

London 2012 training guide

Swimming

From beginner to champion

with a foreword by Rebecca Adlington OBE

An official London 2012 Olympic Games publication

Contents

Foreword by Rebecca Adlington OBE.....	5	Frontcrawl specialist tips.....	70
Introduction.....	6	Frontcrawl turns.....	72
Getting started.....	8	Backstroke.....	74
The competition pool.....	10	Backstroke explained.....	76
Pool equipment.....	12	Backstroke specialist tips.....	78
Swimming history.....	14	Backstroke turns.....	80
The first competitors.....	16	Breaststroke.....	82
Olympic Games swimmers.....	18	Breaststroke explained.....	84
TRAINING	20	Breaststroke specialist tips.....	86
Joining a club.....	22	Breaststroke specialist turns.....	88
Clothing – swimsuits.....	24	Butterfly.....	90
Clothing accessories.....	26	Butterfly explained.....	92
Training aids.....	28	Butterfly specialist tips.....	94
Training safety.....	32	Butterfly turns.....	96
What do you want to achieve?.....	34	THE EVENTS	98
Training plan.....	36	50m and 100m Freestyle.....	100
Basic training.....	38	200m and 400m Freestyle.....	101
Increasing the intensity.....	40	800m and 1,500m Freestyle.....	102
Warming up.....	42	100m and 200m Backstroke.....	103
Warming down.....	44	100m and 200m Breaststroke.....	104
Diet and hydration.....	46	100m and 200m Butterfly.....	105
The mental edge.....	48	200 and 400m Individual Medley.....	106
Land training.....	50	10km Marathon swimming.....	108
Injury prevention.....	52	10km Marathon specialist tactics.....	110
THE BASICS	54	10km Marathon specialist tips.....	112
The science of swimming.....	56	Olympic Games Relay events.....	114
Balance and stability.....	58	Olympic Games Relay events explained.....	116
Efficient swimming and resistance.....	60	THE BIG DAY	118
Breathing.....	62	Race day.....	120
THE STROKES	64	How swimming is organised.....	124
Frontcrawl.....	66	Index.....	126
Frontcrawl explained.....	68		