

MOBILE COMMUNICATION

DIGITAL MEDIA AND SOCIETY SERIES

RICH LING AND JONATHAN DONNER

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xii
1. Introduction: the quarter-century beyond the Maitland Commission Report	1
2. Short history of mobile communication	30
3. Mobile communication in everyday life: 3 billion new telephones	49
4. Mobile communication in everyday life: new choices, new challenges	75
5. Debates surrounding mobile communication	107
6. Conclusion: individual addressability, interlacing and the spillover of the control revolution	134
Notes	157
References	165
Index	185