SCIENCE, RELIGION AND THE MEANING OF LIFE MARK VERNON

'At last, a well-written and well-reasoned defense of agnosticism that one can sign up to regardless of prior religious or non-religious commitments.

I recommend this work be read by skeptics and believers alike.'

Michael Shermer, publisher of Skeptic magazine and author of How We Believe

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations		хi
A	Acknowledgements
Introduction Cultures of Certainty On Being Agnostic		1
	Cultures of Certainty	4
	On Being Agnostic	7
	Wisdom's Lovers	9
1	Socrates' Quest: the Beginning of Wisdom	13
	Solving the Riddle	15
	Philosophical Creed	18
	Beautiful People	19
	Living Uncertainty	23
	Know Thyself	25
	Are Gods Good?	26
	Marginal Belief	29
	Inner Daemons	30
	Socrates in Conversation	33
	Last Words	37
2	Cosmologists and Darwinists: the Limits of Science	39
	The Dark Glass	40
	A Spirituality of Science	43
	Alchemy's Inheritors	44
	Paradigm Shifts	47

	Working with Mysteries	49
	Humility and Hubris	53
3	Visions of Reality: Science and Wonder	57
	Causes and Conditions	60
	Policies for Happiness	63
	Metaphorical Science	66
	Diminishing Humanity	68
	Critical Wonderment	70
	Ethical Import	77
	Cultivating Humility	80
4	Bad Faith: Religion as Certainty	85
	The Atheist's God	87
	God Unknown	89
	'Proofs' of God	91
	The Loss of Contemplation	93
	After Atheism	95
	The Gift of Creation	97
	Back to Church?	98
	Myth and Logos	101
	The Theist's God	103
	Other Fundamentalisms	108
5	CHRISTIAN AGNOSTICISM: LEARNED IGNORANCE	111
	Varieties of Silence	114
	Beyond Experience	117
	Agnostic Integrity	122
	The Problem of Evil	126
	Wagering on God	133
	The Charge of Deism	135
6	Following Socrates: a Way of Life	139
	Encountering Socrates	142
	Philosophy School	145
	Socratic Exercises	148

	Contents	1X
The Diversification of Styles		151
Christian Innovations		153
Modern Socratics		155
Not so Academic		158
Reclaiming the Religious		160
7 How to Be an Agnostic: an Aphori	STIC A-Z	165
A - is for Agnosticism		165
B - remembers Francis Bacon		166
C - is for Church		166
D - is about Darwinism		166
E - is for Ethos		169
F - is about Facts		169
G - is on God		169
H - is for History		169
I - is for Imagination		17 1
K - is for Kant		171
L - is for Love		172
M - is for Mountains		174
N - is about Neurosis		176
O - is on Our Place in the Universe		179
P - is for Philosophy		179
Q - is a Question		181
R - is for Reading and Writing		182
S - is for Silence		184
T - is about Therapy		184
U - is for the Unorthodox		187
W - is for Why?		187
Y - is for You		188
Z - is Unending		188
Further Reading and References		189
Index		195	