

A How-To-Do-It Manual[®]

Fundamentals of School Library Media Management

Barbara Stein Martin and Marco Zannier

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
About the Authors	xii
Part I: The Basics	1
<hr/>
Chapter 1. Getting to Know Your Work Environment	3
Knowing the People	3
Knowing the Space	4
Knowing the Collection	7
Chapter 2. Setting Goals	9
Use a Goal-setting Form	9
Three Main First-year Goals	10
Adding Your Special Projects	11
Some Final Goal-setting Advice	12
Chapter 3. Getting Organized and Managing Time	13
Your Office Space	13
Your Work Area	14
Files and Records	14
Library Time	16
Your Time	19
Chapter 4. Communicating with Stakeholders	23
E-mail	23
Newsletters	24
Web Site	24
Reports	26
Pamphlets	26
Phone and In-person Communication	28
Chapter 5. Locating and Learning about Important Documents	29
Library Bill of Rights	29
Selection Policy	29
Reconsideration Policy for Challenged Material	30

Electronic Communication and Data Management Policy	30
Copyright Information	30
Library Policy and Procedure Manual	34
Part II: Library Media Specialist as Library Administrator	37
<hr/>
Chapter 6. Staffing the Library	39
Paraprofessionals	39
Adult Volunteers	40
Student Helpers	41
Chapter 7. Working with Your Budget	43
Budget Funds versus Activity Funds	43
Keeping Good Records	44
Fund-raising	46
Chapter 8. Circulating Books and Other Materials	49
Manual and Automated Procedures	49
Length of Time for Circulation	50
Overdues and Fines	52
Reserves (Placing an Item “on Hold”)	54
Allow for Flexibility	54
Chapter 9. Weeding and Doing Inventory	55
Why Should You Weed?	55
What Should Be Weeded?	56
When Should You Weed?	57
How Do You Weed?	57
Inventory: Why Do It?	58
When to Inventory	58
Procedures for Conducting an Inventory	58
Part III: Library Media Specialist as Information Specialist	61
<hr/>
Chapter 10. Selecting Books and Other Materials	65
Figuring Out What Materials You Need	65
Reviews (for Books and Other Materials)	67
Other Materials—The Vertical File	67
Chapter 11. Ordering and Processing Books and Other Materials	69
Ordering Books	69
When the Books Arrive at Your Door (Processing)	73
Audiovisuals	74
Equipment	75
Chapter 12. Organizing and Arranging Books	77
How the Dewey Decimal Classification System Works	77
Assigning Subject Headings	78
Cataloging a Book	78
Placement on Shelves	80
Organizing and Arranging Audiovisuals	81

Chapter 13. Selecting Databases and Web Sites	83
Why Databases?	83
How to Obtain Databases	84
Promoting Database Use	84
Web Sites	85
Web Site Collections	86
Chapter 14. Creating Your Library's Web Site (and More)	87
The Webmaster	87
Some Web Site Basics	87
What to Include	88
Keep It Current	90
Libraries in the Cyber World (Web 2.0)	90
Chapter 15. Connecting Library Users to Resources	93
Reference Interview	93
Interviews and Student Interests	95
Displays (Anticipating User Needs)	96
Part IV: Library Media Specialist as Teacher and Instructional Specialist	97
<hr/>
Chapter 16. Learning the School's Curriculum	99
Learn about the Curriculum	99
Attend Meetings	101
Visit Classrooms	101
Chapter 17. Collaborating with Teachers	103
Reeling Them In	103
The Collaboration Meeting	104
Your Part of the Preparation Work	107
To Teach . . . or Not to Teach?	107
Advertising . . . Again	107
Chapter 18. Providing Research Instruction	109
Planning Research Lessons	109
Individual Learning Styles	110
Instruction: Taking Notes	111
Instruction: Resource Use	111
Instruction: Citing References and Plagiarism	114
Organization: The Research Folder	114
For More Information on Research Skills	116
Chapter 19. Offering Special Programming	119
Read-alouds	119
Storytelling	120
Booktalks	121
Book Club	121
Contests	122
Special Events	123
Bringing in Visitors	124

Part V: Evaluation	125
<hr/>
Chapter 20. Evaluating and Closing Out the Year	127
Self-evaluation: The Basics	127
Self-evaluation: The Roles of a Librarian	128
Seeking Feedback from Others	128
Final Reminders for the End of the Year	131
Part VI: Selected Policy Documents	133
<hr/>
Document 1. Library Bill of Rights, Interpretations, and Freedom Statements	135
Library Bill of Rights	135
Interpretations	136
Freedom Statements	137
Document 2. Acceptable Use Policies for Woodland School District Network (2022P)	143
Network	143
Internet Safety	144
Copyright	145
Network Security and Privacy	147
Archive and Backup	148
Disciplinary Action	148
AUP Forms	148
Part VII: Directory of Essential Sources and Suppliers for School Library Media Centers	149
<hr/>
Directory 1. Essential Sources for School Library Media Centers	151
Sources for Book Reviews	151
Sources for Non-print Reviews	155
Directory 2. Essential Suppliers for School Library Media Centers	157
Book Vendors	157
Periodical Vendors	160
Sources for Purchasing Equipment, Furnishings, and Supplies	162
Selected AV Producers and Distributors	167
Index	169