

Advances in Librarianship

Volume 29

---

Contents

Contributors	ix
Preface	xi

Understanding Information-Seeking: The Public Library Context 1

Gloria J. Leckie and Lisa M. Given

I. Introduction	1
II. Information-Seeking, The Public and Library Collections	7
III. Information-Seeking and Reference Services	20
IV. The Information-Seeking of Particular Populations	36
V. Information-Seeking, Instruction, Training, and Searching	39
VI. Information-Seeking and The Physical Environment	53
VII. Conclusion: Information-Seeking and Models of the Public Library	60
References	62

Providing Library Services for Urban Children: Challenges and Strategies 73

Sheri Anita Massey, Ann Carlson Weeks, and Teresa Y. Neely

I. Introduction	73
II. Challenges Facing Urban Children	76
III. Examples of Successful Strategies and Initiatives	77
IV. Conclusion	89
References	92

Three Decades of Challenges and Changes in US Embassy Libraries Around the World 99

Wendy A. Simmons

- I. Introduction 99
- II. Libraries in the State Department 101
- III. Early History 103
- IV. The Recent Past 106
- V. Contemporary Conditions 108
- VI. International Information Programs 109
- VII. Conclusions 130
- References 130

"Going Where the Users are: We'll Get There Only If We Want to" 133

Diane Kresh

- I. Introduction 133
- II. Literature Review 134
- III. Success in Virtual Reference Depends on Libraries Working Together 135
- IV. The Burgeoning Information Service Industry 138
- V. Virtual Reference is no Different from Traditional Reference 139
- VI. Who Uses Virtual Reference and Why? 141
- VII. Library Services are in a Period of Transition 142
- VIII. Community Building in Reference Service 144
- IX. Reinventing Libraries 146
- X. Conclusions 154
- References 155

Building Networks, Building Trust: Statewide Virtual Reference 159

Buff Hirko

- I. Introduction 159
- II. Project Activities and Results 162
- III. The Washington VR Summit: Celebrating and Sustaining Success 183
- IV. Conclusions 186

The Changing Role of the Info-Entrepreneur 187

Mary Ellen Bates

- I. Introduction 187
- II. Overview of the Info-Entrepreneur Profession 188
- III. Examples of Info-Entrepreneur Projects 191
- IV. Types of Info-Entrepreneurs: Niches, Generalists, Technique-Specialists 194
- V. Would You be a Successful Info-Entrepreneur? 202
- VI. Ten Mistakes New Info-Entrepreneurs Make 204
- VII. Addressing Pricing Issues: 'You're Charging Me What?!?' 207
- VIII. Marketing Challenges for Info-Entrepreneurs 209
- IX. Surfacing Your Value: Providing Value-Added Deliverables 213
- X. Where the Info-Entrepreneur Profession is Headed 216
- XI. Key Resources for Info-Entrepreneurs 217
- References 222

Understanding the Picture User 223

Henry Pisciotta

- I. Introduction 223
- II. The Questions 225
- III. The Problems 238
- References 242

Evaluating User Information Needs Through a Library Portal Environment: New Opportunity and New Challenges 247

Dongming Zhang

- I. Introduction 247
- II. Review of Library Portal Concept and Technologies 247
- III. Portal Usage Analysis and Service Improvement 252
- IV. MyWelch Case: The Development of Welch Library Portal 253
- V. Discussion and Further Thoughts 265
- References 268

Index 269