

INTERNATIONAL EDITION

fifth edition

Administration

of Physical Education and Sport Programs

LARRY HORINE

DAVID STOTLAR

Contents

The Nature of Administration and Management in Sport and Physical Education 1

- Importance of Administration 2
- Leadership and Administration 2
 - Leadership or Administrative Titles 2
- Why Study Administration? 3
- What Are the Pros and Cons of Becoming an Administrator? 4
 - Advantages 4
 - Disadvantages 5
- Philosophy and Administration 6
 - Basis for Philosophy in Administration 6
 - Ethics 8
 - Types of Administrators 9
- Qualities and Skills Required for Leadership 10
 - Qualities and Skills That Can Enhance One's Chances of Being Selected for Administration 10
 - Qualities and Skills Important for Long-Term Success of a Leader 11
- Preparation for Administration in Sport and Physical Education 12
 - Duties 13
- Critical Thinking 14
- Exercises 14
- References 15

Management Functions in Physical Education and Sport 16

- Organization 17
 - Dimensions of Structure 18
- Organizational Theory 18
- Organizational Systems 19
 - Transparency, Stakeholders, and Sunshine 20
- Total Quality Management (TQM) 21
 - McGregor's Theory X and Theory Y 21
 - Quality Circles in Sport 22
 - Theory Z in Sport 23
- Power 24
- Leadership 25
 - Developing a Leader 26
 - Leadership Theories 26
- Diversity, Empowerment, and Vision in Leadership 27
 - Modeling and Leadership 29
 - Change and Innovation 31
 - Decision Making 32

Delegating	33
Supervising	34
Exercises	36
Critical Thinking	37
References	38

3

Communication and Motivation in Sport Management and Physical Education 40

Communication	41
Evolution of Organizational Communication	42
Methods of Personal Communication	43
Innovative Communication Enhancers	45
Communicating with the Staff in Written Forms	48
Personal Conferences	48
Contraction and Communication	48
Committees	49
Leading Meetings	49
Opening and Closing Meetings	50
Motivation	51
Motivation Theories	51
Application of Motivational Theories	53
Motivational Strategies	54
Critical Thinking	55
Exercises	55
References	56

4

Human Resources in Sport Management and Physical Education 57

Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity	58
Origins of EEO and Affirmative Action	58
Diversity	59
Justice for All or Preferences for Some	59
Affirmative Action Guidelines	59
Job Descriptions and Advertising Positions	60
Applicant Screening and Interviewing	61
Selecting the Candidate	61
Who Should Be Interviewed?	61
The Interview Process	62
The Successful Interview from the Candidate's Perspective	63
Personnel Services	63
Human Relations	63
Management by Participation	64
Staff Development	64
Employee Benefits	65
Time Management	65

Conflict Resolution	66
Ombudsperson	67
Stress and Burnout	67
What Are Stress and Burnout?	68
Type A Behavior	68
Fight or Flight?	68
Physical Education Teachers and Burnout	68
Burnout and Athletic Coaches	69
Coping Techniques for Coaches	70
Burnout and Administrators	71
Coping Techniques for Administrators	71
Exercises	71
Critical Thinking	72
References	72

Public Relations, Partnerships, Marketing, and Promotion in Sport Management and Physical Education 75

Elements of Public Relations	76
The PR Audit	76
Public Relations: Scope and Importance	77
Principles and Guidelines for Public Relations	78
Marketing Sport and Physical Education	81
Marketing	81
Marketing Plan Outline	82
Marketing Mix	83
Promotion and Advertising	84
Partnerships and Fund-Raising	86
General Guidelines	86
Fund-Raisers	87
Booster Clubs for Fund-Raising	88
Sponsorships	88
Partnerships	90
Public Relations Examples in Physical Education	91
National Sport and Physical Education Week	91
Special Public Relations Programs	91
Parent Involvement and Community Relations	92
Public Relations Examples in Sport	93
Public Relations Examples in Recreation, Wellness, and Fitness Centers	95
Newsletters, Sport Brochures, and Programs	96
Media	97
Critical Thinking	98
Exercises	99
References	99

Financial Management in Physical Education and Sport 101

Common Financial Terms 102

Definitions 102

Strategic Management 103

Fiscal Management 104

Accounting 105

The Objectives of the Accounting System 106

Managerial Accounting 106

Accounting Records and Procedures 107

The Balance Sheet 107

Controls 108

Audits 109

Petty Cash, Revolving Funds, and Discretionary Funds 110

Proprietary Funds 110

Budgeting 110

Cash Flow 110

Opportunities and Advantages of Budgeting 111

Purposes and Principles of Budgets 112

Types of Budgets 112

Multilevel Standards Budget 112

Index Budgeting 112

Formula Budgeting 112

PPBES 112

Zero-Base Budgeting 113

Fund Budgeting 113

Traditional Budgeting Process 115

Step I: Gather Data 116

Step II: Analyze Past Budgets, Facilities, and Equipment Inventories and Compare to New Requests 116

Step III: Construct the Budget 116

Step IV: Justify the Figures and Present the Budget 117

Step V: Interpret and Evaluate the Budget 117

Financial Exigencies 117

Budgeting in Practice 119

University Campus Recreation and Intramural Program:
An Example 119

A Medium-Size High School Athletic Budget: An Example 119

A Public School District Physical Education Program Budget: An Example 120

A University Physical Education Department Budget: An Example 122

A University Athletic Department Budget: An Example 122

A Sport Business Budget Procedure 123

Financing 123

Critical Thinking 124

Purchasing, Maintenance, and Security Management in Sport and Physical Education 126

- Purchasing 127
 - Equipment Needs Based on Program 127
 - Equipment Needs Based on Inventories 127
- The Purchasing Process 130
 - Steps in the Purchasing Process 130
 - Central or Individual Purchasing 132
- Direct and Bid Purchasing 132
 - Direct Purchasing 132
 - To Bid or Not to Bid? 132
 - Types of Bid Systems 133
- Specifications 133
 - Examples of Specifications 134
- Testing, Receiving, and Storing 134
 - Need 134
 - Approaches 134
 - Alternatives or Substitutes 134
 - Product Endorsements 134
 - Receiving Goods 134
 - Vendor Payment 134
 - Equipment Storage 134
- Special Equipment Purchasing 136
 - Uniforms 136
 - Uniform Raw Materials 137
 - Buying Uniforms 138
 - Buying Inflated Balls 138
 - Scoreboards 139
 - Shoes 139
 - Football Equipment 140
 - Purchasing Other Specific Equipment 140
 - Reducing Purchasing Costs 141
- Maintenance 141
 - Maintaining Existing Facilities 144
 - Maintenance Schedules 145
 - Laundrying 145
 - Energy Conservation 145
 - Maintenance for Special Areas 146
- Security 148
 - Security Solutions 149
 - Playground Security 150
 - College Complexes Increase Control for Security 151
 - Equipment Cages 151

Critical Thinking	151
Exercises	151
References	152

Law and Physical Education and Sport 154

Definitions	155
Legal Trends in Physical Education and Sport	156
Why Are There More Lawsuits in Physical Education and Sport?	156
Negligence	156
Product Liability	159
Facilities and Equipment	160
Supervision	163
Assault and Battery	164
Corporal Punishment	165
Sport and the Law	165
How Is Amateur Athlete Defined?	165
Legal Requirements to Properly Educate	166
Rules and Regulations in Athletics	166
Contracts	167
Due Process	168
Athletic Associations	168
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Sport	170
Legal Aspects of Violence in Sport	172
Player-versus-Player Lawsuits	172
Match and Mismatch	172
Defamation	173
Drug Testing	173
Spectators	174
Gender Issues in Sport	175
Gender Equity	175
Sexual Harassment	177
Critical Thinking	180
Exercises	181
References	181

Risk Management in Sport and Physical Education 184

Risk Management	185
How Much Risk Is Too Much?	185
The Risk Management Plan	186
The Right to Risk	187
Risk Management Decisions	188
Crisis Management	188
Standards and Risk Management	188

Transportation	189
Drivers	189
Transportation Policies	190
Transportation Recommendations for the Administrator	191
Transferring Risks and Insurance	191
The Three Legs of the Insurance Triangle	192
Out-of-Court Settlements and the Effect on Insurance	193
Exculpatory Agreements and Parental Consent Forms	193
Parental Consent Forms	194
Sports Medicine	195
Athletic Trainers and Education of Teachers and Coaches	195
Physical Examinations	196
Accident Reporting	197
AIDS and Risk Management	198
Bloodborne Pathogens	198
Safety	198
Sport and Safety	198
Physical Education and Safety	201
Safety Standards for Sport Equipment	203
Safety Inspections	203
Critical Thinking	204
Exercises	205
References	205

Facility and Equipment Planning, Designing, and Management in Physical Education and Sport 207

Needs	208
A Problem	208
Assessment	208
Solution	209
Planning Facilities	209
Planning Committee	209
Planners and Consultants	210
Avoid Surprises	211
Project Approaches	212
Decision Making in the Planning Process	212
The Architect	214
Timing and Tracking the Project	215
Legal Considerations and Special Populations	216
Restoring Existing Facilities	216
Financing Facility Development	217
Public Facility Financing	217
Private Facility Financing	217
Public/Private Financing	218

Facilities and Energy	218
Solar	218
The Geodesic Dome and Energy	218
Lighting and Energy	219
Energy Systems	220
Indoor Facilities	220
Site Selection	220
Teaching Stations and Activity Space	221
Floor Surfaces	221
Walls, Doors, and Windows	223
Ceilings	224
Acoustics	224
Environmental Graphics (Signage)	225
Service Areas and Changing Rooms	225
Lighting	226
Mechanical (HVAC)	227
Seating	228
Strength and Cardiovascular Training Areas	229
Special Areas	230
Ice Rinks	230
Examples of Constructed Indoor Facilities	230
Security	230
Outdoor Facilities	231
Outdoor Site Selection and Development	231
Natural Grass	231
Hybrid Turf	232
Outdoor Synthetic Surfaces	232
To Light or Not to Light?	233
Tracks	233
Outdoor Seating	234
Tennis Courts	234
Stadiums	235
Air Structures	235
Tensile Structures	236
Aquatic Centers	236
Water Treatment	237
Facility Management	237
Playgrounds	238
Critical Thinking	239
Exercises	239
References	240

Evaluation in Physical Education and Sport Administration 243

Evaluation	244
Accountability through Evaluation	244
Develop an Evaluation Plan	244

Evaluating Equipment, Facilities, and Security	245
Student Evaluation	245
Evaluation of Programs	246
Methods of Evaluating Programs	246
Performance Evaluation	247
Evaluation of Faculty and Professional Staff	248
Critical Thinking	257
Exercises	257
References	258

12

Data Processing and Office Management in Sport and Physical Education Administration 260

Common Office Management, Computer, and Data Processing Terms	261
Definitions	261
Computers	262
Basic Components of Computers	262
Microcomputers and Minicomputers	263
Security	263
What Should the Administrator Do before Buying a Computer or Software?	263
Administrative Computer Applications in Physical Education and Recreation	264
Computer Uses in Physical Education Management	264
Administrative Applications for the Computer	266
Electronic Mail	267
Computer Uses in CAD and Facilities Management	267
Software in Recreation and Fitness Center Management	267
Administrative Computer Applications in Sport and Athletics	269
World Wide Web and the Internet	272
Office Organization and Management	272
Organizing the Workplace	273
Office Structure and Personnel	274
Word Processing	274
Other Common Office Technology	275
Critical Thinking	276
Exercises	276
References	277

13

Administrative Issues Specific to Physical Education and Campus Recreation 278

Reform and Change in Physical Education	279
Program Planning	283
Basis	283
Curriculum Planning	283

Health-Fitness in Program Planning	285
Sport/Games in Program Planning	285
Curriculum Delivery Schemes	286
Character Development in Physical Education	287
Unique Areas of Concern for Physical Education Administrators	288
Discipline	288
Dressing for Physical Education and Showering	288
Lesson Plans	290
Class Size	290
Grading	291
Class Organization and Attendance	291
Administrative Concerns	291
What's in a Title?	292
Student Leaders	292
Social Concerns for the Physical Education Administrator	293
Physical Education for Special Populations	293
Preschool Children	293
Older Adults and Lifelong Activity	293
At-Risk Students	294
Adapted Physical Education for the Disabled	294
Intramurals and Recreation Sports	298
Development	298
Terminology Related to School and Campus Recreation Programs	298
Objectives, Organization, and Structure of Intramural Programs	298
Units of Competition and Eligibility	299
Finances, Equipment, and Facilities	299
Program of Activities and Scheduling	299
Club Sports and Adventure Recreation	299
Officials, Protests, and Forfeits	300
Statistics and Awards	300
Organization of Competition—Tournaments and League Play	301
Competition for the Disabled	303
Exercises	304
Critical Thinking	305
References	305

Administrative Issues Specific to Athletics and Health-Fitness Centers 308

Athletics	309
Problems	309
Reform	310
Youth Health and Behavior Concerns in Sport	311
Organization and Control of Athletics	313

Coaching as a Professional Career	314
Preparation	314
Certification of Coaches	315
Staffing Coaching Positions	316
Coaching Compensation	316
Special Athletic Management Concerns	317
Conduct of Athletes and Teams	317
Eligibility and Scholarship	319
Athletic Awards	319
Parental Involvement in Athletics	319
Scheduling	319
Officials	320
Contest Management	320
Crowd Management	321
Women's Sports	321
Food and Beverage Concessions	321
Youth Sport Management	322
Youth Development	323
The Fitness Industry	323
Wellness Programs	324
Exercises	324
Critical Thinking	325
References	326

The Future in Physical Education Administration and Sport Management 328

Predicting the Future	329
Cyberspace	330
Virtual Reality and Robotics	330
Practical Applications of Computers Now	330
Fitness Trends	331
Other Sport Administration Initiatives	331
The Future of Sport Management/Sport Administration	332
Gender and Sport	332
Critical Thinking	334
Exercises	333
References	334

Appendix A Selected Sport Products and Services Suppliers A

Appendix B Sample Student Athlete Physical Form A-3