

ASSESSMENT & INSTRUCTION

of Reading and Writing Difficulties

AN INTERACTIVE APPROACH

Marjorie Y. Lipson • Karen K. Wixson

FOURTH EDITION

Contents

Preface      xvii

SECTION ONE    Theory into Practice    1

1    Perspectives on Reading and Writing Ability      3

Understanding Reading and Writing      4

    Historical Perspectives on Reading and Writing      4

    Cognitive Information-Processing Perspectives on Reading and Writing      5

    Social Perspectives on Reading and Writing      7

    An Interactive Perspective on Reading and Writing      9

Understanding the Legal and Political Aspects of Reading and Writing      11

Educational Reform, Reading, and Literacy      11

Legal and Social Roots of Special Education      13

    Special Education Identification    15

    Students with Disabilities    16

    Implications for Practice    18

    Integration/Inclusion    20

Chapter Summary      21

2    An Interactive View of Reading and Writing      23

Understanding the Elements of Skilled Performance      23

    Comprehension    25

    Composition    26

    Vocabulary Development    27

    Word Identification and Spelling    28

    Rate and Fluency    33

    Grammar, Usage, and the Mechanics of Writing      34

Understanding Contextual Factors That Influence Performance      36

    Settings    36

    Instructional Practices    37

Instructional Resources 39

Assessment Practice 41

Understanding Learner Factors That Influence Performance 42

Prior Content Knowledge 42

Knowledge about Reading and Writing 44

Attitudes and Motivation 47

Correlates of Reading and Writing Performance 49

Chapter Summary 54

3 Reading and Writing Disability and the Assessment-Instruction Process 56

Steps in the Assessment-Instruction Process 56

Understanding an Interactive View of Reading and Writing Ability and Disability 56

A Theoretically Sound View of Ability and Disability 57

An Instructionally Significant View of Ability and Disability 58

Understanding the Assessment-Instruction Process 59

Implementing the Assessment-Instruction Process 60

Steps in the Assessment-Instruction Process 63

Chapter Summary 75

SECTION TWO Getting Started and Evaluating the Context 77

4 Getting Started with Assessment 79

Understanding Assessment 79

Contexts for Assessment 79

Guidelines for Assessment 81

The Diagnostic Portfolio and the Thumbnail Sketch 84

Sources of Information 86

Tools and Strategies for Getting Started 91

Interviews 91

Observation 105

Work Samples 112

Getting Started on the Diagnostic Portfolio 113

The Cases of Tha'm and Kyle 113

Chapter Summary 120

5 Evaluating the Instructional Environment/Context 122

Understanding Literacy Learning Environments 122

- Relations among Home/Community and School Settings 123
- Goals for Learning Literacy 125

Understanding the Role of Instructional Settings in Reading and Writing Performance 126

- Teacher Beliefs and the Literate Environment 126
- Classroom Interaction 128
- Classroom Organization 130
- Grouping 134
- Congruence and Collaboration within and across Instructional Settings 137

Understanding the Role of Instructional Practice in Reading and Writing Performance 138

- Instructional Goals 138
- Instructional Methods 142
- Reading and Writing Activities and Tasks 152
- Assessment Practices 162

Strategies and Tools for Assessing the Instructional Environment 166

- Assessing Instructional Setting 167
- Assessing Instructional Practice 173
- Assessing Specific Activities and Episodes of Instruction 182
- Congruence among Settings 185

Diagnostic Portfolio: The Instructional Context 185

Diagnostic Portfolio: The Cases of Tha'm and Kyle 187

- Tha'm 187
- Kyle 188

Chapter Summary 189

6 Instructional Resources 191

Understanding the Role of Instructional Resources in Reading and Writing Performance 191

- Commercial Reading/Language Arts Programs 192
- Trade Materials 202
- Electronic, Internet, and Multimedia Texts 210
- Tutoring Programs 212
- Information and Communication Technology 213

Assessing Instructional Resources	217
Evaluating Text and Commercial Materials	217
Evaluating Tutoring Programs	234
Evaluating Computer Software and Information/Communication Technology	235
Diagnostic Portfolio: The Instructional Context	240
Diagnostic Portfolio: The Cases of Tha'm and Kyle	240
Tha'm	240
Kyle	243
Chapter Summary	245

SECTION THREE   Evaluating the Learner   247

7   The Foundations of Literacy   249

Understanding the Foundations of Literacy	249
Background	249
The Language Foundations of Literacy	250
Learning to Talk	250
The Contextual/Experiential Foundations of Literacy	261
How Language Is Learned	261
Contextual Differences in Learning Language and Literacy	262
The Development of Written Language	271
Strategies and Tools for Assessing the Foundations of Literacy	274
Assessment of Early Language and Literacy	274
Diagnostic Portfolio and the Foundations of Literacy	275
Observing Spontaneous Use of Knowledge and Skill	278
Structured Interviews and Observations	288
Structured Writing Assessments	297
Using Stories to Assess Emergent Abilities	299
Diagnostic Portfolio and Evidence of Emergent Literacy: The Case of Kyle	302
Chapter Summary	305

8   Informal Classroom-Based Assessment   307

Understanding Informal Classroom-Based Assessment	308
Strategies and Tools for Teacher-Initiated Assessment	311
Evaluating Word Recognition and Decoding	311
Evaluating Oral Reading Fluency	320

Evaluating Vocabulary	323
Evaluating Comprehension	328
Writing	356
Student Self-Evaluation	361

Diagnostic Portfolio: Evidence from the Classroom 362

Tha'm	362
Kyle	363

Chapter Summary 363

9 Structured Inventories and Assessments 365

Understanding Structured Inventories and Assessments 365

Strategies and Tools for Structured Assessments 367

Informal Reading Inventories	367
Contemporary IRIs: A Look at What's New	385
Retellings of IRI Selections	392
Miscue Analysis	396
Oral Reading Fluency	403
Tests of Word Recognition, Phonics, and Spelling	409
Spelling Inventories	417
Evaluating Writing Samples	421

A Classroom System: Benchmark Book Events 422

Diagnostic Portfolio: Evidence from Structured Inventories 430

Tha'm	430
Kyle	432

Chapter Summary 435

Annotated Bibliography of IRIs 436

10 Formal Assessment 438

Understanding Formal Assessment 438

Concerns	439
General Test Characteristics	440
Important Statistical Concepts	442
Validity	444
Reliability	449
Test Interpretations	452
Test Scores	455
Test Fairness	459
Guidelines for Evaluating Standardized Tests	463

Formal Assessment Tools	463
Screening and Survey Tests	465
Group Screening and Survey Tests	466
Diagnostic Tests	474
Tests of General Cognitive and Verbal Abilities	490
Early Literacy Assessment	492
Chapter Summary	496
Tests Cited	499

SECTION FOUR   Interactions: Assessment as Inquiry   501

11   Interactive Decision Making   503

Understanding Step 4: Evaluating the Match Between Learner and Context	504
Understanding Step 5: Reflection, Decision Making, and Planning	505
Understanding Step 6: Diagnostic Teaching	506
Definition and Purposes	507
Diagnostic Teaching Procedures	509
Implementing Steps 4, 5, and 6 of the Assessment-Instruction Process	515
Thumbnail Sketch	515
The Case Study of Tha'm	515
The Case Study of Kyle	525
The Case Study of Yasmin	527
Diagnostic Portfolios: Making Diagnostic Teaching Work	534
Target Selections for Diagnostic Teaching	534
A Collection of Diagnostic Teaching Selections	535
Chapter Summary	537

SECTION FIVE   Instruction   539

12   Getting Started in Instruction   541

Key Characteristics of the Instructional Program	542
Goals and Objectives	542
Establishing a Literate Environment	542
Organizational Patterns	545
Materials	546

Getting Started with a Lesson Framework and High-Utility Strategies	547
A Lesson Framework	548
Familiar Reading: Focus on Fluency	549
Guided Reading	553
Dictated Stories as an Alternative to Guided Reading	558
Guided Writing	562
Word Study: Focusing on Word Recognition and Vocabulary	563
Sustained Reading and Writing: Focusing on Practice, Application, and Disposition	566
Getting More Focused on Specific Students	573
Lesson Planning	573
Example: Getting Started with Tha'm	576
Background and Setting	576
Selecting High-Utility Strategies	576
Selecting Materials	577
Planning for Tha'm	577
Chapter Summary	580

13 Adapting Instruction to Focus on Word Recognition, Fluency, and Spelling 582

Understanding Word Recognition, Fluency, and Spelling Instruction	583
The Nature of Word Identification, Fluency, and Spelling	583
Issues	585
Guidelines for Instruction Focused on Word Recognition, Fluency, and Spelling	593
Instructional Techniques Focused on Word Recognition and Analysis	597
Instructional Strategies and Tools: Students with No Print Skills	597
Instructional Strategies and Tools: Students with Some Print Skills	603
Instructional Strategies and Tools: Print Skills for More Advanced Readers	608
Instructional Techniques Focused on Spelling	612
Instructional Focus at Various Developmental Spelling Levels	612
Instructional Strategies and Tools for Spelling	614
A Final Note	615
Chapter Summary	615

14 Adapting Instruction to Focus on Vocabulary 617

Understanding Vocabulary Instruction	618
Issues	618
Goals	619

Guidelines 620

Summary 622

Strategies for Vocabulary Instruction 622

A General Framework for Independent Vocabulary Learning 622

Supporting Techniques 625

Strategies for Teaching Specific Vocabulary 630

General Vocabulary Development 636

Teaching General Vocabulary 636

Chapter Summary 640

15 Adapting Instruction to Focus on Comprehension, Composition, and Studying 642

Focusing Instruction on Comprehension, Composition, and Studying 643

The Nature of Instruction in Comprehension and Composition 643

Becoming Strategic 645

Deepening Understanding through Discussion and Writing 649

Guidelines for Instruction Focused on Comprehension and Composition 651

Instructional Techniques Focused on Comprehension and Composition 655

Providing Explicit Instruction 655

Providing Support 666

Developing Independence 681

Studying: A Specialized Case of Reading and Writing 685

Explicit Instruction 685

Supported Studying 685

Teaching Students to Study 689

Needed: A Functional, Integrated Approach to Study Skills Instruction 693

Reading, Writing, and Studying across the Curriculum 694

Chapter Summary 695

SECTION SIX Professional Roles and Responsibilities 697

16 Professional Roles and Responsibilities 699

The Role(s) of the English Language Arts Professional 700

Reporting to Others 700

General Guidelines 701

Reporting via Diagnostic Summaries with Multiple Assessments 702

Report Writing: Different Types for Different Purposes 706

Procedures for Writing Diagnostic Case Reports 708

Progress Reports 720

Conferences 722

Ethical Responsibilities 724

Chapter Summary 726

Appendix A Sample Case Report: Seth 728

Appendix B Confidential Diagnostic Report 737

References 749

Index 788