

THIRD EDITION

An Introduction to Business Ethics

JOSEPH DESJARDINS

McGRAW-HILL INTERNATIONAL EDITION

Contents

Preface	xii
Chapter One: Why Study Ethics?	1
Learning Objectives	1
Discussion Case: Enron	2
Discussion Questions	2
1.1 Why Study Business Ethics?	3
1.2 Values and Ethics: Doing Good and Doing Well	5
1.3 The Nature and Goals of Business Ethics	8
1.4 Business Ethics and the Law	10
1.5 Ethics and Ethos	12
1.6 Morality, Virtues, and Social Ethics	13
1.7 Ethical Perspectives: Managers and Other Stakeholders	14
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	15
Review Questions	15
Chapter Two: Ethical Theory and Business	17
Learning Objectives	17
Discussion Case: Executive Compensation	18
Discussion Questions	20
2.1 Introduction	21
2.2 Ethical Relativism and Reasoning in Ethics	22
2.3 Modern Ethical Theory: Utilitarian Ethics	26
2.4 Challenges to Utilitarianism	30
2.5 Utilitarianism and Business Policy	33
2.6 Deontological Ethics	35
2.7 Virtue Ethics	39
2.8 Summary and Review	41
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	42
Review Questions	43

Chapter Three: Corporate Social Responsibility	45
Learning Objectives	45
Discussion Case: Wal-Mart	46
Discussion Questions	46
3.1 Introduction	46
3.2 The Classical Model of Corporate Social Responsibility	51
3.3 Critical Assessment of the Classical Model: The Utilitarian Defense	53
3.4 Critical Assessment of the Classical Model: The Private Property Defense	58
3.5 Modified Version of the Classical Model: The Moral Minimum	61
3.6 The Stakeholder Theory	64
3.7 Summary and Review	67
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	69
Review Questions	70
Chapter Four: Corporate Culture, Governance, and Ethical Leadership	72
Learning Objectives	72
Discussion Case: Our Credo	73
Discussion Questions	73
4.1 Introduction	75
4.2 What Is Corporate Culture?	76
4.3 Culture and Ethics	78
4.4 Ethical Leadership and Corporate Culture	80
4.5 Effective Leadership and Ethical Leadership	81
4.6 Building a Values-Based Corporate Culture	83
Mission Statements, Codes of Conduct, and Statements of Values	83
Ethics Hotlines, Ombudsman, and Integrating Ethical Culture	84
Assessing and Monitoring the Corporate Culture: Audits	85
4.7 Mandating and Enforcing Culture: The Federal Sentencing Guidelines	86
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	88
Review Questions	89
Chapter Five: The Meaning and Value of Work	91
Learning Objectives	91
Discussion Case: Great Jobs and Meaningful Jobs	92
Discussion Questions	94
5.1 Introduction	94
5.2 The Meanings of Work	96
5.3 The Value of Work	98
5.4 Conventional Views of Work	101
5.5 The Human Fulfillment Model	103

5.6	The Liberal Model of Work	106
5.7	Business’s Responsibility for Meaningful Work	108
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	110
	Review Questions	110

Chapter Six: Moral Rights in the Workplace 113

	Learning Objectives	113
	Discussion Cases: Employee Rights and Wrongs	114
	Discussion Questions	114
6.1	Introduction: Employee Rights	115
6.2	The Right to Work	116
6.3	Employment at Will	120
6.4	Due Process in the Workplace	122
6.5	Participation Rights	125
6.6	Employee Health and Safety	128
6.7	Privacy in the Workplace	132
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Cases	136
	Review Questions	138

Chapter Seven: Employee Responsibilities 140

	Learning Objectives	140
	Discussion Case: Professional and Managerial Responsibility at Enron and Arthur Andersen	141
	Discussion Questions	145
7.1	Introduction	145
7.2	The Narrow View of Employee Responsibilities: Employees as Agents	146
7.3	Professional Ethics and the Gatekeeper Function	151
7.4	Managerial Responsibility and Conflicts of Interests	154
7.5	Trust and Loyalty in the Workplace	157
7.6	Responsibilities to Third Parties: Honesty, Whistleblowing, and Insider Trading	159
	Honesty	159
	Whistleblowing	161
	Insider Trading	162
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	165
	Review Questions	166

Chapter Eight: Marketing Ethics: Product Safety and Pricing 168

	Learning Objectives	168
	Discussion Case: Safety and Pricing in the Pharmaceutical Industry	169
	Discussion Questions	172
8.1	Introduction: Marketing and Ethics	172

8.2	Ethical Issues in Marketing: An Overview	174
8.3	Ethical Responsibility for Products: From Caveat Emptor to Negligence	176
8.4	Strict Products Liability	180
8.5	Ethics and Pricing	183
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	187
	Review Questions	188
Chapter Nine: Marketing Ethics: Advertising and Target Marketing		190
	Learning Objectives	190
	Discussion Case: Advertising and Marketing in the Pharmaceutical Industry	191
	Discussion Questions	194
9.1	Introduction: Ethics of Sales, Advertising, and Product Placement	195
9.2	Regulating Deceptive and Unfair Sales and Advertising	197
9.3	Marketing Ethics and Consumer Autonomy	200
9.4	Targeting the Vulnerable: Marketing and Sales	205
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	210
	Review Questions	210
Chapter Ten: Business's Environmental Responsibilities		213
	Learning Objectives	213
	Discussion Case: Interface Corporation and Sustainable Business	214
	Discussion Questions	215
10.1	Corporate Social Responsibility and the Environment	215
10.2	Business's Responsibility as Environmental Regulation	220
10.3	Business's Ethics and Sustainable Economics	222
10.4	Business Ethics in the Age of Sustainable Development	225
10.5	Conclusions	229
	Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	229
	Review Questions	230
Chapter Eleven: Diversity and Discrimination		232
	Learning Objectives	232
	Discussion Case: Female Foreman and the Brotherhood	233
	Discussion Questions	235
11.1	Introduction: Diversity and Equality	235
11.2	Discrimination, Equal Opportunity, and Affirmative Action	238
11.3	Preferential Treatment in Employment	243
11.4	Arguments against Preferential Hiring	246
11.5	Arguments in Support of Preferential Hiring	250

Contents	xi
11.6 Sexual Harassment in the Workplace	253
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	258
Review Questions	258
Chapter Twelve: International Business and Globalization	260
Learning Objectives	260
Discussion Case: Sweatshops	261
Discussion Questions	264
12.1 Introduction	265
12.2 Ethical Relativism and Cross-Cultural Values	265
12.3 Cross-Cultural Values and International Rights	268
12.4 Globalization and International Business	270
12.5 Globalization and the Poor	272
12.6 "Race to the Bottom"	274
12.7 Democracy, Cultural Integrity, and Human Rights	276
Reflections on the Chapter Discussion Case	279
Review Questions	280
Index	II