

Online marketing

adj controlled by or connected to a computer

n
the promotion and selling of products or services

Ethical: awareness/reflection/debate

Table of contents

> Introduction

Introduction	6
Chapter 1
The digital media revolution	8
What is the digital revolution?	10
How has the digital revolution changed media?	14
How has the digital revolution affected consumers?	20
Case study: Telecom New Zealand adopt a multimedia approach	28
Questions and exercises	32
Chapter 2
Search marketing	34
Is search really considered marketing?	36
From marketing push to consumer pull	40
Case study: Google versus Bing	44
Questions and exercises	48
Chapter 3
E-commerce and e-branding	50
The Internet as a storefront	52
Online as a branding opportunity	56
Building great brand websites	58
Measuring return on investment (ROI)	60
Case study: eBay develop e-commerce communities	66
Questions and exercises	70
Chapter 4
Advertising on the Web	72
Display advertising	74
Advertising creativity beyond display ads	78
E-mail marketing	84
New approaches to creative media	86
When is offline the best way to advertise online?	90
Case study: Burger King become online innovators	92
Questions and exercises	96

Chapter 5

The social web	98
The fifth estate?	100
Social networks	108
Second Life and MMORPGs	112
Case study: Barack Obama's election campaign	116
Questions and exercises	118

Chapter 6

Online applications and mobile marketing	120
Cloud computing and widgets	122
Mobile phone marketing	124
Case study: ESPN's online and mobile programming	132
Questions and exercises	136

Chapter 7

Measurement and analytics	138
A wealth of riches or information overload?	140
Making analytics actionable	144
Problems with online measurement	148
Case study: Dove and the communications optimisation process	150
Questions and exercises	154

Chapter 8

Ethical approaches	156
Privacy	158
Online marketing to children	162
Case study: Geppetto and responsible marketing to children	166
Questions and exercises	170
Final thoughts	172
Acknowledgements	173
Index	174
Picture credits	176
Working with ethics	177