

Bioethics and Buddhism

---

Pinit Ratanakul

College of Religious Studies
Mahidol University

Contents

	Pages
Preface	v
Chapter I The Nature and Scope of Bioethics	1
Chapter II Ethical Analysis	23
A. The study of Ethics	23
B. Normative Ethics	24
C. Sources of moral complexity	29
Chapter III Ethical Theories	43
A. Ethics of Virtue	44
B. Deontological Theories	47
C. Consequentialist Ethics-Utilitarianism	63
D. The Ethical Approach of this Book	81
Chapter IV Medicine as a Profession	89
A. Defining a “Profession”	89
B. Medicine as a Profession	92
C. Professional Ethics	103
D. The Nurse-Patient Relationship	106
E. Nurse-Doctor/Hospital Relationship	111
Chapter V Patient Rights and Truth - Telling	117
A. The Meaning of the term “Right to” Or Human Rights	118
B. Negative Rights	121
C. Positive Rights	123
D. Patient Rights	128

Chapter VI	Human Experimentation	153
	A. The Needs for Human Experimentation	153
	B. Forms of Human Experimentation: Conflicts of Interest	155
	C. Patient Rights and Experimentation	163
Chapter VII	Conflicting Claims	167
	A. Confidentiality	167
	B. Conflicting claims-who is the patient?	184
Chapter VIII	Health Care Professional Relationships	192
Chapter IX	Death and Dying	218
Chapter X	Justice and Health Care Delivery	247
	A. Basic Meaning of Justice	248
	B. The Right to Health Care	250
	C. Macro-allocation of health care services	255
	D. Micro-allocation of scarce medical resources	271
	E. Summary	278
Chapter XI	Buddhism and Bioethical Issues	282
	A. The Birth of Bioethics in Thailand	283
	B. Buddhist Worldview	295
	C. Life, Suffering and Death	299
	D. The Concept of Health and Disease	307
	E. Birth Control and Abortion	315
	F. Suicide and Euthanasia	318
	G. The Spiritual Importance of Dying	331
	H. Thai Buddhists and Human Cloning	333
	I. Brain Death and Organ Transplantation	338
	J. Animal Experimentation	339
Appendix I		348
Appendix II		355
Bibliography of Suggested Readings		375