

Foundations of Library and Information Science

THIRD EDITION

RICHARD E. RUBIN

Contents

List of Figures .....	v
Foreword .....	vii
Joseph Janes
Preface .....	ix
Acknowledgments .....	xv
Introduction .....	1
Chapter 1. The Educational, Recreational, and Informational Infrastructure .....	7
Chapter 2. From Past to Present: The History and Mission of Libraries .....	35
Chapter 3. Library and Information Science: An Evolving Profession .....	77
Chapter 4. The Organization of Information: Techniques and Issues .....	127
Chapter 5. The Library as an Institution: An Organizational Perspective .....	165
Chapter 6. Redefining the Library: The Impact and Implications of Technological Change .....	225
Chapter 7. Information Science: A Service Perspective .....	271
Chapter 8. Information Policy: Stakeholders and Agendas .....	309
Chapter 9. Information Policy as Library Policy: Intellectual Freedom .....	371
Chapter 10. The Values and Ethics of Library and Information Science .....	405

IV FOUNDATIONS OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

Appendix A. Summary of Major Library and Information Science Associations and List of Additional Associations . . . . .	441
Appendix B. Accredited Master's Programs in Library and Information Science in the United States and Canada . . . . .	449
Index . . . . .	453
About the Author . . . . .	471

DON'T MISS THIS BOOK'S COMPANION WEB SITE!
www.neal-schuman.com/foundations

Find expanded Selected Readings lists for the major subject areas covered in this book:

- History and Mission of Libraries
- The LIS Profession
- Intellectual Organization of Libraries
- Libraries as Organizations
- Impact of Technology
- Information Science
- Information Policy
- Information Policy and Libraries
- Ethics and Values