

The Pragmatic
Programmers

New Programmer's Survival Manual

Navigate Your Workplace,
Cube Farm, or Startup

Josh Carter

Edited by Susannah Davidson Pfalzer

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi

Part I — Professional Programming

1. Program for Production	3
Tip 1. Beat Up Your Code	6
Tip 2. Insist on Correctness	11
Tip 3. Design with Tests	21
Tip 4. Tame Complexity	27
Tip 5. Fail Gracefully	35
Tip 6. Be Stylish	41
Tip 7. Improve Legacy Code	48
Tip 8. Review Code Early and Often	53
2. Get Your Tools in Order	59
Tip 9. Optimize Your Environment	61
Tip 10. Speak Your Language Fluently	69
Tip 11. Know Your Platform	77
Tip 12. Automate Your Pain Away	83
Tip 13. Control Time (and Timelines)	87
Tip 14. Use the Source, Luke	92

Part II — People Skills

3. Manage Thy Self	101
Tip 15. Find a Mentor	103
Tip 16. Own the Image You Project	107
Tip 17. Be Visible	110
Tip 18. Ace Your Performance Review	114
Tip 19. Manage Your Stress	121
Tip 20. Treat Your Body Right	127
4. Teamwork	133
Tip 21. Grok Personality Types	135
Tip 22. Connect the Dots	141
Tip 23. Work Together	144
Tip 24. Meet Effectively	148

Part III — The Corporate World

5. Inside the Company	155
Tip 25. Know Your Peeps	157
Tip 26. Know Your (Corporate) Anatomy	163
6. Mind Your Business	181
Tip 27. Get with the Project	183
Tip 28. Appreciate the Circle of (a Product's) Life	189
Tip 29. Put Yourself in the Company's Shoes	200
Tip 30. Identify Corporate Antipatterns	203

Part IV — Looking Forward

7. Kaizen	211
Tip 31. Mind Your Head	213
Tip 32. Never Stop Learning	217
Tip 33. Find Your Place	222
A1. Bibliography	227
Index	231