

HELENA CERANIC

THE ENGLISH TEACHER'S HANDBOOK

Contents

1	Introduction: The highs and lows of being an English teacher	1
2	Planning outstanding English lessons	5
	Principles for effective planning	5
	Long-term planning	10
	Medium-term planning	12
	Short-term planning	15
	Emergency planning	17
	Being organised with your planning	20
	Joint planning	22
	Sourcing resources	24
	Creative planning	25
	Personalising your planning	28
3	Teaching outstanding English lessons	31
	Principles for effective teaching	31
	Organising the learning environment	34
	Effective classroom interaction	38
	Making the most of lesson time	42
	Engaging students	45
	Effective lesson progression and transitions	48
	Promoting active learning	50
	Promoting thinking and independent learning	51
4	Developing outstanding assessment practices in English	55
	Principles for effective assessment	55
	Organising and planning assessment opportunities	57
	Making marking manageable and useful	60
	Target setting	61

	Involving students with assessment	62
	Involving parents with assessment	63
	Recording assessment outcomes	65
5	Tool kit for teaching speaking and listening	69
	Principles for effective speaking and listening	69
	Capitalising on talk in the classroom	71
	Individual presentations	72
	Group activities	74
	Drama-based tasks	76
	Assessing speaking and listening	77
6	Tool kit for teaching reading	79
	Principles for effective reading	79
	Comprehension skills	81
	Non-fiction	83
	The Media	84
	Poetry	85
	Prose	89
	Essay writing	93
	Exploring context	97
7	Tool kit for teaching writing	99
	Principles for effective writing	99
	Preparing for independent writing	101
	Sentence structure and punctuation	102
	Composition and effect	103
	Text organisation	105
	Spelling strategies	107
	Teaching the writing triplets	109
8	Being a highly organized and efficient English teacher	111
	Principles for effective organisation	111
	Managing time	112
	Managing tasks	116
	Managing marking and paperwork	117
	Managing stress	119
	Organising resources	122
	Making the most of ICT	122
9	Being reflective and developing your practice	125
	Principles for effective continual professional development	125

Evaluating lessons	126
Professional development	127
Sharing and developing excellent practice	128
Developing your career	130
10 Organising English enrichment opportunities	133
The importance of developing English skills outside of the classroom	133
Having time for a life outside school	136
Resources	137
Index	161