

B H

ADRIAN PAYNE

HANDBOOK OF CRM

Achieving Excellence in Customer Management

BROADVISION

Chordiant

sas

Teradata
a division of NCR

UNISYS

vectia

Contents

| | |
|---|----------|
| Preface | xiii |
| About the Author | xvii |
| Acknowledgements | xix |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 A strategic framework for CRM | 4 |
| The origins of CRM | 6 |
| The key principles of relationship marketing | 9 |
| An emphasis on retention of profitable customers | 9 |
| An emphasis on multiple markets | 9 |
| An emphasis on a cross-functional approach to marketing | 10 |
| The rise of CRM | 11 |
| Marketing on the basis of relationships | 11 |
| Viewing customers as business assets | 12 |
| Organizing in terms of processes | 12 |
| From reactive to proactive use of information | 13 |
| Deploying IT to maximize the value of information | 14 |
| Balancing the value trade-off | 15 |
| Developing 'one-to-one' marketing | 16 |
| The role of CRM | 17 |
| Varying definitions of CRM | 18 |
| The CRM continuum – three perspectives of CRM | 18 |
| Use of CRM and its terminology | 20 |
| A definition of CRM | 22 |
| Types of CRM | 23 |
| The size and nature of the CRM market | 24 |
| Sector growth within the CRM market | 25 |
| CRM and software vendors | 25 |
| Five key cross-functional CRM processes | 29 |
| The need for a CRM strategic framework | 30 |
| Process 1: the strategy development process | 32 |
| Process 2: the value creation process | 32 |

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Process 3: the multi-channel integration process | 32 |
| Process 4: the information management process | 32 |
| Process 5: the performance assessment process | 33 |
| The structure of the book | 33 |
| Chapter 1: Developing a strategic framework for CRM | 33 |
| Chapter 2: The strategy development process | 34 |
| Chapter 3: The value creation process | 34 |
| Chapter 4: The multi-channel integration process | 35 |
| Chapter 5: The information management process | 35 |
| Chapter 6: The performance assessment process | 36 |
| Chapter 7: Organizing for CRM implementation | 37 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 38 |
| 2 The strategy development process | 39 |
| Business strategy | 41 |
| The role of business strategy | 42 |
| Business vision | 43 |
| Industry and competitive characteristics | 47 |
| The new competitive landscape | 47 |
| Putting the new economy in context | 48 |
| Changes in industry structure and evolution | 50 |
| Analysing the industry and competitive environment | 51 |
| Focusing on business strategy | 60 |
| Customer strategy | 61 |
| The role of customer strategy | 61 |
| Customer choice and characteristics: the role of market segmentation | 62 |
| Who is the customer? | 63 |
| Market segmentation | 64 |
| Definition of the relevant market | 65 |
| Criteria for market segment viability | 65 |
| Considering the alternative bases for segmentation | 66 |
| Segment granularity: from mass marketing to 'one-to-one' marketing | 69 |
| 'One-to-one' markets and permission marketing | 69 |
| Mass customization | 71 |
| Communities or segments? | 73 |
| Focusing on customer strategy | 75 |
| Aligning business strategy and customer strategy | 78 |
| CRM strategy development | 78 |
| Product-based selling | 81 |
| Managed service and support | 82 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Customer-based marketing | 83 |
| Individualized CRM | 84 |
| Migration paths for CRM | 87 |
| Summary | 88 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 90 |
| Case 2.1 DnB Nor Bank pursues an enterprising strategy with Teradata | 92 |
| Case 2.2 RS components: towards individualized CRM with BroadVision | 97 |
| 3 The value creation process | 102 |
| The value the customer receives | 103 |
| The nature of value – what the customer buys | 104 |
| How the core and augmented offer add value | 104 |
| How relationships add value | 111 |
| How brands add value | 117 |
| The value proposition | 123 |
| Formulating the value proposition | 124 |
| The value delivery system | 128 |
| Building the value proposition | 129 |
| Value assessment | 130 |
| Traditional means of customers’ assessment of value | 131 |
| Improving value assessment using trade-off analysis | 132 |
| The value the organization receives | 135 |
| Customer profitability | 136 |
| Why customers differ in their real profitability | 137 |
| Understanding future profit potential | 139 |
| Customer acquisition and its economics | 140 |
| Customer acquisition at United Electricity plc | 140 |
| Acquisition within different channels | 142 |
| Improving acquisition activities | 142 |
| Customer retention and its economics | 143 |
| Customer retention at United Electricity plc | 144 |
| Why retention improvement impacts profitability | 145 |
| Acquisition and retention activities in practice | 146 |
| A framework for customer retention improvement | 148 |
| Step 1: measurement of customer retention | 148 |
| Step 2: identification of causes of defection and key service issues | 148 |
| Step 3: corrective action to improve retention | 149 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Customer segment lifetime value | 149 |
| Defining the role of customer lifetime value | 150 |
| Calculating customer lifetime value | 152 |
| Building profit improvement | 153 |
| Summary | 155 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 157 |
| Case 3.1 BT – creating new customer value propositions | 159 |
| Case 3.2 Building new value propositions at Zurich Financial Services | 164 |
| 4 The multi-channel integration process | 168 |
| Channel participants and channel options | 169 |
| The development of electronic channels | 170 |
| Reviewing industry channel structures | 171 |
| Channel participants | 171 |
| Reviewing channel alternatives | 172 |
| Understanding structural change – the role of intermediaries | 173 |
| Disintermediation | 173 |
| Reintermediation | 174 |
| Benchmarking structural change | 175 |
| Orientation of intermediaries | 176 |
| Developing market structure maps | 177 |
| Channel options and categories | 179 |
| Channel categories | 179 |
| Mobile commerce as a separate channel category | 180 |
| Integration and the channel categories | 184 |
| Sales force | 185 |
| Outlets | 185 |
| Telephony | 186 |
| Direct mail | 187 |
| E-commerce | 187 |
| M-commerce | 188 |
| Combining channels | 189 |
| Channel strategies | 190 |
| Channel strategy options | 191 |
| The role of a multi-channel strategy | 192 |
| Understanding the customer relationship life-cycle | 193 |
| Understanding the customer experience | 195 |
| The customer experience and emotional goodwill | 196 |
| Evaluating the customer experience | 196 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| The customer experience within channel | 198 |
| The customer experience across channels | 198 |
| Improving the customer experience – the role of technology | 199 |
| The ‘perfect’ customer experience | 200 |
| Building a multi-channel strategy | 205 |
| Develop strategic multi-channel objectives | 205 |
| Understand needs and concerns of key customer segments | 206 |
| Undertake a strategic review of industry structure and channel options | 208 |
| Understand shifts in channel usage patterns | 209 |
| Review channel economics | 210 |
| Economics of the online retail toy market | 211 |
| Economics of the online grocery market | 211 |
| Develop an integrated channel management strategy | 212 |
| Planning channel strategy across stakeholders | 214 |
| Summary | 215 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 216 |
| Case 4.1 Ideal Boilers: a mobile solution for plumbers | 218 |
| Case 4.2 Guinness – Delivering the ‘Perfect Pint’ | 222 |
| 5 The information management process | 226 |
| The role of information, IT and information management | 228 |
| Information | 228 |
| IT | 228 |
| Information management | 229 |
| The information management process | 230 |
| The technical barriers in CRM | 232 |
| The data repository | 233 |
| Selecting and combining technology options for CRM | 236 |
| Tactical database and decision support systems | 237 |
| Data marts | 239 |
| Enterprise data warehouse | 241 |
| Integrated CRM solutions | 243 |
| The choice of technology options | 245 |
| Analytical tools | 247 |
| Standard data mining | 248 |
| Visualization tools | 248 |
| Segmentation, prediction, deviation detection and link analysis | 248 |
| Neural networks | 250 |
| Decision trees | 250 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Task-specific analysis tools | 251 |
| Market segmentation analysis | 251 |
| Affinity grouping | 252 |
| Churn management | 252 |
| Customer profiling | 253 |
| Profitability analysis | 253 |
| Online analytical processing (OLAP) | 254 |
| IT systems | 255 |
| Selecting hardware | 256 |
| Front-office and back-office applications | 258 |
| Front-office applications | 259 |
| Sales force automation | 260 |
| Call-centre and help-desk management | 260 |
| Product configuration | 262 |
| Marketing automation and campaign management | 263 |
| Back-office applications | 264 |
| Opportunities offered by emerging technology | 265 |
| Business process outsourcing, business service provisioning and application service provisioning | 266 |
| Business process outsourcing (BPO) | 267 |
| Application service provider (ASP) | 267 |
| Business service provider (BSP) | 267 |
| Selecting a CRM solution | 268 |
| Data protection, privacy and codes of practice | 270 |
| Timing of technology introduction | 271 |
| Summary | 272 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 273 |
| Case 5.1 Barclays introduces the 'intelligent sell' with SAS® technology | 275 |
| Case 5.2 Halifax gives extra value with E.piphany real-time solutions | 279 |
| 6 The performance assessment process | 283 |
| The need for a systematic approach | 284 |
| Understanding the key drivers of shareholder results | 286 |
| Shareholder value, customer value, employee value and cost reduction | 287 |
| Employee value | 288 |
| Customer value | 289 |
| Shareholder value | 291 |
| Cost reduction | 293 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Linking shareholder value, employee value, customer value and cost reduction | 294 |
| Developing appropriate standards, metrics and KPIs | 295 |
| Standards | 296 |
| The QCi Customer Management Assessment Tool (CMAT) | 297 |
| Customer Operations Performance Centre (COPC) Standard | 298 |
| Metrics | 300 |
| Customer metrics | 300 |
| People and process metrics | 301 |
| Strategic metrics | 302 |
| Output and comparative metrics | 302 |
| Special metrics | 303 |
| Key performance indicators | 303 |
| Multiple measures and linkage models | 304 |
| The balanced scorecard | 305 |
| Linkage models and the service-profit chain | 306 |
| Establishing a CRM performance monitoring system | 309 |
| Developing strategy maps and success maps | 309 |
| Development of metrics and KPIs for your business | 311 |
| Evaluating and communicating CRM return on investment | 313 |
| Relating CRM performance to business performance | 313 |
| Measuring CRM return on investment | 315 |
| Summary | 316 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 317 |
| Case 6.1 Sears, Roebuck and Company | 319 |
| Case 6.2 Nortel Networks | 324 |
| 7 Organizing for CRM implementation | 328 |
| CRM readiness assessment | 330 |
| CRM maturity assessment | 330 |
| Reviewing your stage of CRM maturity | 335 |
| Identifying barriers to CRM success | 336 |
| Lack of skills | 336 |
| Inadequate investment | 336 |
| Poor data quality and quantity | 337 |
| Failure to understand the business benefits | 337 |
| Functional boundaries | 337 |
| Lack of leadership and top management involvement | 337 |
| Inadequate measurement systems | 338 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| CRM readiness audit | 338 |
| The overview CRM audit | 339 |
| The comprehensive CRM audit | 341 |
| Determining key CRM priorities | 344 |
| CRM change management and project management | 345 |
| Change management | 346 |
| A framework for change management | 347 |
| Key issues in CRM change management | 350 |
| Ensure senior CRM sponsorship | 350 |
| Establish a CRM vision | 351 |
| Supportive culture and improved cross-functional working | 353 |
| Project management | 356 |
| A framework for project management | 357 |
| The nature of projects | 358 |
| Delivering business benefits | 360 |
| Key issues in CRM project management | 361 |
| Utilizing a CRM technology solution | 362 |
| Piloting CRM projects | 367 |
| Planning for CRM project implementation | 368 |
| Establishing project priorities and their direction | 369 |
| The CRM project plan | 370 |
| Employee engagement | 373 |
| Selecting employees | 376 |
| Developing employees | 377 |
| Engaging and empowering employees | 378 |
| CRM training and development | 379 |
| The CRM budget | 382 |
| Summary | 384 |
| Checklist for CRM leaders | 386 |
| Case 7.1 Nationwide fulfils its CRM vision with Unisys | 388 |
| Case 7.2 Mercedes-Benz: Implementing a CRM programme | 391 |
| Appendix | 398 |
| References and Notes | 408 |
| CRM Reading List | 420 |
| Index | 430 |
