

End-of-Life Care
and Pragmatic
Decision Making

A Bioethical Perspective

D. Micah Hester

CAMBRIDGE

Contents

Preface	page ix
1 Crito Revisited	1
2 Blindness, Narrative, and Meaning: Moral Living	13
3 Radical Experience and Tragic Duty: Moral Dying	41
4 Needing Assistance to Die Well: PAS and Beyond	59
5 Experiencing Lost Voices: Dying without Capacity	92
6 Dying Young: What Interests Do Children Have?	126
7 Caring for Patients: Cure, Palliation, Comfort, and Aid in the Process of Dying	156
Works Cited	163
Index	177