

Organic Farming

An International History

Edited by W. Lockeretz

Contents

Contributors	vii
Foreword Nadia El-Hage Scialabba	ix
I: Origins and Principles
1. What Explains the Rise of Organic Farming? W. Lockeretz	1
2. The Origins of Organic Farming G. Vogt	9
3. Organic Values M. Sligh and T. Cierpka	30
4. The Science of Organic Farming D.H. Stinner	40
5. The Evolution of Organic Practice U. Niggli	73
II: Policies and Markets
6. The Development of Governmental Support for Organic Farming in Europe S. Padel and N. Lampkin	93

7.	The Organic Market J. Aschemann, U. Hamm, S. Naspetti and R. Zanolì	123
8.	Development of Standards for Organic Farming O. Schmid	152
III: Organizations and Institutions
9.	IFOAM and the History of the International Organic Movement B. Geier	175
10.	The Soil Association P. Conford and P. Holden	187
11.	Ecological Farmers Association and the Success of Swedish Organic Agriculture I. Källander	201
12.	MAPO and the Argentinian Organic Movement D. Foguelman	217
13.	NASAA and Organic Agriculture in Australia E. Wynen and S. Fritz	225
14.	FiBL and Organic Research in Switzerland U. Niggli	242
15.	The Organic Trade Association K. DiMatteo and G. Gershuny	253
IV: Challenges
16.	A Look Towards the Future B. Geier, I. Källander, N. Lampkin, S. Padel, M. Sligh, U. Niggli, G. Vogt and W. Lockeretz	264
	Index	275