

THE MODERN PHILOSOPHICAL REVOLUTION

The Luminosity of Existence

DAVID WALSH

CAMBRIDGE

Contents

Preface	page ix
Introduction	1
1 Kant's "Copernican Revolution" as Existential	27
2 Hegel's Inauguration of the Language of Existence	76
3 Schelling on the Beyond of Existence	130
4 Nietzsche: Philosophy as Existence	178
5 Heidegger's Achievement Despite the Betrayal of Philosophical Existence	232
6 Existence Without Refuge as the Response of Levinas	291
7 Derrida's Dissemination of Existence as Différance	335
8 Kierkegaard's Prioritization of Existence over Philosophy	391
Epilogue: Modernity as Responsibility	461
Works Cited	467
Select Bibliography of Secondary Sources	477
Index	487