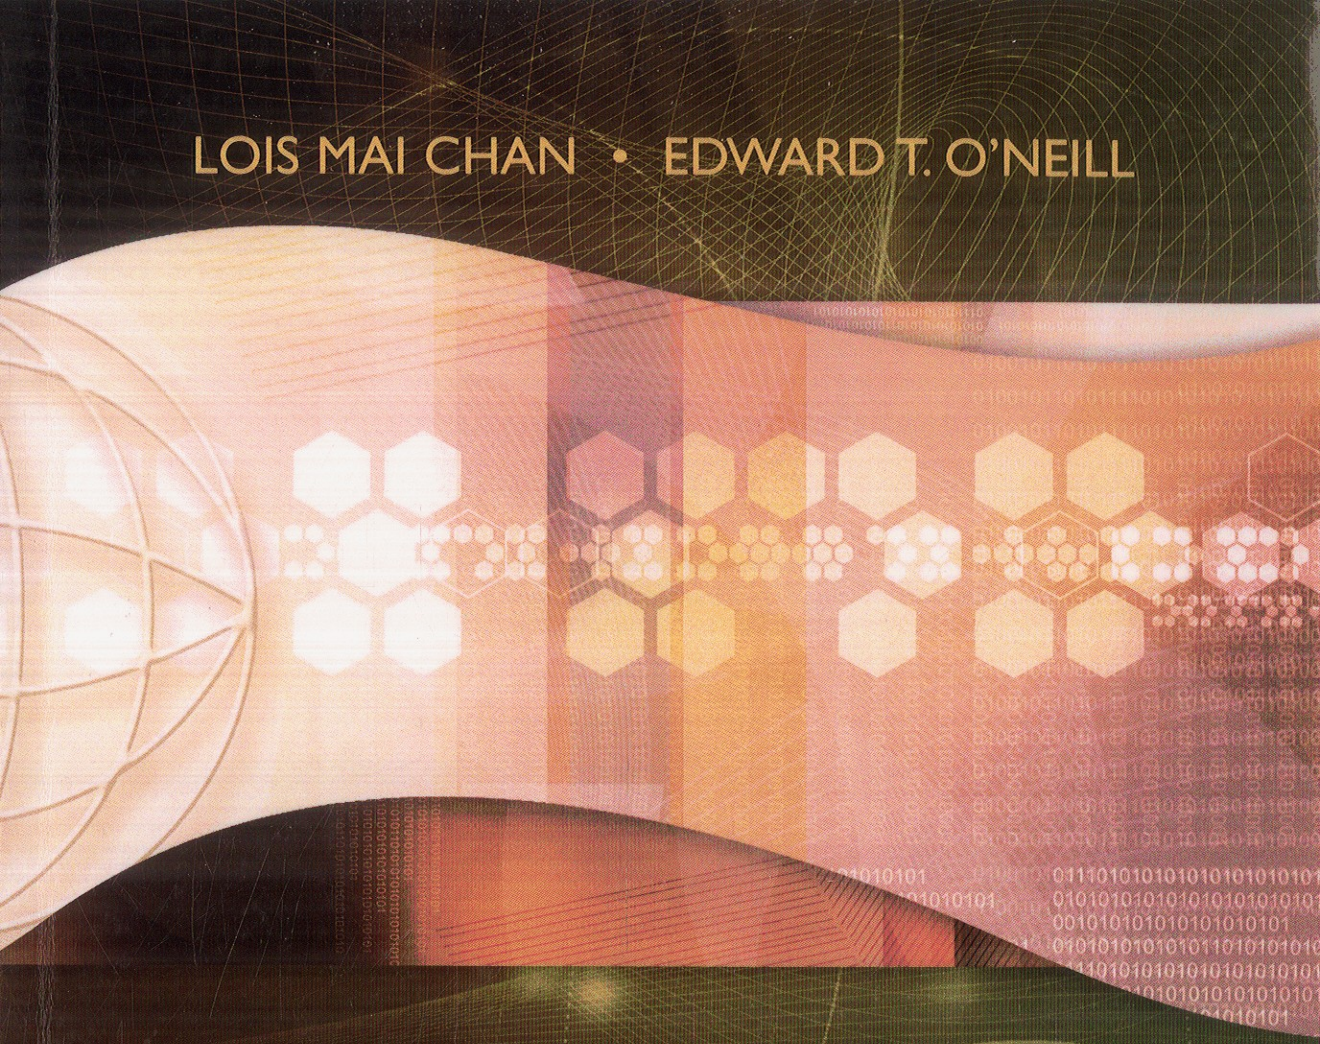
LOIS MAI CHAN • EDWARD T. O'NEILL



FAST: FACETED APPLICATION OF SUBJECT TERMINOLOGY

Principles and Application

CONTENTS

Preface xv

Part I: Introduction

1 Information Organization: Approaches and Principles 3

Introduction 3
Information Searching Environments 3
The Internet 3
Online Databases 4
Library Catalogs and Bibliographies 4
Subject Access to Information 4
Keyword Searching 5
Controlled Vocabulary Access 5
Keyword and Controlled Vocabulary Search Results 6
Classification 7
Principles of Controlled Vocabulary 7
Uniform and Unique Headings 8
Consistent and Current Terminology 9
Specific Entry 9
Terminological Control and Term Relationships 9
Representation of Complex Subjects 10
Characteristics of Indexing Languages 11
Subdivision Practice 11
Enumerative versus Synthetic Languages 11
Faceting 13
Precoordination versus Postcoordination 14

From Cards to Computers 15
Card Catalogs 15
Online Catalogs and Databases 17
Controlled Vocabulary Systems 17
Library of Congress Subject Headings (LCSH) 19
Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) 20
FAST (Faceted Application of Subject Terminology) 21
Selecting an Indexing/Classification Schema 22
Compatibility with Existing Metadata 22
Ease of Assignment 22
Retrieval Effectiveness 22
Cost of Maintenance 22
Conclusion 23

2 Metadata Encoding 25

Bibliographic Data 25
Print Representation 25
Book Catalogs 25
Card Catalogs 26
Digital Representation 26
The MARC Bibliographic Formats 28
MARC 21 28
MARC Record Structure 29
UNIMARC 36
XML (Extensible Markup Language) 36
MARCXML 38
MODS 38
Dublin Core 39
Authority Data 44
Print Representation 44
Digital Representation 44
MARC 21 44
Other MARC Authority Formats 46
SKOS 46
Conclusion 48

Part II: FAST Headings

3 Introduction to FAST 53

Impact of the Internet and the World Wide Web 53
The History of FAST 55
Sources of FAST Headings 56
Principles 56
Semantics 56
Common and Current Usage 57
Literary Warrant 57

Uniform Heading 57
Unique Heading 58
Syntax of Headings 59
Faceting 59
Enumeration versus Synthesis 60
Precoordination versus Postcoordination 60
Precoordination 61
Postcoordination 62
Heading Structure 62
Main Headings 62
Subdivisions 63
Qualifiers 63
Modular Approach 64
Conclusion 64

4 Topical Headings 67

Introduction 67
Functions of Topical Headings 67
Forms of Topical Headings 67
Single-Concept Headings 68
Single-Word Headings 68
Multiple-Word Headings 69
Adjectival Phrase Headings 69
Prepositional Phrase Headings 70
Multiple-Concept Headings 71
Compound Phrase Headings 71
Prepositional Phrase Headings 72
Headings with Subdivisions 72
Types of Topical Headings 73
Headings Representing Concepts and Objects 73
Form/Genre as Subjects 73
Fictitious, Legendary, and Mythological Characters 73
Named Animals 75
Imaginary Places and Organizations 75
Geologic Periods 75
Other Entities Bearing Proper Names 76
Inverted Headings 76

5 Geographic Headings 77

Introduction 77
Types of Geographic Headings 77
Jurisdictional Headings 77
Nonjurisdictional Headings 78

Changes of Name 78
Linear Name Changes 79
Mergers or Splits 79
Mergers 79
Splits 79
Language and Form of Geographic Headings 80
Language 80
Abbreviations 81
Grammatical Form 81
Qualifiers 81
Place Qualifiers 82
Type Qualifiers 82
Place and Type Qualifiers 83
Levels of Geographic Headings 84
First-Level Geographic Headings 84
Second-Level Geographic Headings 85
Third-Level Geographic Headings 86
City Sections and Neighborhoods 86
New York City Boroughs 87
London Boroughs 87
Areas Associated with Cities 89
Entities within Cities 89
Bridges and Tunnels 90
Special Cases 90
Extinct Cities and Ancient Kingdoms 90
Archaeological Sites 91
Bodies of Water 92
Islands 93
Interstates/Highways/Freeway Interchanges 94
Disputed Territories 94
Language-Based Territories 94
Parks, Reserves, and so Forth 94
Other Man-Made Structures Associated with Places Larger Than a City 95
Extraterrestrial Bodies 95
Latitude, Longitude, and Feature Type 96

6 Chronological Headings 99

Introduction 99
Forms of Chronological Headings 99
B.C./A.D. 100
Geologic Periods 101
Headings for Named Historical Periods 101
Chronological Headings Containing Dates Only 101

7 Headings for Events 103

Introduction 103
Forms of Event Headings 103
Language 103
Qualifiers 104
Types of Event Headings 105
Headings for Military Conflicts 105
Headings for Meetings 106
Headings for Sporting Events 107
Headings for Other Events 108
Chronological and Geographic Headings for Events 109

8 Proper Names as Subject Headings 111

Headings for Persons 111
Principles 111
Names of Individual Persons 111
Names of Families 112
Names of Dynasties, Royal Houses, and so Forth 113
Headings for Corporate Bodies 114
Principles 114
Forms of Headings for Corporate Bodies 114
Language 114
Qualifiers 115
Headings for Main Corporate Bodies 116
Governments 116
Nongovernment Bodies 116
Headings for Subordinate Bodies 117
Corporate Name Changes 118
Headings for Titles 119
Principles 119
Forms of Headings for Titles 119
Language 119
Qualifiers 120
Types of Headings for Titles 121
Anonymous Works 121
Works of Known Authorship 121
Works from Corporate Bodies, Conferences, Meetings, Etc. 122

9 Form and Genre Headings 123

Introduction 123
Principles 123
Forms of Form and Genre Headings 124
Main Heading 124
Subdivision 124

Examples of FAST Form and Genre Headings 125
General Form Headings 125
Audiovisual Materials 126
Art 126
Cartography 126
Law 127
Literature 127
Music 127
Religion 128

10 Cross-References 129

Introduction 129
Equivalence Relationship 130
Synonymous Terms 130
Variant Spellings 131
Abbreviations, Acronyms, Initials, and so Forth 131
Different Language Terms 132
Popular and Scientific Terms 133
Alternative Forms 133
Different Entry Elements 133
Narrow Terms Not Used as Headings 134
Ambiguous Relationships 134
Hierarchical Relationships 135
Genus/Species (or Class/Class Member) Relationship 136
Instance Relationship 136
Whole/Part Relationship 136
Compound and Complex Relationship 136
Associative Relationships 137
Cross-References for Proper Name Headings 138
Personal Names 138
Names of Individual Persons 138
Family Names 139
Names of Fictitious and Mythological Characters 139
Dynasties 139
Houses of Dukes, Counts, or Earls 140
Corporate Names 140
Geographic Names 140
Jurisdictional Names 140
Nonjurisdictional Names 141
Changes in Geographic Names 141
Headings for Other Named Entities 142
Headings for Events 143
Headings for Titles 144
Conclusion 144

Part III: Application of FAST

11 The FAST Database 147

Indexing Overview 147
Queries 149
Searching 150
Keywords in Headings 150
Advanced Searching 152
Phrase Searching 152
Keyword Searching 154
Geographic Indexes 156
Other Indexes 159
Index View 159

12 Application of FAST Headings 161

Introduction 161
Coding for FAST Headings in Bibliographic Records 162
MARC Records 162
Dublin Core Records 162
Exhaustivity in Cataloging or Indexing 164
Assigning FAST Headings 172
Identifying Concepts and Facets within the Topic 172
Selecting Form/Genre Headings 173
Selecting Subject Headings 173
Topical Headings 173
Works on a Single Topic 173
Works on Multiple Topics 173
Works on Complex Topics 174
Topics with Multiple Concepts 174
Geographic Headings 175
Chronological Headings 176
Name Headings 176
Title Headings 177
Topics with Multiple Facets 177
Subject Relations 179
FAST Application Examples 179
Example 1: People and Predators: from Conflict to Coexistence 180
Example 2: Daily Life in Colonial New England 183
Example 3: Style and the Nineteenth-century British Critic: Sincere Mannerisms 186
Example 4: Fife and Tayside 189
Example 5: Anne Frank: Reflections on Her Life and Legacy 191

Example 6: 2005 Hydrographic Survey of South San Francisco Bay, California [Web site] 195
Example 7: Shakespeare in the Victorian Periodicals 198
Example 8: Portrait of an Unknown Woman 200
Example 9: The Pretender 203
Example 10: First Emperor of China [DVD] 206
Example 11: Japan: Economic, Political and Social Issues 209
Example 12: Detours [Audio CD] 211

Part IV: Authority Control and Implementation

13 Derivation of FAST Headings 217
Background 217
Topical Headings 217
Enumeration of Assigned Headings 217
Validation 218
Recoding of Forms 218
Normalization 219
LCSH Authority File 220
Subdivisions 221
Geographic Headings 222
Event Headings 226
Event Headings Derived from Topical Headings 226
Event Headings Derived from Period Subdivisions 227
Event Headings Derived from LCSH Conferences and Meetings Names 229
Headings for Names of Persons and Families 229
Headings for Names of Corporate Bodies 230
Headings for Titles 230
Works of Anonymous Authorship 230
Works of Personal Authorship 231
Works of Corporate Bodies 231
Works from Conferences and Meetings 232
Chronological Headings 232
Form Headings 232

14 FAST Authority Records 235
Introduction 235
Authority Data 235
Authority Records 235
MARC Record Structure for Authorities 236
Creation of FAST Authority Records 236
Example 1. Vestischer Künstlerbund Recklinghausen 238
Example 2. David D. Smyers 239
Example 3. Battle of Agincourt 240
Example 4. Ferryboat Captains 241

Example 5. Columbus Dispatch 242
Example 6. McConnelsville 243
Example 7. Infants—Diseases—Patients 244
Additional Examples of FAST Authority Records 246
Topical Headings 246
Geographic Headings 247
Chronological Headings 248
Personal Name Headings 249
Corporate Headings 250
Event Headings 251
Title Headings 253
Form/Genre Headings 254
Normalization 254
Conflicts 256
Additional Validation 257
Obsolete Authority Records 257

15 Authority Control 261

Definition 261
Need for Authority Control 262
Validation 262
Correction 264
Stylistic 264
Tagging and Subfield Coding 264
Cross-References 264
Typographical Errors 265
Obsolete Headings 265
Conclusion 266

16 Faceting LCSH into FAST 267

Introduction 267
Identification and Recoding of Form Subdivisions 267
Algorithmic Faceting of LCSH to FAST 269
Faceting of Forms 270
Faceting of Titles 270
Titles of Anonymous Works 270
Titles for Works of Known Authorship 271
Faceting of Events 271
Faceting of Geographic Names 272
Main Headings 272
Subdivisions 272
Faceting of Personal Names 273
Faceting of Corporate Names 273
Faceting of Chronologicals 273
Faceting of Topicals 273

Reference Records 274
Validation 276
Conclusion 279

Appendixes

Appendix A: FAST Authority Records Structure 281
Appendix B: Geologic Periods 291
Appendix C: Geographic Names 293
Appendix D: Musical Instruments 331

Glossary 337

Bibliography 341

Index 345

About the Authors 355