

Clinical Pathology

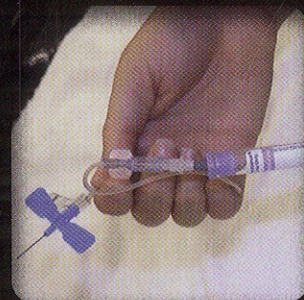

for the Veterinary Team

Andrew J. Rosenfeld
and Sharon M. Dial

 WILEY-BLACKWELL

Includes a DVD
of clinical cases

Contents

About the Authors	ix
Foreword	xi
1. Sample Handling and Laboratory Standardization—Developing Standard Operating Procedures	1
2. Components of the Complete Blood Count	19
3. Hematology: The Erythrocytes, White Blood Cells, and Immune System	33
4. Abnormalities in the Red and White Blood Cell Populations	45
5. Renal Physiology and Anatomy, Clinical Diagnostics, and Disease	75
6. Liver Physiology and Anatomy, Clinical Diagnostics, and Disease	93
7. Pancreatic and Gastrointestinal Physiology and Anatomy, Clinical Diagnostics, and Disease	105
8. Electrolyte Physiology, Function, and Derangement	119
9. Components of the Urinalysis	129
10. Evaluating the Urinalysis with Disease Conditions	139
11. Adrenal Function and Testing	151
	vii

12. Blood Gas	167
13. Coagulation	175
14. Emergency Diagnostics—A Discussion of Shock and Clinical Diagnostics	183
15. Obtaining Samples from Different Body Systems and Evaluating Cytology	193
Appendix A: Tables	207
Appendix B: Clinical Pathology for the Veterinary Team DVD Instructions	237
Appendix C: Case Worksheet for Clinical Pathology Cases	247
Additional Resources	257
Glossary	259
Index	271
Cases – See companion DVD	