

"Tung's breadth of vision and rapid-fire insights recall Lewis Mumford at his best."

—The Washington Post

PRESERVING THE WORLD'S GREAT CITIES

THE DESTRUCTION AND RENEWAL
OF THE HISTORIC METROPOLIS

ANTHONY M. TUNG

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 1

THE AWAKENING OF A CONSERVATION ETHIC

1. The Century of Destruction 15
2. The City That Devoured Its Glory 29
Imperial and Renaissance Rome
3. The City That Rewrote Its Past 51
Fascist and Modern Rome

THE CULTURE OF CONSERVATION IN CITIES

4. The Heritage of War 73
Warsaw
5. The Tragedy of the Megacity 96
Cairo
6. Ideological Conflict with the Past 131
Moscow and Beijing
7. Preservation and Economic Justice 169
Singapore
8. Preservation and Social Conscience 190
Amsterdam and Vienna
9. The City of the Gods Besieged 248
Athens

10. The Comprehensible Urban Visage 272

London and Paris

11. Tourism versus the Habitable City 318

Venice

12. Politics and Preservation in the Modern Metropolis 343

New York

13. Reversing the Culture of Destruction 368

Kyoto

THE WIDENING ETHIC OF PRESERVATION

14. The City Redeemed 389

Berlin, Moscow, New York, and Mexico City

15. The City As a Living Museum 413

Charleston and Jerusalem

BIBLIOGRAPHIC SOURCES 433

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 453

INDEX 455