

teach
yourself

how to dj

goal
learn to DJ

category
music

content

- learn the practical aspects of DJing
- understand how to work the dance floor
- become confident and experienced,

be where you want to be with teach yourself

teach[®]
yourself

	about the author	vi
	acknowledgements	vii
01	introduction	1
	what is a DJ?	2
	the rise of the DJ	3
	why be a DJ now?	6
	are you a DJ?	7
02	tools of the trade	9
	vinyl v CD v MP3	10
	turntables	13
	CD decks	16
	MP3 software, hardware, Final Scratch and Ableton Live	22
03	mixing	29
	track structure: beats, bars and phrases	30
	vinyl manipulation	32
	cueing up	35
	beat mixing	37
	the perfect blend	42
	CD mixing	48
	digital mixing	51
04	tricks of the trade	57
	EQ	58
	FX	60
	classic tricks	63
	scratching	70

05	programming and sets	76
	researching and preparing for gigs	77
	reading the dancefloor	81
	programming	82
	shaping a set	85
06	the dancefloor	93
	dealing with nerves	94
	stage presence	97
	dealing with requests	98
	dealing with disasters	100
	your ears	100
	DJ etiquette	102
07	originality	103
	your style	105
	relying on big tunes	106
	building a collection	107
	finding and buying the music	109
08	turning pro	114
	starting out and getting booked	115
	making a demo mix	115
	how to get booked	117
	how to stay booked	119
	getting paid	120
	getting a booking agent	123
	getting a manager	124
	getting on mailing lists	124
	playing on the radio	126
09	what the DJs say	129
	Tom Findlay, Groove Armada	130
	Jon Moore and Matt Black, Coldcut	131
	Fred Deakin, Lemon Jelly	132
	Craig Richards, Fabric	133
	Erol Alkan	134
	Miguel Migs	135
	Pete Lawrence, The Big Chill	136

	DJ Format	137
	The Glimmers	138
	Ewan Pearson	138
	Trevor Nelson	139
	Cosmo	141
	Yousef	142
	Chris Duckenfield	143
	Sandy Rivera, Kings of Tomorrow	144
	Rob da Bank	144
10	when it all goes wrong, when it all goes right	146
11	the ten commandments	151
	the ten commandments	152
12	taking it further	153
	books	154
	videos/DVDs	155
	magazines	155
	DJ and music-based websites	156
	online download shops	157
	record shops selling CDs and vinyl online	158
	record shops	159
	DJ equipment and software manufacturers	161
	DJ equipment shops and online stores	161
	organisations and courses	162
	club promo mailing lists	162
	further information for radio DJs	163
	DJ events, conferences and festivals	164
	glossary	165
	appendices
	appendix 1 – turntable features	171
	appendix 2 – CD deck features	173
	appendix 3 – mixer features	175
	appendix 4 – problems and solutions	177
	index	180