

Cath Arnold and
the Pen Green Team

Understanding Schemas and Emotion

in Early Childhood

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
Conventions Used in this Book	viii
Outline of this Book	x
Foreword by Margy Whalley	xii
Introduction	1
1 Early Years Practitioners and Parents Engaging in Child Study	13
2 Ewan: Developing a Ritual for Separating	29
3 John: Exploring Lines and Connecting and Coming to Understand Separations	39
4 Caitlin: Containing, Enveloping and Transporting	55
5 Edward: Exploring 'Together and Apart' and Moving from 'Vertical' to 'Horizontal' with Objects	73
6 Sam: Enveloping, Containing and Seriating to Understand Separation and Loss and the Distribution of Power	85
7 Susan: Containing, Enveloping and Going Through Boundaries	105
8 Cara: Trying to Make Sense of a Death in her Family	123
9 The Inside Story: An Early Years Practitioner Studying Children's Emotions	133
10 Conclusions and Theorising about Schemas and Emotions	149
Bibliography	159
Index	167