

Edited by
Peter Brophy
Jenny Craven
Margaret Markland

LIBRARIES WITHOUT WALLS

7

Exploring 'anytime',
'anywhere' delivery of library services

CONTENTS

Contributors	vii
1 Introduction Peter Brophy	1
2 Keynote address: Disciplines, documents and data: emerging roles for libraries in the scholarly information infrastructure Christine L. Borgman	5
3 Denmark's Electronic Research Library: implementation of user-friendly integrated search systems in Denmark Bo Öhrström	17
4 An African experience in providing a digital library service: the African Virtual University (AVU) example Pauline Ngimwa	29
5 Project StORE: expectations, a solution and some predicted impact from opening up the research data portfolio Graham Pryor	39
6 Publishing, policy and people: overcoming challenges facing institutional repository development Margaret Markland, Jayne Burgess, Sarah Taylor and Helen Standish	49
7 Libraries as a social space: enhancing the experience of distance learners using social software Jane Secker and Gwyneth Price	59
8 The rise of recommendation and review: a place in online library environments? Kara Jones and Kate Robinson	71
9 Re-usable learning objects for information literacy: are they practical? Nancy Graham	81
10 An introduction to the LearnHigher Centre for Teaching &amp; Learning (CETL), with particular reference to the information literacy learning area and its work on information literacy audits at Manchester Metropolitan University Bob Glass and Jillian R. Griffiths	91
11 Information skills through electronic environments: considerations, pitfalls and benefits Maggie Smart and Cath Hunt	105
12 Development of information-related competencies in European open and distance learning institutions: selected findings Sirje Virkus	115

13	Improving information retrieval with dialogue mapping and concept mapping tools	125
	Virpi Palmgren, Kirsi Heino and Jouni Nevalainen
14	Public libraries, learning and the creative citizen: a European perspective	137
	Robert Davies and Geoff Butters
15	A user-centred approach to the evaluation of digital cultural maps: the case of the VeriaGrid system	147
	Rania Siatri, Emmanouel Garoufallou, Ioannis Trohopoulos and Panos Balatsoukas
16	The process of assessment of the quality, usability and impact of electronic services and resources: a Quality Attributes approach	159
	Jillian R. Griffiths
17	Reaching the unreachable in India: effective information delivery service model of DELNET and the challenges ahead	171
	Sangeeta Kaul
18	Breaking through the walls: current developments in library service delivery: observations from a Sri Lankan perspective	181
	Kamani Perera
19	Meeting users' needs online in real-time: a dream of librarians in the developing world	185
	Anusha Wijayaratne
20	Information Central: a service success case study	195
	Susan Robbins
21	Discrete library services for international students: how can exclusivity lead to inclusivity?	205
	Moira Bent, Marie Scopes and Karen Senior
22	Are we ethical? A workshop on the ethical challenges of providing library services to distance learners	217
	Gill Needham and Kay Johnson
23	Involving users in a technical solution to help assess the accessibility of websites	225
	Jenny Craven and Jillian R. Griffiths
24	The reality of managing change: the transition to Intute	235
	Caroline Williams
	Index	245