	179
	Accounting ratios	182
	Sources of finance	182
	Factors which influence suitable sources of finance	183
	Funding options for start-up situations and small businesses	184
Chapter 11	Integrating and maintaining quality	190
	Developing quality systems	191
	Why does a business need to bother with IIP or ISO 9002?	191
	So, how does the process work?	193
	How do we go about achieving it?	193
	Monitoring quality	197
	How can a small business monitor its quality systems?	197
	Customer care	199
	What type of things then, do the customers expect?	200
	So why should we bother with customer service or customer care?	200
	How do we go about formulating a customer care policy?	202

	Quality standards for customer care	204
	How do we implement the customer care policy in practical terms, and ensure that it is achieved?	206
Chapter 12	Putting the business plan together	210
	Implementation and risk analysis	210
	Trading status	211
	Legal compliance in order to trade	211
	Planning the pre-start-up timetable	212
	Identifying key or critical stages	212
	Risk analysis and contingency planning	213
	Reviewing the business plan	216
Part II	Developing strategies for growth	221
Chapter 13	The culture shift	223
	The stages of small business development	223
	The early stages of business development	226
	Phase 1: Business start-up	227
	Phase 2: Relative stability	229
	Phase 3: Growth and development	230
	The culture shift	230
	The strategic planning process	232
Chapter 14	Reviewing the performance of the business	234
	The organisational environment	237
	The internal environment: within the business itself	238
	The trading status of the business	238
	The management skills within the business	239
	Current policies and the decision-making processes	239
	Stakeholders' interests and objectives	240
	The financial resources, capitalisation, working capital, and cost structure	241
	The financial systems	241
	Past financial performance and profitability	242
	Monitoring and control systems	242
	The staff resources and their deployment	243
	The physical location and premises	243
	Physical resources, plant and equipment	244
	Stockholding policies	245

	Current and recurring problems within the business	245
	Changes within the organisation	246
	Capacity for engaging change	246
	The market environment	247
	Who are our customers?	247
	Customer base and customer loyalty	247
	Market share and recent trends	248
	Quality standards and policies	248
	Current methods of advertising and promotion	249
	Competitors and their activity	250
	Competitive advantage	250
	The external environment	251
	Political influences	251
	Economic factors	252
	Social influences and trends	253
	Technological factors	253
	Legislation: current and future	254
	Environmental issues and controls	254
	The SWOT analysis	255
Chapter 15	Identifying growth and development options	257
	Mission statements	257
	What do you personally want to achieve?	259
	What long-term objectives do you have for the business?	260
	What options are available to achieve the objectives?	260
	Which option is best for my business?	264
	Defining the business objectives to meet the chosen option	267
Chapter 16	Additional resource implications of growth	271
	Premises	271
	Plant and equipment	276
	Transport and distribution	278
	Administration, information technology, and communications	280
	Raw materials, resale stock, and packaging	281
	Staff resources	283
	Workforce planning	283
	The owner-manager as a human resource	284
	The costs of employing staff	286
	Symptoms of poor staff management or reward systems	287
	Carrying out the skills audit	288
	Lead-time	289

	Grow your own or buy in?	291
	Barriers to training uptake in small firms	292
	The financial implications of manpower planning	294
Chapter 17	Financial planning for growth	298
	Accounting ratios	300
	Liquidity ratios	300
	Borrowing capacity	301
	Profitability ratios	301
	Efficiency ratios	303
	Cash management	304
	Main factors that influence cash flow	305
	Credit management	305
	Budgetary planning and cash flow forecasting	307
	Financial monitoring and budgetary control	308
	The planning process	312
	Short-term borrowing	315
	Medium and longer-term finance	315
	Further funding options more suited to larger organisations	319
	Summary	321
Chapter 18	Sales and marketing for growth	323
	The marketing audit	323
	Market segmentation	328
	The strategic marketing plan	329
	Developing an advertising and promotion strategy	331
	Selling and exporting abroad	335
	Internet marketing	339
	The importance of customer retention	342
	Customer care	343
	Customer perceptions and expectations	344
	Customer communications	346
	Summary	347
Chapter 19	Innovation and intellectual property	349
	Innovation	349
	Creating an enterprise culture	352
	One final thought on innovation	355
	Managing IP	356
	Protection of IP on an international basis	357
	Patents	359

	Copyrights	360
	Trade marks	360
	Trade secrets	360
	Registered designs	361
	Domain names	361
	Infringements and remedies	362
	IP audits and valuation as a business asset	362
Chapter 20	Developing and implementing the growth strategy	365
	Getting the timing right	365
	Change management	366
	Getting the systems right	368
	Critical events and stages of implementation	370
	Keep the implementation in line with the strategic objectives	372
Chapter 21	Exit strategies and succession planning	374
	The family support argument	375
	Succession planning	379
	Issues and problems of ownership succession	380
	Long-term succession planning	382
	Exit strategies	383
	The V-C context	383
	Exit strategies: the options	384
	Valuation of the business	389
	Use of professional expertise	390
Appendix	Business review questionnaire	392
	Area 1: Management efficiency	393
	Descriptors	393
	Points to consider	393
	Area 2: Sales, marketing, and customer relations	394
	Descriptors	394
	Points to consider	394
	Area 3: Business operations	395
	Descriptors	395
	Points to consider	395
	Area 4: Finance	396
	Descriptors	396
	Points to consider	396

Area 5: Managing staff performance	397
Descriptors	397
Points to consider	397
Area 6: Innovation, technology, and intellectual property	398
Descriptors	398
Points to consider	398
Area 7: Planning for the future	399
Descriptors	399
Points to consider	399
 Index	 401