

MAKING TEACHING WORK

'teaching smarter'
in post-compulsory education

Phil Race and Ruth Pickford

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| About this book | vii |
| Acknowledgements | x |
| 1 Why teach smarter? | 1 |
| 2 Beyond learning cycles and styles | 9 |
| 3 Supporting individual learning and responding to learning needs | 21 |
| 4 Working with small groups | 31 |
| 5 Working with large groups | 61 |
| 6 Dealing with disruptive students | 81 |
| 7 Developing online learning | 95 |
| 8 Managing assessment and feedback | 109 |
| 9 Differentiation | 123 |
| 10 Addressing student satisfaction | 133 |
| 11 Finding your feet as a new or part-time member of staff | 151 |
| 12 Putting your best foot forward | 161 |
| 13 Onward and upward | 173 |
| References, further reading and useful websites | 177 |
| Index | 179 |