

Contents in brief

Contributors vii

Foreword xi

Preface xiii

Acknowledgements xiii

Getting the best from this book xiv

Contents xvii

Section 1 Nursing, quality and communication 1

- 1 Adult nursing: setting the scene 3
- 2 Quality management and standards of care 23
- 3 Communication in adult nursing 39

Section 2 Common nursing issues 57

- 4 Circadian rhythms and sleep patterns 59
- 5 Temperature regulation 75
- 6 Stress 93
- 7 Pain 111
- 8 Problems associated with fluid, electrolyte and acid–base balance 133
- 9 Shock, systemic inflammatory response and multiple organ dysfunction 153
- 10 Tissue viability: managing chronic wounds 173
- 11 Nutrition 201
- 12 Maintaining continence 229
- 13 Infection control 253

Section 3 Nursing patients with common disorders 271

- 14 Nursing patients with neurological problems 273
- 15 Nursing patients with problems of the eye and vision 331

16 Nursing patients with problems of the ear and hearing 367

17 Nursing patients with endocrine and metabolic disorders 393

18 Nursing patients with blood disorders 445

19 Nursing patients with cardiovascular disorders 481

20 Nursing patients with respiratory disorders 533

21 Nursing patients with nose and throat disorders 565

22 Nursing patients with gastrointestinal disorders 591

23 Nursing patients with hepatic, biliary and pancreatic disorders 621

24 Nursing patients with urinary disorders 653

25 Nursing patients with sexual health and reproductive problems 705

26 Nursing patients with breast disorders 771

27 Nursing patients with musculoskeletal disorders 793

28 Nursing patients with skin problems 841

Section 4 Specific areas of adult nursing 877

29 Perioperative nursing 879

30 Nursing patients in the accident and emergency department 923

31 Nursing critically ill patients 947

32 Nursing older adults 967

33 Nursing patients with cancer 985

34 Nursing patients who need palliative care 1021

35 Nursing patients with chronic (long-term) illness and disability 1047

Appendix: Normal values 1067

Glossary 1069

Index 1079