

LABORATORY DIAGNOSIS OF INFECTIOUS DISEASES

Essentials of Diagnostic Microbiology

Paul G. Engelkirk • Janet Duben-Engelkirk

Contents

SECTION I Introduction to Microbes and the Diseases They Cause

- Chapter 1* Microbes and the Science of Microbiology 3
Chapter 2 Understanding Infectious Diseases 18
Chapter 3 Combating Pathogens and Infectious Diseases 43

SECTION II Introduction to the Clinical Microbiology Laboratory

- Chapter 4* Organization and Responsibilities of the Clinical Microbiology Laboratory 71
Chapter 5 Clinical Specimens Used for the Diagnosis of Infectious Diseases 96
Chapter 6 General Clinical Microbiology Laboratory Methods 124
Chapter 7 Antimicrobial Agents and Antimicrobial Susceptibility Testing 153

SECTION III Bacterial Infections

- Chapter 8* Introduction to Medical Bacteriology 185
Chapter 9 Gram-Positive Cocci 213
Chapter 10 Gram-Positive and Acid-Fast Bacilli 240
Chapter 11 Gram-Negative Cocci and Related Bacteria 272
Chapter 12 Gram-Negative Bacilli: The Family Enterobacteriaceae 292
Chapter 13 Gram-Negative Bacilli: Nonfermenters 319
Chapter 14 Fastidious and Miscellaneous Gram-Negative Bacilli 335
Chapter 15 Curved and Spiral-Shaped Bacilli 363
Chapter 16 Obligate Intracellular Bacteria 381
Chapter 17 Anaerobic Bacteria 392
Chapter 18 Laboratory Diagnosis of Selected Bacterial Infections 444

SECTION IV Fungal Infections

- Chapter 19* Introduction to Medical Mycology 489
Chapter 20 Laboratory Diagnosis of Selected Fungal Infections 507

SECTION V Parasitic Infections

- Chapter 21* Introduction to Medical Parasitology 543
Chapter 22 Laboratory Diagnosis of Selected Protozoal Infections 553
Chapter 23 Laboratory Diagnosis of Selected Helminth Infections 584

SECTION VI Viral Infections

- Chapter 24* Introduction to Medical Virology 621
- Chapter 25* Laboratory Diagnosis of Selected Viral Infections 640

SECTION VII Additional Responsibilities of the Clinical Microbiology Laboratory

- Chapter 26* Health Care Epidemiology and Bioterrorism 667
- Appendix A Clinical Microbiology Laboratory Procedures 683
- Appendix B Useful Conversions 712
- Appendix C Answers to Self-Assessment Exercises 713
- Glossary 719
- Index 739
