

Roel Grit

English
Edition

Project Management

A Practical Approach

Noordhoff Uitgevers

Second Edition

Contents

Introduction 11

Section 1

Practical Theory 14

- 1 The project 17
 - 1.1 Types of activity 18
 - 1.2 Examples of projects 19
 - 1.3 What is a project? 20
 - 1.4 From improvised activities to project to routine 21
 - 1.5 Types of projects 21
 - 1.6 Things to remember 22
 - 1.7 Doing things in phases 24
 - 1.8 Why do things in phases? 27
 - 1.9 The phases of a project: an illustration 27
 - 1.10 When to do it as a project 29
 - 1.11 Lifecycle of a project 30
 - 1.12 Project goals should be SMART 30
- Assignments 32
- 2 People working on projects 35
 - 2.1 Line organization 36
 - 2.2 The project organization 36
 - 2.3 Sponsor 39
 - 2.4 Users 39
 - 2.5 The project manager 40
 - 2.6 The project members 42
 - 2.7 Task-oriented and people-oriented leadership 42
 - 2.8 Working on a project 43
 - 2.9 Team roles according to Belbin 44
 - 2.10 Team agreements 46
 - 2.11 Brainstorming 47
 - 2.12 Negotiating 48
 - 2.13 Making decisions in a project 48
 - 2.14 Related projects 49
 - 2.15 Outsourcing a project 51
- Assignments 52
- 3 The project from start to finish 55
 - 3.1 Organizing and carrying out the project 56
 - 3.2 Project proposal 56
 - 3.3 Initial meeting with sponsor 57
 - 3.4 Setting up the project 58
 - 3.5 Project start-up meeting 58
 - 3.6 Design and preparation 59
 - 3.7 Carrying out the project 59
 - 3.8 Concluding the project 60

- 3.9 Monitoring aspects of a project 60
- 3.10 Monitoring projects in practice 61
- 3.11 Why projects fail 65
- 3.12 Terminating a project prematurely 69
- Assignments 70
- 4 Planning and scheduling 73
- 4.1 Why plan? 74
- 4.2 Concepts and terms 74
- 4.3 Gantt charts 75
- 4.4 Network diagrams 77
- 4.5 Deriving a Gantt chart from a network diagram 80
- 4.6 Adjustments to schedules 80
- 4.7 Which activities are required 81
- 4.8 Planning software 82
- 4.9 Using planning software 83
- 4.10 Planning a large project in phases 88
- 4.11 Time management 90
- 4.12 Mini-course on MS Project on the website 91
- Assignments 92

Section 2

The handbook 96

- 5 Drawing up a project plan 99
- 5.1 The project plan 100
- 5.2 Dividing the project plan into sections 100
- 5.3 Background information 101
- 5.4 The project result 102
- 5.5 Project activities 105
- 5.6 Project limits 106
- 5.7 The products 108
- 5.8 Quality control 109
- 5.9 The project organization 110
- 5.10 Schedule 112
- 5.11 Costs and benefits 112
- 5.12 Risk analysis 114
- 5.13 Drawing up the project plan 115
- 5.14 The project's files 116
- 5.15 Other project management methods 117
- Assignments 118
- 6 Organizing meetings 121
- 6.1 Project meeting 122
- 6.2 Preparing for the meeting 122
- 6.3 The meeting's agenda 123
- 6.4 The meeting itself 124
- 6.5 After the meeting 124
- Assignments 126
- 7 Conducting interviews 127
- 7.1 Types of interviews 128
- 7.2 The three stages of an interview 128
- Assignments 132

8	Writing letters 135
8.1	Business letter 136
8.2	Preparation 136
8.3	Writing a letter 136
	Assignment 139
9	Writing a report 141
9.1	Preparing to write the report 142
9.2	Putting the report together 142
9.3	The structure of the report 144
9.4	The main contents and finishing touches to the report 145
	Assignments 148
10	Holding a presentation 149
10.1	Organization and contents of a presentation 150
10.2	Using an overhead projector or a beamer 151
10.3	The structure of a presentation 152
10.4	The presentation itself 154
	Assignments 156
11	Making an executive summary 157
11.1	The purpose of an executive summary 158
11.2	The components of an executive summary 158
	Assignments 162
12	Making an offer 163
12.1	What is an offer? 164
12.2	Cost estimate 164
12.3	What is included in an offer? 165
12.4	Submitting the offer 165
	Assignments 167

Final Assignments 169

Appendix 1 Risk Analysis 172

Appendix 2 Website www.projectmanagement-english.noordhoff.nl 175

- 1 Mini-Course on MS Project 175
- 2 Project plan checklist 175
- 3 Time Registration Model in MS Excel 175
- 4 Risk Analysis Model in MS Excel 175
- 5 Scheduling Model in MS Excel 175
- 6 PowerPoint presentation accompanying the book 175
- 7 Cases 175
- 8 Instructor materials 175

Bibliography 176

About the Author 178

Index 179