

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT_{and} INFORMATION LITERACY

Edited by Craig Gibson

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Introduction Craig Gibson	vii
Chapter 1 The Other Dewey: John Dewey's Democracy and Education and Information Literacy James Elmborg	1
Chapter 2 Librarians Enhancing Student Engagement: Partners in Learning That Build Bridges Adrianna Kezar	16
Chapter 3 Becoming Educated: Service Learning as Mirror Margit Watts	33
Chapter 4 Ways of Thinking: Doing Research and Being Information Literate Randy Burke Hensley	55
Chapter 5 The Winds of Change: Generation Y, Student Learning, and Assessment in Higher Education and Their Implications for Information Literacy Instruction Patricia Davitt Maughan	68
Chapter 6 Engaging the Future: Meeting the Needs of NetGen Jo Ann Carr	104

Chapter 7	120
Discovery Projects: Contextualized Research Experiences for College Sophomores
Nancy S. Shapiro and Katherine McAdams
Chapter 8	143
Personally Engaged Information Literacy In General Education through Information Ecology and Fieldwork
Darren Cambridge
Chapter 9	169
Learning, Engagement, and Technology
Joan K. Lippincott
Contributors	184
Index	190