PART I

Establishing a Framework for Assessing Students 1

---

1 Historical Perspective 2

- Correspondence Study, Open Universities, and Broadcasting 5
- Multiple Technologies Without the Computer 8
- Multiple Technologies with the Computer and Computer Networking 9
- Addition of High-Bandwidth Computer Technologies 10
- Summary 11
- Terms Introduced in This Chapter 13

2 Measuring Knowledge 14

- Categories of Learning Outcomes 15
  - Declarative Knowledge 16
  - Procedural Knowledge 17
  - Problem Solving 20
- Performance Objectives 22
  - Type of Capability 22
    - Behavior 22
    - Situation 24
    - Special Conditions 24
- Selection of Performance Objectives 25
  - Describe the Results of Learning 25
  - Use Relevant Behavior as Indicators 25
  - Assess All Critical Aspects of the Knowledge 25
  - Assess an Appropriate Sample of All Knowledge 25

- Conveying Performance Objectives to Learners 25
- Goals Versus Performance Objectives 26
- Summary 27

- Answers: Apply What You Are Learning 27
- Terms Introduced in This Chapter 27
- Enhance Your Understanding 28
- Additional Reading 28

3 Gathering Evidence of Validity 29

- Criterion-Related Evidence of Validity 31
- Construct-Related Evidence of Validity 32
  - Illustration of Step 1: Identify Specific Knowledge to Measure 34
  - Illustration of Step 2: Classify Each Aspect of Knowledge as Information, Concept, Rule, or Problem Solving 35
  - Illustration of Step 3: Given the Type of Capability Involved, Identify a Performance to Indicate That Learners Have Achieved the Knowledge 36
- Content-Related Evidence of Validity 37
  - Performance Objectives 38
  - Table of Specifications 38
- Valid Interpretation and Use of Tests 40
- Summary 42
- Answers: Apply What You Are Learning 42
- Terms Introduced in This Chapter 43
- Enhance Your Understanding 43
- Additional Reading 43

4 Generalizing Observed Performance to Unobserved Performance 44

Why Observations Do Not Generalize 45

Inconsistencies Between Tasks 45

Inconsistencies Between Raters 49

Inconsistencies Between Earlier and Later Occasions 49

Techniques for Improving Generalizability 50

Technique 1: Improving the Quality of Observations 50

Technique 2: Improving the Scoring of Performances 51

Technique 3: Increasing the Number of Observations 51

Technique 4: Expanding the Breadth of Observations 51

Summary 52

Answers: Apply What You Are Learning 52

Terms Introduced in This Chapter 53

PART II

Determining an Assessment Plan 55

---

5 Determining What to Assess 56

Establishing What to Assess Within Training and Education 57

Types of Skills Emphasized in Training and Education 57

Selecting Content to Be Assessed When Training Is Involved 58

Selecting Content to Be Assessed When Education Is Involved 60

Other Practical Considerations That Determine What to Assess 66

Establishing Required Confidence in Conclusions 66

Constraints Imposed by Test Format 67

Need for Security 68

Summary 68

Answers: Apply What You Are Learning 69

Terms Introduced in This Chapter 69

Enhance Your Understanding 69

6 Determining How Assessments Will Be Interpreted and Used 70

Frames of Reference for Interpreting Performance 70

Ability-Referenced Interpretations 71

Growth-Referenced Interpretations 72

Norm-Referenced and Criterion-Referenced Interpretations 72

When to Use Criterion- and Norm-Referenced Interpretations 73

Choosing the Appropriate Interpretation 77

Interpretations of Formative Assessments 76

Interpretations for Summative Assessments 77

Establishing Procedures for Assigning Course Grades 77

Establishing Grading Criteria 78

Summary 80

PART III

Producing and Administering Written Assessments 83

---

7 Creating Constructed-Response Items 84

Completion Items 85

Advantages and Limitations of Completion Items 85

Identifying Qualities Desired in Completion Items 86

Practice Applying These Desired Qualities to Completion Items 87

Essay Items 89

    Advantages and Limitations of Essay Items 89

    Identifying Qualities Desired in Essay Items 91

    Practice Applying These Desired Qualities to Essay Items 96

    Scoring Responses to Essay Items 98

Summary 100

Answers: Apply What You Are Learning 100

8 Creating Fixed-Response Items 103

Advantages and Limitations of Fixed-Response Items 103

    Advantages of Fixed-Response Items 103

    Limitations of Fixed-Response Items 105

Identifying Qualities Desired in Fixed-Response Items 107

    Desired Qualities Specific to Multiple-Choice Items 110

    Desired Qualities Specific to True-False Items 113

Practice Applying These Desired Qualities to Fixed-Response Items 114

Optimal Number of Choices for Multiple-Choice Items 117

Variations of Fixed-Response Items 118

    Matching Items 118

    Option Ranking Items 118

    Multiple True-False Items 119

    Embedded-Choice Items 119

9 Administering Written Tests on the Web 124

Common Characteristics of Software for Online Tests 125

    Available Item Formats 125

    Producing the Test 127

    Administering and Scoring Items and Providing Feedback 131

    Managing Records 132

Standards for Online Testing Software 133

    Standards Related to Supported Item Content and Formats 133

    Standards Related to Ease with Which a Test Is Produced 133

    Standards Related to Controlling Students' Access to a Test 134

    Standards Related to How a Test Is Displayed to Students 136

    Standards Related to Scoring Tests and Providing Feedback 136

Issues and Practical Options for Addressing Security 137

    Security from the Perspective of Students 137

    Security from the Perspective of Instructors and Institutions 138

PART IV Producing and Administering Performance Assessments 141

---

10 Considerations When Using Performance Assessments 142

Characteristics of Performance Assessments 144

    Categories of Performance Assessments 144

    Advantages of Performance Assessments 145

    Limitations of Performance Assessments 147

Options for Scoring Performance Assessments 147

- Scoring Option 1: Comparisons with a Model 147
- Scoring Option 2 and 3: Checklists and Rating Scales 149
- Scoring Option 4: Scoring Rubrics 152

Actions to Take Before Creating a Performance Assessment 153

- Identify Authentic Tasks 155
- Identify Concise Goals That Will Be Assessed 155
- Determine Whether the Assessment Will Focus on Process or Product 156
- Tell Learners What Will Be Expected of Them 156
- Determine That Learners Have Mastered Prerequisite Skills 156

Summary 156

Terms Introduced in This Chapter 157

Enhance Your Understanding 157

Additional Reading 157

11 Creating Online Performance Assessments 158

Step 1: Establishing the Capability to Be Assessed 159

Step 2: Establishing the Performance to Be Observed 162

- Identifying Summary Descriptions of Tasks Associated with Goal Being Assessed 163
- Describing the Tasks to Be Performed 164
- Establishing Whether the Focus Is on the Process or Product 165
- Identifying Prerequisite Skills to Be Verified 165
- Establishing Instructions to Learners 166

Step 3: Establishing the Scoring Plan 166

Additional Examples of Creating Performance Assessments 168

- Example 2: Classifying Knowledge as Declaration or Procedural 168

- Example 3: Using Word to Provide Feedback on Projects 170
- Example 4: Evaluating Assumptions When Selecting a Statistical Technique 171
- Example 5: Establishing Strategies to Locate Astronomical Objects in the Sky 175

12 Managing Online Performance Assessments 181

Issues Affecting Choice of Management System 182

- Type of Material 183
- Private or Public Handling of Material 183
- Detached or Integrated Feedback 183
- Student Records 184

Transferring Products Between Students and Instructor 185

- File Transfer Protocol 185
- E-mail 185
- Course Management Systems 186

Improving Efficiency of Performance Assessments 188

- Ensuring High Performance Levels 188
- Providing Models of Completed Work 188
- Helping Learners Improve Readability of Work 188
- Incorporating Peer Reviews 191
- Streamlining Scoring and Score Recording Process 191
