

Language and Identity

John Edwards

KEY TOPICS IN SOCIOLINGUISTICS

CAMBRIDGE

Contents

- 1 Introduction 1
  - 1.1 An introductory note 1
  - 1.2 Chapters and topics 2
  - 1.3 A concluding note 13
- 2 Identity, the individual and the group 15
  - 2.1 Introduction 15
  - 2.2 Identity: personal and social 19
  - 2.3 The construction and maintenance of groupness 25
  - 2.4 Language and circumstance 27
- 3 Identifying ourselves 34
  - 3.1 Personal names 34
  - 3.2 Names for groups 36
  - 3.3 The appropriation of names and narratives 39
  - 3.4 Cultural voices and scholarly research 42
  - 3.5 Ethnocentrism and relativism 48
- 4 Language, dialect and identity 53
  - 4.1 Language 53
  - 4.2 Dialect 63
- 5 Dialect and identity: beyond standard and nonstandard 73
  - 5.1 The 'logic' of dialect 73
  - 5.2 Ebonics 75
  - 5.3 Further work on dialect evaluation 82
- 6 Language, religion and identity 99
  - 6.1 Introduction 99
  - 6.2 Linking language and religion 100
  - 6.3 God's language - and ours 103
  - 6.4 Modern times 110
  - 6.5 Missionaries 118
- 7 Language, gender and identity 126
  - 7.1 Introduction 126
  - 7.2 Stereotyping sex and gender 127
  - 7.3 Gender variations in speech 132
  - 7.4 Concluding remarks 146

- 8 Ethnicity and nationalism 151
  - 8.1 Introduction 151
  - 8.2 Ethnic identity 153
  - 8.3 Nationalism 162
- 9 Assessments of nationalism 175
  - 9.1 Civic nationalism 175
  - 9.2 Evaluating nationalism 185
- 10 Language and nationalism 205
  - 10.1 The basic link 205
  - 10.2 Language purism and prescriptivism 212
- 11 Language planning and language ecology 225
  - 11.1 Language planning 225
  - 11.2 The ecology of language 230
  - 11.3 The consequences of Babel 245
  - 11.4 Bilingualism and identity 247

Glossary 257

Notes 261

References 271

Index 310