

The Human Services

Internship

Second Edition

Getting the Most from Your Experience

Pamela Myers Kiser

Contents

---

Preface	xiii
Introduction	xix

Chapter 1

GETTING READY

1

So What Is an Internship?	2
Myths About Internships	3
Myth #1: My Fieldwork Will Probably Lead to a Job Within That Agency	3
Myth #2: While Doing My Fieldwork, I Will Learn by Doing and Will Not Have Assignments and Homework as in Traditional Classes	4
Myth #3: An Internship Is Like an Apprenticeship. I Will Work Under a Qualified Professional and Learn to Do as He or She Does	4
Myth #4: As an Intern I Will Have the Responsibilities and Autonomy of a Professional Staff Person	5
Myth #5: Doing an Internship Is Like Being a Volunteer in the Organization	5
Myth #6: Doing an Internship Is Like Doing a Service-Learning Project	6
Myth #7: If I Do Not Enjoy My Internship, I Must Have Chosen the Wrong Field Site or the Wrong Career	6
Myth #8: For My Fieldwork to Be Most Useful, It Should Be in the Same Type of Job I Would Like to Find After Graduation	7
Myth #9: Everyone Gets an "A" in the Internship	7
Why Do an Internship?	7
Understanding Your Internship as Developing Over Time	9
Stage 1: Preplacement Stage	10
Stage 2: Initiation Stage	10
Stage 3: Working Stage	12
Stage 4: Termination Stage	13
Developing an Electronic Portfolio	15
Educational E-Portfolios	15
E-Portfolio Benefits	16
E-Portfolio Formats	17
Conclusion	17
For Your E-Portfolio	18
References	18

Chapter 2

GETTING STARTED

21

- Selecting a Field Site 22
  - Considering Populations* 23
  - Considering Fields of Practice (Settings)* 24
  - Considering Agency/Worker Function* 27
- The Initial Meeting with Your Prospective Supervisor 30
- Developing a Learning Plan 33
  - Identifying Goals* 34
  - Identifying Strategies* 35
  - Identifying Methods of Assessment* 35
- Conclusion 38
- For Your E-Portfolio 39
- References 39

Chapter 3

GETTING ACQUAINTED

41

- Getting to Know Your Agency 42
- Getting to Know Your Co-Workers 43
  - Understanding Your Role in the Organization* 45
- Learning About the Agency's Mission, Goals, Objectives, and Strategies 46
- Learning About the Agency's Organizational Structure 49
- Learning About Agency Funding 51
- Learning About the Agency's Network 53
- Learning About Your Client Groups 55
- Learning About the Context of Your Organization 57
  - Getting to Know the Community* 57
  - Understanding the Agency's Legal, Social, and Political Contexts* 62
- Conclusion 65
- For Your E-Portfolio 66
- References 66

Chapter 4

LEARNING TO LEARN FROM EXPERIENCE: THE INTEGRATIVE PROCESSING MODEL

69

- The Role of Reflection in Learning from Experience 69
- Student Example 70

An Overview of the Integrative Processing Model	72
Step 1: Gathering Objective Data from Concrete Experience	73
Step 2: Reflecting	75
Step 3: Identifying Relevant Theory and Knowledge	76
Step 4: Examining Dissonance	77
Step 5: Articulating Learning	79
Step 6: Developing a Plan	80
Applying the Integrative Processing Model	83
Case Example 1: A Direct Service Situation	83
Case Example 2: An Administrative Services Situation	86
Conclusion	90
For Your E-Portfolio	90
References	91

Chapter 5

USING SUPERVISION

93

Understanding the Supervisory Relationship	94
Supervisor Characteristics	95
Student Characteristics	98
Working Within the Supervisory Relationship	100
Supervision Is a Planned Contact	100
Supervision Is Prepared For	101
Supervision Involves Discussing Professional Issues	101
Supervision Includes Planning	102
Supervision Generates Feedback	103
Conclusion	107
For Your E-Portfolio	107
References	107

Chapter 6

COMMUNICATING WITH CLIENTS

109

The Basic Skills	110
Values and Attitudes	110
Active Listening	112
Client Interviewing	114
Exploration Skills	116
Action Skills	117
Working with Individuals	119
Working with Reluctant Clients	119
Case Management and Advocacy	122

Working with Families	125
Working with Groups	128
Working with Communities	134
Community Education	134
Community Organization	135
Political Engagement	135
Conclusion	138
For Your E-Portfolio	138
References	138

Chapter 7

DEALING WITH DIVERSITY

141

An Overview	141
Understanding Concepts Related to Diversity	142
Experiencing Diverse Groups	144
Increasing Your Knowledge About Other Cultures	146
Developing Awareness of Your Own Culture	148
Decreasing Ethnocentrism	151
Case Example: One Placement + Two Students = Cultural Insight	152
Understanding Biculturalism as an Adaptive Mechanism	154
Case Example: A Client Learns to Be Bicultural	155
Understanding Social Location	157
Understanding Power Differentials	159
Considering the Isms and You	162
Understanding Agency Culture	163
Conclusion	165
For Your E-Portfolio	166
References	166

Chapter 8

DEVELOPING ETHICAL COMPETENCE

169

An Overview	170
Competency 1: Understanding the Ethical and Legal Foundations of the Profession	171
Ethical Standards of the Human Service Profession	171
Legal Issues and Standards of the Profession	172
Competency 2: Understanding the Values and Ideals That Should Guide Responsible Human Services Practice	175

Competency 3: Recognizing the Ethical, Legal, and Values Issues Involved in Any Given Practice Situation	176
Case Example 1	176
Case Example 2	178
Case Example 3	179
Competency 4: Weighing Conflicting Ethical and Values Positions in a Given Situation and Making Decisions Between Them	182
The Ethical Principles Screen	182
Case Example 4	183
Ethical Decision Making	185
Conclusion	189
For Your E-Portfolio	189
References	189

Chapter 9

WRITING AND REPORTING WITHIN YOUR FIELD AGENCY

191

Writing in Human Service Settings	192
Case Examples: Two Cautionary Tales on the Importance of Documentation	193
Written Reports Related to Direct Services to Clients	194
Purposes of Documentation	195
Ground Rules for Documentation	197
Common Types of Written Reports Regarding Direct Client Care	198
Written Reports Related to Administrative Services	206
Reports About Agency Programs	206
Time Interval Reports	206
Reports to the Board of Directors	207
Funding Requests	208
Public Relations	210
Oral Reporting	211
Conclusion	216
For Your E-Portfolio	216
References	217

Chapter 10

MANAGING YOUR FEELINGS AND YOUR STRESS

219

Developing Self-Awareness	220
Developing Self-Understanding	221

Developing Assertiveness	222
Case Example: A Nonassertive Response to a Problem	224
Developing Conflict Resolution Skills	225
Developing Positive Self-Talk	228
Developing Self-Control	231
Learning to Manage Your Stress	233
Conclusion	239
For Your E-Portfolio	240
References	240

Chapter 11

TROUBLE-SHOOTING

243

Making Mistakes and Learning from Them	244
Case Example 1	244
Making More Serious Mistakes	245
Case Example 2	246
Maintaining Good Work Habits	248
Case Example 3	248
Maintaining Appropriate Professional Boundaries	250
Case Example 4	251
Case Example 5	252
Guarding Against Dual Relationships	253
Case Example 6	254
Case Example 7	256
Maintaining a Balance Between Your Work Life and Your Personal Life	258
Case Example 8	259
Case Example 9	262
Keeping Safe	264
Conclusion	267
For Your E-Portfolio	267
References	268

Chapter 12

ENDING YOUR INTERNSHIP

271

Evaluating Your Performance	272
Understanding the Final Evaluation	272
Preparing for Your Evaluation	274
The Field Supervisor's Perspective	276

The Evaluation Conference	277
The Faculty Liaison's Perspective	280
Leaving Your Internship	281
General Guidelines for Positive Termination	282
Be Aware of Your Previous Experiences and Patterns with Terminations	282
Be Self-Aware, Recognizing Your Needs and Wants	284
Reflect Upon and Deal with Your Feelings	285
Review the Experience	286
Acknowledge the Progress and the Changes That You Have Made	286
Saying Good-Bye to Your Supervisor	289
Saying Good-Bye to Your Clients	291
Transferring Your Work	295
Termination Rituals	297
Conclusion	298
For Your E-Portfolio	298
References	299

Chapter 13

PLANNING YOUR CAREER

301

Where Are You Now? Thinking About the "Answered Questions"	302
Where Are You Now? Thinking About the "Unanswered Questions"	303
Where Are You Going? Clarifying Your Career Goals	305
Case Example 1: Defining Skills	305
Case Example 2: Finding a Niche	306
Achieving Your Career Goals	308
Case Example 3: Finding the Right Focus	308
Case Example 4: Finding a Specialization	309
Case Example 5: Finding a Way	309
Case Example 6: Finding a Job	310
Basic Steps in Career Development	311
Step 1: Clarifying Long-Term Goals as Distinct from Short-Term Goals or Intermediate Goals	311
Step 2: Doing Your Research (For a Job or an Advanced Academic Program)	313
Case Example 6 Continued: Research	314
Step 3: Conducting a Job Search	316
Case Example 6 Continued: The Job Search	316
Developing a Resume	317
Writing Effective Letters	319
Developing Interviewing Skills	321
Maintaining a Positive Outlook	323

Conclusion	324
For Your E-Portfolio	324
References	325

Appendix
ETHICAL STANDARDS OF HUMAN SERVICE PROFESSIONALS	327
Index	333