HANDBOOK OF Online Education

SHIRLEY BENNETT,
DEBRA MARSH and CLARE KILLEN

continuum

CONTENTS

Resource Map 12
Acknowledgements 28

Part One
Making the Handbook Work for You 29

Who is this Handbook for? 30
Is there a limitation in appeal? 30
Why a recipe book? 30
What is active learning? 32
Can online learning be active learning? 32
How is the Handbook organized? 34
How to use this book 35
Recipes – using them or adapting them 36
How are the activities structured? 36
Using the activities – the e-tutor role in promoting active learning online 39

Part Two
Resources for Promoting Active Learning Online 43

1 Resources for building confidence for online learning 44

First steps in using the tools 46

RBC1 Finding your way around ... actively! 46
RBC2 Where do I go next? 50

Getting to know the other members of your online group 54

RBC3 Where do you come from? 54
RBC4 Is there anyone in my group who ...? 57
RBC5 True or false? 60

Online socialization 63

RBC6 Time for tea? 63
RBC7 Ideas at play 67
RBC8 Your time to shine ... anonymously 71

2 Resources for promoting understanding of online learning 74

The nature of online learning 76

RPUOL1 Online learning – the same or different? 76

RPUOL2 Learner choice – online or face to face? 79

RPUOL3 What's my style? 83

RPUOL4 Doing it online! 91

Roles in online learning 95

RPUOL5 Expectations rematch 95

RPUOL6 Dynamics or dynamite 100

Establishing the norms 105

RPUOL7 The need for netiquette 105

RPUOL8 Our online community – agreeing the house rules 114

3 Resources for learning to learn actively online 118

Organizational skills 120

RLL1 24 hours in a day 120

RLL2 Teamwork online – getting the job done on time 127

RLL3 'Spinning a meaningful web' 133

Information skills 139

RLL4 Searching and finding 139

RLL5 Fool's gold or the real thing? 144

RLL6 Using ICT tools for note-taking 149

RLL7 This is what we want to know 154

RLL8 Sharing responses to reading 158

Writing skills 163

RLL9 Building the plans 163

RLL10 Using and abusing tools to improve writing style 169

RLL11 Writing bees 173

4 Resources for promoting active approaches to study 178

Learning through collaboration 180

RPAAS1 Sharing out the workload 180
RPAAS2 Piecing the jigsaw together – web-questing 185
RPAAS3 Behind the scenes 190
RPAAS4 Time to think 198
RPAAS5 The game of spot the difference? 205

Learner-led learning 210

RPAAS6 Learning outcomes – learner choice 210
RPAAS7 Building a collaborative bank 215
RPAAS8 Online seminar 218
RPAAS9 Round and round we go 222

Supporting work-based learning 227

RPAAS10 Learning contracts 227
RPAAS11 A guide on the side ... active support for the mentor-mentee relationship 232
RPAAS12 Alone ... yet not alone! 236
RPAAS13 Presenting posters 242

5 Resources for assessment and active learning online 246

Assessing skills 248

RAALO1 SWOT for progress in learning online 248
RAALO2 Here's the evidence to prove it! 254
RAALO3 Topical role-play 261
RAALO4 Focus work 266

Assessing knowledge and understanding 270

RAALO5 Quizzical 270
RAALO6 Summary reflections 274
RAALO7 Making your portfolio work for you 278
RAALO8 Together we stand or fall 282

Engaging learners with the learning and assessment process 288

RAALO9 Negotiated assessment criteria 288
RAALO10 Peer review for assessment and learning 294
RAALO11 Learning journals 297
RAALO12 Redrafting for success 301

6 Resources for dealing with the unexpected 306

Patterns of participation 308

RDU1 Just browsing 308

RDU2 Take a back seat 312

RDU3 Twists of fate 315

RDU4 Chat time 318

Avoiding and handling disagreements 321

RDU5 Question of culture 321

RDU6 A joke is a joke – was that funny? 325

RDU7 Flaming practice 327

Enabling student representation online 330

RDU8 Listening to the learner voice 330

RDU9 Suggestion box chat 334

References 336

Glossary 339

Index 342