

an introduction to

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Nick Wilton

companion
website

Contents

Preface	xvii
Acknowledgements	xxi
Guided Tour	xxii
Companion Website	xxiv
PART ONE: HRM IN CONTEXT	1
1 What is HRM?	3
Introduction	3
Competing definitions of HRM	5
The emergence of HRM	6
Hard and soft variants of HRM	9
Patterns of HRM practice	10
HRM and a changing organisational context	13
The changing HR function	15
Devolution of HRM responsibility to front line managers	18
Outsourcing and HRM	20
The increasing use of ICT in HRM	21
Summary points	22
Useful reading	23
2 HRM and the Individual	28
Introduction	28
What is the employment relationship?	29
The explicit contract of employment	31
Unitarist and pluralist perspectives on the employment relationship	35
The psychological contract	36
The changing psychological contract?	39
A brief history of people management	40
Scientific management	41
The human relations movement	44
Neo-human relations	45
Managerial control	46
The components of individual work performance	48
Ability	48

	Motivation	49
	Opportunity	50
	A conceptual framework for understanding how HRM can contribute to improved individual performance	51
	Summary points	53
	Useful reading	53
3	HRM, Strategy and Performance	58
	Introduction	58
	The strategy-making process	59
	Dimensions in HR strategy formation	61
	Perspectives on HR strategy	63
	'Best fit'	64
	'Best practice'	68
	The resource-based view (RBV) of the firm	72
	Organisational performance	76
	HRM and performance	79
	Summary points	84
	Useful reading	84
4	The Labour Market Context of HRM	89
	Introduction	89
	What is a labour market?	90
	The internal labour market	91
	The external labour market	93
	Unemployment	94
	Labour market change	94
	Changing demography of the labour market	98
	Economic change and the labour market	99
	Emotional labour	101
	The restructuring of internal labour markets	101
	The flexibility of organisational structure	102
	The flexibility of labour	103
	The controversies of flexibility	107
	Labour market flexibility and government policy	110
	Quality of work life	111
	Summary points	114
	Useful reading	115
5	The National and International Context of HRM	119
	Introduction	119
	Globalisation and the changing international context of HRM	121
	The national context of HRM	121

National culture	122
Conceptualising culture	123
Implications for HRM	127
National Institutions	129
Political economic system	129
Government	131
Economic context	131
The law and HRM	132
The financial system	133
Trade unions	133
Employers' associations	134
Social structures	134
International institutions	135
International Labour Organisation (ILO)	135
Regional integration	136
The European Union (EU)	137
The European Social Model (ESM)	138
Problems of integration	139
National business systems and MNC activity: Going global?	140
The centralisation of management decision-making	141
Universalism or continued diversity of management practice?	145
Summary points	146
Useful reading	147

PART TWO: HRM IN PRACTICE 151

6 People Resourcing	153
Introduction	153
HR planning	154
The planning process	156
Issues in HR planning	160
Employee retention and turnover	161
Explanations for employee exit	162
Addressing labour turnover	163
Succession planning and talent management	164
Recruitment and selection	164
The systematic approach to recruitment and selection	165
Competency frameworks	168
Recruitment	169
Recruitment methods	170
Selection	173
Selection methods	174
Key roles in recruitment and selection	178

	Recruitment agencies and outsourcing	178
	Evaluating the recruitment and selection process	179
	Summary points	180
	Useful reading	181
7	Managing Performance	185
	Introduction	185
	Defining performance	186
	What is performance management?	187
	The performance management cycle	191
	Setting performance objectives	193
	Measuring performance	194
	Performance appraisals	196
	Issues with performance appraisals	198
	360-degree appraisal	200
	Self-assessment	201
	Learning and development and performance management	201
	Reward and performance management	202
	Dealing with poor performance	204
	Issues with performance management in practice	204
	The role of culture in managing performance	206
	HRM and the management of culture	206
	Employee socialisation and learning	208
	Employee communication and participation	209
	Performance management and reward	209
	Issues in culture management	210
	Summary points	211
	Useful reading	211
8	Managing Reward	216
	Introduction	216
	Forms of reward	217
	Reward and the employment relationship	218
	The legal perspective	218
	The economic perspective	219
	Reward, social exchange and the psychological contract	219
	Reward and employee behaviour and attitudes	220
	The employment relations perspective	221
	Managing reward	222
	Vertical integration and reward	223
	Reward and horizontal fit	224
	The context of reward	224
	Internal context	224

Market context	225
Political, economic and legal context	225
Labour market context	226
Reward systems	228
Basic pay	229
Determining basic pay	230
Incremental pay schemes	231
Variable or contingent pay	232
Performance-related pay	233
Skill-, knowledge- and competency-based pay	234
Organisation-wide pay schemes	234
Issues with incentive-based rewards	234
Employee perks and benefits	236
Non-financial rewards	237
Total reward	238
Issues in reward management	240
Summary points	241
Useful reading	242
9 Human Resource Development	246
Introduction	246
Defining human resource development	247
Why invest in HRD?	248
Drivers of HRD activity	251
Business strategy and Human Resource Development	252
Organisational learning and emergent strategy	253
HRD in practice	255
The systematic training model	255
Assessment of L&D needs	257
Designing learning and development interventions	258
Delivering learning and development activities	260
Review and evaluation	265
Line management responsibility for HRD	267
Management development	268
Continuing professional development	269
Summary points	271
Useful reading	271
10 Employment Relations	275
Introduction	275
Control, power and authority in the employment relationship	276
HRM and employment relations	276
Key trends in British employee relations	281

Trade union decline	282
Decline in strike activity	284
Union renewal?	285
The rise of non-unionism	286
Employee 'voice'	287
Employee involvement and participation	290
Involvement	290
Participation	291
Employee voice in practice	293
Downward communication	293
Upward problem-solving	294
Representative participation	295
Partnership	297
Financial participation	302
Summary points	302
Useful reading	303
 PART THREE: CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN HRM	 307
 11 HRM, Equality and Diversity	 309
Introduction	309
The incidence of inequality in the UK labour market	310
Gender	310
Disability	311
Ethnicity	311
Forms of discrimination	313
Consequences of discrimination	314
The political and legal context of inequality	314
Issues with the UK's legislative approach	319
HRM, inequality and diversity	319
The equal opportunities approach	323
Criticism of EO/liberal approach	324
Managing diversity	325
Business benefits and MD	326
Managing diversity in practice	327
Criticisms/problems of MD approach	329
The impact of context	331
Summary points	332
Useful reading	333
 12 Careers and Career Management	 337
Introduction	337
The 'traditional' career	338

Redefining the career	339
Variation in career form	340
The 'death' of the career?	341
New careers and the psychological contract	344
Are traditional careers really dead?	344
The individual and career development	346
The importance of career self-management	347
The implications of 'new deals' in employment	349
Organisations and career management	351
Models of career management	351
HRM and career management interventions	352
Evaluating career management interventions	356
Organisational change and career management	357
Implications for recruitment and retention	358
Career management and diversity	359
Summary points	361
Useful reading	362
13 The Management of Workplace Discord	367
Introduction	367
An overview of conflict in the employment relationship	368
Causes of workplace conflict	368
Expressions of workplace conflict	369
Contemporary patterns of workplace conflict and resolution	370
Organisational rules and procedures	372
The importance of rules and workplace procedures	373
Discipline at work	375
Disciplinary and grievance procedures	376
Good practice in handling workplace discipline	378
The informal handling of discipline	379
Misconduct, gross misconduct and potential outcomes	380
Fair and unfair dismissal	381
Under-performance: A disciplinary issue?	383
Behaviour outside of work	383
Handling employee grievance	385
Grievance procedures	387
Collective disputes procedures	388
Parties involved in dealing with disputes, grievances and discipline	390
Line managers	390
HR specialists	391
Employment tribunals	392
Summary points	393
Useful reading	393

14	HRM, Work and Well-being	398
	Introduction	398
	Defining well-being	399
	Health and safety at work	401
	Mental Health and stress at work	404
	The impact of ill health	405
	The business case for effective management of employee well-being	406
	The UK legal framework	408
	Health and Safety at Work Act 1974	408
	Statutory duties under HASAWA 1974	409
	Regulations under HASAWA 1974	411
	Developing and enforcing the law	413
	Managing health, safety and well-being at work	414
	Employee assistance programmes	415
	Occupational health	416
	Who's responsibility is employee well-being?	417
	Tackling work-related stress	418
	Work-life balance	419
	Summary points	422
	Useful reading	422
15	Current Trends and Future Challenges in HRM	426
	Introduction	426
	The developing context of HRM	427
	Knowledge management and HRM	428
	Managing knowledge workers	431
	Issues in knowledge management	434
	Outsourcing, shared services and third-party service provision	437
	Issues in outsourcing	440
	New technology and HRM	442
	e-HR and HRMs	442
	Summary points	446
	Useful reading	447
	Glossary	451
	References	476
	Index	509