

UNDERSTANDING MEDIA IN THE DIGITAL AGE

EVERETTE E. DENNIS • MELVIN L. DEFLEUR

CONTENTS

Preface	ix	PART 2 PUBLISHING
PART 1 CONNECTIONS FOR COMMUNICATION		CHAPTER 3
CHAPTER 1		Books: The First and Most Respected Mass Medium	35
Understanding Communication Concepts in the Internet Age	1	THE IMPORTANCE OF BOOKS AS A MASS MEDIUM	37
STUDYING MEDIA STRATEGICALLY	3	Books as a Mass Medium	37
The Big Picture: Communication Theory	4	The Importance of Books	37
Historical Perspective	6	WHERE DID BOOKS COME FROM?	38
Voices of Experience	6	The Evolution of Written Documents	38
THE INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION PROCESS	7	Books with Bound Pages: The Second Transition	41
Sharing Meaning with Verbal and Nonverbal Symbols	7	Printed Books: The Third Transition	42
A Basic Model of Human Communication	8	THE DIGITAL FUTURE OF BOOKS: THE FOURTH TRANSITION	43
Communicating Accurately	9	Changes in Bookselling	43
THE "MASS" COMMUNICATION PROCESS	12	Electronic Publishing and Reading	45
Developing a Concise Definition	12	BETWEEN THE PAST AND THE FUTURE: BOOK PUBLISHING TODAY	47
Which Media Are Mass Media?	13	A Short History of Book Publishing in America	47
COMPARING FACE-TO-FACE AND MASS COMMUNICATION	14	Today's Book Publishing Process	49
The Consequences of Using Any Medium	14	Book Publishing as a Business	52
The Consequences of Large, Diverse Audiences	16	CHAPTER REVIEW	56
CHAPTER REVIEW	18	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	56
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	18	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	56
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	18	ENDNOTES	56
ENDNOTES	19	CHAPTER 4
CHAPTER 2		Newspapers and News Media: Delivering Information to Society	58
Navigating Change: The Rise of Digital and Global Media	20	THE IMPORTANCE OF NEWSPAPERS AS A NEWS MEDIUM	60
THE DAWN OF THE DIGITAL AGE	22	The Premier Place of Newspapers in the News Media	60
History of the Digital Revolution	22	Newspapers and News in a Digital Era	61
The Speed of Change in a Digital Age	24	NEWSPAPERS: THE FIRST MEDIUM FOR THE MASS SOCIETY	63
Defining Communication in a Digital Society	25	The First Newspapers	63
Concerns About the Digital Revolution	26	The Press in the American Colonies	64
Challenges of Media Study in a Digital Age	27	Establishing Traditions in American Journalism	65
THE SPREAD OF GLOBAL MEDIA	28	Characteristics of Colonial Press	66
CHAPTER REVIEW	33	Newspapers for Ordinary Citizens	67
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	34	The Impact of Society on the Growth of Newspapers	68
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	34	The Era of Yellow Journalism	70
ENDNOTES	34	TRENDS THAT SHAPED TODAY'S NEWSPAPERS	71
		Newspapers as Cultural Innovation	71
		The Growth of Wire Services and Feature Syndicates	72
		Changing Patterns of Ownership	74

THE NEWSPAPER AS A CONTEMPORARY MEDIUM	76	The Decline	123
Types of Newspapers	76	The Digital Age	123
Changing Functions and Content	79	FILM AS A CONTEMPORARY MEDIUM	126
Newspapers' Dual Identity and Built-in Conflict of Interest	80	The Functions of Films	126
How Newspaper Work Is Organized	80	The Development of Themes and Styles	127
THE FUTURE OF THE NEWSPAPER	82	The Content of American Films	128
Interactive Media and Online Newspapers	83	THE MOVIE INDUSTRY	131
CHAPTER REVIEW	84	Making a Movie	131
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	85	The Filmmakers	132
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	85	Movies and Money: The Economics of the Business	134
ENDNOTES	85	THE MOVIE AUDIENCE	135
 		Theaters and Cost of Admission	135
CHAPTER 5		Ratings and Objectionable Content	137
Magazines: Voices for Many Interests	87	Censorship and Politics	140
DISTINGUISHING MAGAZINES FROM OTHER MEDIA	88	The Influence of Evaluation: Criticism and Awards	141
THE HISTORY OF MAGAZINES	89	CHAPTER REVIEW	143
The First Magazines	90	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	143
American Magazines in the 1700s: Barriers to Development	91	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	143
American Magazines in the 1800s	93	ENDNOTES	143
Magazines in the Twentieth Century	96
THE MAGAZINE INDUSTRY TODAY	99	CHAPTER 7
Types of Magazines	99	Radio: The Resilient Medium	145
The Life Cycle of Magazines	103	THE DEVELOPMENT OF RADIO TECHNOLOGY	147
The Magazine Staff	107	The Social Conditions That Spawned Radio	148
Making a Profit	108	Communicating over a Wire	148
Ownership Trends	110	The Contribution of Samuel B. Morse	149
The Influence and Importance of Magazines	110	Communicating with Radio Waves	150
THE FUTURE OF MAGAZINES	111	RADIO BECOMES A MASS MEDIUM	152
MAGAZINES AND THE DIGITAL REVOLUTION	111	The Period of Transition	152
CHAPTER REVIEW	113	Establishing the Economic Base of the New Medium	155
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	114	Selling Receivers for Home Use	156
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	114	THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO	157
ENDNOTES	114	Radio During the Great Depression	159
 		Radio During World War II	160
PART 3 ELECTRONIC AND VISUAL MEDIA		THE CHALLENGE OF TELEVISION	161
 		Radio Adapts	161
CHAPTER 6		RADIO AS A CONTEMPORARY MEDIUM	164
Motion Pictures: The Great Entertainer	115	Radio's Role in Today's Media Mix	164
THE DEVELOPMENT OF MOVIE TECHNOLOGY	117	Radio Ownership Today	167
Magic Shadows on the Wall	117	Today's Radio Content	167
Photography	118	Radio in the Digital Age	170
The Illusion of Motion	118	Conclusions About Radio Today	172
Capturing and Projecting Motion with Film	119	CHAPTER REVIEW	172
THE MOVIES BECOME A MEDIUM	120	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	173
The Nickelodeons	120	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	173
Movies for the Middle Class	121	ENDNOTES	174
The Talkies	121
Portrayals of the Fast Life	122	CHAPTER 8
The "Golden Age"	122	Television: The Most Influential Medium	175
		CULTURAL INFLUENCE OF TELEVISION	176
		THE BIRTH OF TELEVISION	178
		Developing an Electronic System	178
		The Early Broadcasts	180

THE PERIOD OF RAPID ADOPTION	180	SOCIAL AND CULTURAL FUNCTIONS OF THE NEWS	218
The Big Freeze	181	The Market Approach: News as a Product	218
Becoming a Nation of Television Viewers	181	The Adversarial Approach: Watchdogs of the Public Interest	219
The Coming of Color	183	The Agenda-Setting Function of the News Media	221
Television's First Golden Age	184	CHAPTER REVIEW	223
The Second Golden Age	184	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	223
ALTERNATIVES TO BROADCAST TELEVISION	185	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	223
The Spread of Cable Systems	186	ENDNOTES	223
THE VCR AND DVD	189	CHAPTER 10
Direct Broadcast Satellite	190	Popular Culture: Entertainment, Sports, and Music	225
Digital Television Arrives	190	THE NATURE AND IMPORTANCE OF POPULAR CULTURE	226
TELEVISION AS A CONTEMPORARY MEDIUM	191	The Media and Popular Culture	227
The Economics of Competing Systems	192	Defining Popular Culture	227
The Content Producers	193	The Importance of Popular Culture	228
Television Content and Genres	194	Critiques of Popular Culture	230
The Television Industry in Transition	196	POPULAR CULTURE AS ENTERTAINMENT	231
Emerging Trends in Television	197	Media Influences on Consumer Art	231
CHAPTER REVIEW	198	Cultural Content and Taste Levels	232
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	199	" Taste Publics " as Markets for Media Presentations	236
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	199	Implications of Popular Culture Theory	239
ENDNOTES	200	ENTERTAINMENT MEDIA AND POPULAR CULTURE	239
PART 4 MEDIA AUDIENCES, SERVICES AND SUPPORT		Sports Media: Content and Culture	240
CHAPTER 9		Sports and Their Significance	242
News, Journalism, and Public Affairs	201	Music Media Content and Culture	243
NEWS: THE INFORMATION FUNCTION OF THE PRESS	203	Music as Popular Culture	246
Categories for Surveillance	204	The Importance of Music	246
1. Territories, Topics, and Organizations	204	Video Games in Popular Culture	246
2. Time as a Category	205	CHAPTER REVIEW	249
3. Hard versus Soft News	206	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	250
How Facts Become Distorted	206	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	250
ENCODING STRATEGIES: PACKAGING THE NEWS	207	ENDNOTES	250
Traditional News Values	208	CHAPTER 11
Story Formats	209	Advertising: Using Media in the Marketplace	252
JOURNALISTIC STYLES	210	ADVERTISING IN AMERICA: A BRIEF HISTORY	254
Sensational or Tabloid Journalism	210	The Industrial Revolution	255
Objective or Impartial Journalism	211	Advertising-Supported Modern Media	259
Critical, Interpretive Journalism	211	THE CONTEMPORARY ADVERTISING INDUSTRY	260
Literary or "New" Journalism	212	Types of Advertising Agencies	263
Advocacy Journalism	212	Advertising Networks	266
Precision Journalism	213	Advertising Media	266
Civic or Public Journalism	213	ADVERTISING AS PERSUASIVE COMMUNICATION	270
Citizen Journalism, Blogging, and the Demonstration of News	214	Basic Strategies for Constructing Persuasive Messages	271
Satirical or Humor Journalism	215	Cutting Through the Clutter: The Problem of Gaining Attention	273
SOCIAL AND CULTURAL INFLUENCES ON THE NEWS	215	Digital Advertising Challenges	273
The Social Organization of the Newsroom	216
Consequences of the Profit Motive	217

THE ROLE OF ADVERTISING RESEARCH	274	DENYING THE BUSINESS OF MEDIA	318
Studying the Effects of Advertising	275	ENTER MEDIA ECONOMICS	319
Consumer and Lifestyle Research	276	Media and the Digital Economy	320
Qualitative Research on Advertising	277	Corporate Cultures and Revenue Models	323
Assessing Target Audiences in an Age of Market Segmentation	278	New Business Models for Media	323
CRITICISM AND CONTROL OF ADVERTISING	278	Free Markets and Regulatory Controls	324
Economic and Social Criticisms	279	INDEPENDENCE WITH CONTROLS	325
The Issue of Children and Advertising	280	Communication Policy	325
Sources of Control	281	Controlling Objectionable Content	326
CHAPTER REVIEW	283	Controlling Political Communication	326
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	283	Protecting the Public Interest	327
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	284	Covering Electoral Politics	327
ENDNOTES	284	POLITICAL PROTECTIONS: THE CONSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK	328
 		The Free Press: A Historical Legacy	328
CHAPTER 12		The First Amendment	329
Public Relations: Influencing Beliefs, Attitudes, and Actions	286	Technology's Place in Regulation: From Printing to Cyberspace	331
THE DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS	288	LINCHPINS OF COMMUNICATION LAW	332
Birth of the Public Relations Agency	290	The Libel Conundrum	333
Defining Public Relations Today	291	Libel Laws and the Media	333
PR–Media Interplay	294	Multimillion-Dollar Libel Suits	334
Public Relations versus Advertising	294	TRIAL BY MEDIA	335
PUBLIC RELATIONS SETTINGS AND ACTIVITIES	295	MORAL VALUES: OBSCENITY AND PORNOGRAPHY	336
The Public Relations Industry	296	THE GOVERNMENT'S SECRETS DURING NATIONAL CRISES	337
Major Practice Areas	297	Direct Censorship in Wartime	337
Typical Tasks and Work Assignments	298	Challenges to Government Secrecy	338
Public Relations Campaigns	299	POLITICAL CONSTRAINTS: THE AGENTS OF CONTROL	339
Managing Elections	301	The Regulatory Agencies	340
PUBLIC RELATIONS AND THE MEDIA	303	Controls by the Federal Trade Commission	341
The Gatekeeping Process	304	Deregulation and Outside Pressures	342
A Relationship of Mutual Dependency	304	CHAPTER REVIEW	344
LOBBYING AS PUBLIC RELATIONS	305	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	345
PUBLIC RELATIONS AS AN EMERGING PROFESSION	307	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	345
Public Relations Education	308	ENDNOTES	345
Public Relations Research	308
Ethical Issues and Criticisms	309	CHAPTER 14
THE FUTURE OF THE FIELD	310	Media Effects: The Processes and Influences of Mass Communication	348
CHAPTER REVIEW	312	EARLY VIEWS OF MEDIA INFLUENCES	350
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	312	MEDIA EFFECTS RESEARCH BEGINS	351
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	313	A National Dilemma	352
ENDNOTES	313	The Nature and Functions of Research	353
		Early Support for the Magic Bullet Theory	354
PART 5 MEDIA ISSUES AND INFLUENCES		BEYOND THE MAGIC BULLET: SELECTIVE AND LIMITED EFFECTS	356
CHAPTER 13		The "Why We Fight" Film Experiments	356
Social Forces: Economics, Technology, and Policy	314	Effects of the Media in a Presidential Campaign	358
AN INTERPLAY OF FORCES	316	AUDIENCES USE MEDIA CONTENT TO OBTAIN GRATIFICATIONS	361
SEARCHING FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST	317	Gratifications Found in Media Content	361
		Children and Television	362

TELEVISION AND YOUTH VIOLENCE	364	DISTINGUISHING ETHICS AND LAW	384
The Report to the Surgeon General	364	GROWING CONCERN OVER MEDIA ETHICS	385
The Second Report to the Surgeon General	368	Special Privileges, Special Responsibilities	387
LONG-TERM INFLUENCES ON SOCIETY AND CULTURE	369	Beyond the First Amendment	387
Accumulating Media Effects and Social Expectations	369	The Long Struggle for Professionalism	388
Accumulation Theory: The "Adding Up" of Minimal Effects	370	The Rise of Mixed Media Culture	388
Social Expectations Theory: Learning Group Requirements	371	MEDIA CRITICISM AND MEDIA ETHICS	391
Implications of Long-Term Theories	373	A Double Standard	392
CHAPTER REVIEW	374	The Link to Individuals and Content	392
STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	374	ALTERNATIVE APPROACHES TO ETHICS	393
KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	375	Situational Ethics	393
ENDNOTES	375	The Continuing Search	393
CHAPTER 15		Credibility Studies and Market Research	394
Ethics: Assessing Content and Behavior of the Media	377	Ethics, Technology, and the Future	395
MEDIA-WIDE ETHICS WATCH	380	CHAPTER REVIEW	396
NEW TECHNOLOGY CHALLENGES	382	STRATEGIC QUESTIONS	397
DIMENSIONS OF ETHICS FOR THE MEDIA	382	KEY CONCEPTS & TERMS	397
Accuracy and Fairness	382	ENDNOTES	397
The Behavior of Reporters	383	Credits	399
Conflict of Interest	384	Index	401