

Second Edition

Reading Strategies for Elementary Students with Learning Difficulties

Strategies for RTI

William N. Bender • Martha J. Larkin

Contents

| | |
|--|-------------|
| Preface to the Second Edition | ix |
| Acknowledgments | xi |
| About the Authors | xiii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| | |
| 1. The Reading Brain, Literacy Instruction, and RTI | 7 |
| The Good News in Reading Research! | 7 |
| Big Ideas From Early Literacy Research | 8 |
| The Emerging Emphasis on Literacy | 11 |
| Assessments of Early Literacy | 15 |
| Brain Compatible Reading Instruction | 18 |
| A Brain-Based Model of Reading | 22 |
| What the Brain Research on Reading Has Found | 25 |
| Response to Intervention: The National Model | 27 |
| Conclusion | 30 |
| What's Next? | 30 |
| References | 31 |
| | |
| 2. Phonological and Phonemic Instruction: | |
| The Key to Early Reading and Literacy | 33 |
| Phonological Instruction and Phonemic Instruction | 33 |
| Guidelines for Phonemic Instruction | 45 |
| Phonemic-Based Reading Programs | 47 |
| RTI Case Study in Phonemic Skills | 52 |
| Conclusion | 60 |
| What's Next? | 60 |
| References | 61 |
| | |
| 3. Phonics and Word Attack Strategies | 63 |
| Phonics and the Brain | 63 |
| Phonics Instructional Options | 64 |
| Strategies for Developmental Reading and Spelling Stages | 66 |
| RTI Case Study for Word Attack Strategies | 106 |
| Conclusion | 109 |
| What's Next? | 109 |
| References | 110 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 4. Strategies for Building Vocabulary and Reading Fluency | 113 |
| Building Vocabulary Across the Life Span | 114 |
| The Importance of Vocabulary Development | 116 |
| Do We Still Need Sight-Word Approaches for Vocabulary Instruction? | 117 |
| How Good Readers Read | 119 |
| Learning New Vocabulary Terms | 120 |
| Word Recognition Instruction | 122 |
| Deriving Meaning From Vocabulary | 127 |
| A Keyword Vocabulary Development Strategy | 135 |
| Learning Strategies for Vocabulary Mastery | 136 |
| RTI Case Study for Content Area Vocabulary Reading Fluency | 143 |
| RTI Case Study for Reading Fluency | 148 |
| Conclusion | 151 |
| What's Next? | 152 |
| References | 153 |
| 5. Gaining Meaning From Reading | 155 |
| Reading Comprehension and the Brain | 155 |
| Story Grammar | 158 |
| Student Think-Alouds or Inferencing Substrategies | 170 |
| Question Answering | 173 |
| Gist Summaries | 173 |
| Improvisational Drama | 175 |
| Cooperative Discussion and Questioning (Coop-Dis-Q) | 177 |
| Collaborative Strategic Reading (CSR) | 180 |
| Bibliotherapy | 185 |
| RTI Case Study for Gaining Meaning From Reading | 187 |
| Conclusion | 192 |
| What's Next? | 192 |
| References | 193 |
| 6. Reading Comprehension in the Content Areas | 197 |
| Content Area Reading and the Brain | 197 |
| KWPLS (Know, Want To Know, Predict, Learned, Summarize) | 201 |
| Analogies Instruction | 205 |
| Possible Sentences | 208 |
| Vocabulary Self-Collection Strategy (VSS) | 209 |
| Guided Reading in Textual Settings (GRITS) | 211 |
| ReQuest: Asking Self-Declared Questions | 213 |
| Idea Circles | 214 |
| Intra-Act: Sharing Perspectives | 217 |
| Question-Answer Relationships (QAR) | 219 |
| RTI Case Study for Reading in the Comprehension Areas | 221 |
| Conclusion | 223 |
| References | 226 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Resources: Commercially Available Reading Programs | 229 |
| The SRA Reading Programs | 230 |
| The Orton-Gillingham Failure Free Reading Program | 232 |
| The Herman Method for Reversing Reading Failure | 234 |
| Earobics Literacy Launch | 235 |
| References | 237 |
| | |
| Glossary | 239 |
| | |
| Index | 245 |