

Patricia M. Holland ■ Sandra K. Anderson

Chair Massage

Contents

Reviewers	vi	Chapter 5: Additional Techniques and Adaptations	129
Preface	vii	Additional Techniques	129
About the Authors	ix	Stretches	129
Acknowledgments	x	Techniques for Other Areas of the Body	134
 Chapter 1: What Is Chair Massage?	1	Performing Additional Techniques on the Table and Futon	139
Why Choose Chair Massage?	1	Adaptations for Clients in Wheelchairs	144
Overview of Chair Massage	2	Adaptations for Clients in Beds	150
History of Chair Massage	5	Massage Using a Straight-Backed Chair	156
Benefits of Seated Massage	11	Summary	160
Advantages Chair Massage Gives the Practitioner	15	 Chapter 6: Essentials of Business	165
Optimal Locations for Performing Chair Massage	17	Aspects of a Chair Massage Business	165
Summary	17	Starting a Chair Massage Business	167
 Chapter 2: Essentials of Practice	22	Choosing a Business Name	167
Starting Off Simple	22	Creating a Business Plan	168
Choosing a Massage Chair	23	Marketing	171
Handling the Massage Chair	27	Sales	177
Sanitation and Hygiene	39	Presentation Skills	180
Other Equipment and Supplies	43	Written Information	181
Logistics of Traveling to Locations	46	Managing Chair Massage Accounts	184
Summary	49	Contracts	189
 Chapter 3: Basic Sequence	52	Summary	190
Body Mechanics	52	 Chapter 7: Communication and Ethics	196
Techniques	56	The Importance of Ethics and Effective Communication for Practitioners	196
Cautionary Sites	67	Professional Presentation of Self	199
Before the Treatment Begins	69	Boundaries	201
Basic Sequence	74	Communicating with Clients Who Are New to Seated Massage	203
Vasovagal Syncope	96	Preparation to Work	205
Summary	98	Special-Needs Clients	205
 Chapter 4: Enhancing Treatment Sessions	101	Summary	206
Overview of Muscles	101	 Appendix A: Traditional Chinese Medicine Channel Review	210
Upper Region of the Posterior Body	102	Appendix B: Anatomy and Kinesiology Review	224
Mid- and Low Back	112	Answers to Study Questions	227
Techniques for the Neck and Head	115	References	228
Techniques for the Arms and Hands	118	Resources	229
Closing the Treatment Session	124
Summary	125		