

CONTENTS

Preface viii

New to This Edition viii

Unique Features x

Focusing on Race and Ethnicity xi

Prologue: Beginning the Journey xii

Supplements: Provisions and Itinerary for the Journey xiii

About the Author: Jean's Journey So Far xiv

Acknowledgments: Companions Along the Way xvi

PART I

Foundations for Becoming Culturally Competent 1

Introduction to Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 2

Student Voices: Fellow Travelers on This Journey 3

1 What It Means to Be Culturally Competent 5

Defining Cultural Competence 5

Demographics 8

Reactions to the Changing Demographics 9

Basics for Understanding Cultural Competence 10

Basic Terms 11

Basic Assumptions 13

Individual Cultural Competence Skill Areas 14

Defining Professional Standards 17

Why Become Culturally Competent? 18

The Fear and Pain Associated with Moving toward Cultural Competence 18

Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 23

Classroom: Adventures in Learning 25

CONTENTS

- 2 Understanding Racism and Prejudice 26
Defining and Contextualizing Race 27
Defining and Contextualizing Racism 28
Individual Racism and Prejudice 31
Institutional Racism 37
Cultural Racism 41
Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 45
Clocks 45
Classroom: Adventures in Learning 47
- 3 Recognizing Unconscious Bias, Unintentional Racism, and Microaggressions 48
Unconscious Bias 49
Unintentional Racism 53
Microaggressions 57
Hard Work of Honesty 63
Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 66
Classroom: Adventures in Learning 68
- 4 Understanding Privilege and Racial Consciousness among Whites 70
Becoming White 72
White Privilege 73
Models of White Racial Attitudes and Identities 78
Identity Development in the College Classroom 82
Implications for White Teachers 83
A Way Forward 84
Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 85
Classroom: Adventures in Learning 88
- 5 Understanding Culture and Cultural Differences 89
What Is Culture? 90
The Dimensions of Culture 93
Comparing Cultural Paradigms in America 95
Are Educational Theories Culture-Bound? 99
Conflicting Values in Educational Theory 100
Conflicting Strategies about Multicultural Education 105
Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 108
Classroom: Adventures in Learning 109

PART IIBecoming Culturally Competent in the Classroom and Community 113

Introduction to Chapters 6, 7, 8, and 9 114
 Student Voices: Fellow Travelers on This Journey 114

6 Children, Parents, and Families of Color 119

Three Scenarios 120
 Child Development 122
 Families of Color 127
 Bicultural Families 128
 Isolated Students of Color 134
 Parenting 139
 Interacting with Parents of Color 145
 Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 148
 Classroom: Adventures in Learning 149

7 Psychological and Educational Issues 150

Racial Identity and Group Belonging 151
 Assimilation and Acculturation 157
 Academic Performance and Learning Styles 163
 Stereotype Threat 166
 Stress 167
 Providing Psychological Support in the Classroom 169
 Who Are the Teachers? 172
 Isolated Teachers of Color 174
 Teacher Characteristics That Make a Difference 175
 Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 176
 Classroom: Adventures in Learning 177

8 Bias in the Curriculum and in the Classroom 178

The Impact of Social and Racial Attitudes 179
 Teacher Expectations Affect Student Learning 180
 Cultural Aspects of Curriculum Delivery 182
 Bias in Conceptualizing Ethnic Populations 184
 Bias in Assessment 186
 Bias in Literature 190
 Bias in Textbooks 191
 Curriculum Reform 192
 Aspects of Curriculum Transformation 195

CONTENTS

- Child-Centeredness of the Curriculum 197
- The Opportunity Gap 199
- Social Action at Work 200
- Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 201
- Classroom: Adventures in Learning 202

9 Critical Issues in Working with Culturally Different Students 203

- Classroom Management and Interactional Style 204
- Immersion Experiences 208
- Bilingualism 218
- Overcoming Anxiety by Focusing on Caring 224
- Preparing for Cross-Cultural Teaching 225
- What Does Successful Cross-Cultural Teaching Look Like? 228
- Connections and Reflections: Emerging Views 230
- Classroom: Adventures in Learning 233

PART III

Working Competently with All Students 235

- Introduction to Chapters 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 238
- Student Voices: Fellow Travelers on This Journey 240

10 Working with Latino/a Students 241

- Demographics 241
- Family and Cultural Values 243
- Our Interviewee: Aurora Cedillo 246

11 Working with American Indian/Alaska Native Students 257

- Demographics 257
- Family and Cultural Values 259
- Education 262
- Our Interviewee: Cornel Pewewardy 264

12 Working with African American Students 272

- Demographics 272
- Family and Cultural Values 273
- Our Interviewee: William E. Cross Jr. 278

13	Working with Asian Pacific American Students	297
	Demographics	297
	Family and Cultural Values	300
	Our Interviewee: Valerie Ooka Pang	302
14	Working with Arab and Muslim Americans	313
	Demographics	313
	Family and Cultural Values	315
	Our Interviewee: Karim Hamdy	318
15	Working with European American Students	325
	Background	325
	Our Informant: Christine E. Sleeter	328
	Epilogue: Continuing the Journey	332
	Accepting the Challenge to Make a Difference	332
	A Temporary Resting Place	334
	Focused Bibliography: Sites and Insights Along the Way	336
	References	337
	Index	356