

Contents

List of case studies	xi
Agenda point boxes	xiii
Preface	xiv
1 Introducing corporate governance	1
What is corporate governance?	4
How this book is organized	8
Principles of corporate governance	8
Issues on the board's agenda	9
Reporting, rebalancing and the future	9
Further readings	10
2 The problems of corporate governance	11
Corporate malfeasance	13
A brief history of the corporation	15
Value destruction	16
Corporate misalignments	17
Executive pay	17
Self-dealing	19
Corporate control	20
Corporate contributions	23
Corporate purpose in question	23
Notes
Further readings	24
Part 1 Principles of corporate governance	25
3 Theories of corporate governance	27
Agency theory and shareholder value	29
Agency costs	30
'Voice' as a mechanism of control	31

'Exit' as a mechanism of control	36
Implications of agency theory for corporate governance	37
Resources and the board	38
Stakeholder theory	41
A 'weak' approach to stakeholder theory	42
The 'strong' form of stakeholder theory	43
Implications of stakeholder theory for corporate governance	43
Stewardship of the board	45
Tensions in approach to corporate governance	47
Note	48
Further readings	49
4 Mechanisms of corporate governance	50
How corporate governance works	52
Markets	52
Law and regulation	53
Gatekeepers and watchdogs	56
Auditors	56
Lawyers	60
Credit rating agencies	60
Securities analysts	62
Governance rating firms	63
Headhunters	64
The media	65
Industry standards and self-regulation	65
The gap and the role of the board	66
Further readings	67
5 Corporate governance in a global economy	69
Corporate governance in different settings	71
Japan	72
Germany	74
United States	76
United Kingdom	79
Governance in other European countries	82
Concentrated ownership and control	82
Dual board structures	82
Pyramid ownership and control	83
Dual-class shares	83
The European Union and corporate governance	84
Corporate governance in emerging capital markets	85
Brazil and Latin America	86
Russia and the former Communist states	87

India	88
China	89
Effectiveness, globalization and convergence	90
Further readings	92
6 Codes of corporate governance	93
Codes of corporate governance	95
UK governance after Cadbury	95
The codes, combined	98
The Higgs Review and the Combined Code, revisited	99
Beyond Higgs	101
Governance codes in Europe	101
France	102
Germany	103
Sweden	103
Belgium	104
Corporate governance in the United States	104
Emerging economies and codes of corporate governance	108
OECD	109
World Bank and IFC	109
Other advocates	110
Convergence in corporate governance codes	110
Notes	113
Further readings	113
Part 2 Issues on the board's agenda	115
7 Issues within the board	117
Board structure and processes	120
Monitoring and control	121
Resource provision	125
Board roles and responsibilities	125
Further readings	129
8 Issues between boards and management	131
The agency problem in action	134
Executive pay	134
Paying too much	135
Paying too little	137
How to pay	138
Self-interest beyond pay	140
Stewardship and self-actualization	140
Self-serving executives, related party transactions	141

Limits to board control of management	143
Further readings	143
9 Issues between boards and owners	145
Shareholder value	148
Rise of institutional investment	149
Shareholder activism	151
Shareholder rights and issues	152
One share, one vote	154
Director nominations	154
Staggered boards – continuity or control?	155
Say on pay	156
Poison pills and anti-takeover devices	157
Whose value?	159
Note	160
Further readings	160
10 Issues between owners	162
Shareholder activism as politics	165
Value chain for shareholders	165
Dimensions of shareholder interests	167
Stock lending, short-selling	168
Issues with major shareholders	171
Power balances in corporate governance	173
Further readings	175
11 Issues between the company and its publics	177
Responsibilities of the corporation	181
Corporate social responsibility	182
Licence to operate	182
Stakeholder rights	183
CSR as politics	184
CSR as opportunity	185
Sustainability	185
Triple bottom line	187
SRI funds	188
Divided duties?	189
Further readings	190

Part 3 Reporting, rebalancing and the future	191
12 Transparency – the universal antiseptic	193
Disclosure – good for markets	196
Financial reporting	198
How financial disclosure works	199
Convergence in accounting standards	199
Problems with financial reporting	200
Operational reporting	201
Reporting on intangibles	202
Governance reporting	203
Social and environmental reporting	203
Risk reporting	204
Issues in disclosure	205
Investment briefings	205
Fair value	206
Impact of transparency	207
Further readings	209
13 Governance beyond corporations	210
What makes a corporation different	216
Private companies	216
Partnerships	217
Non-profit organizations	218
Mutual associations	219
Charities	220
Public sector	221
Agents or stewards?	222
Further readings	223
14 An unsettled and unsettling future?	225
A balancing act?	228
Tradeoffs?	229
An imbalanced agenda?	230
An unsettled future?	234
Convergence or persistence?	234
A return to state capitalism?	237
Alternatives?	238
Remedies through the layers of governance?	238
Law and regulation?	238
Relations within the board?	240
Relations between boards and management?	240

Relations between boards and owners?	241
Relations between owners?	242
Relations between corporations and their publics?	243
Gatekeepers and watchdogs?	243
Specific remedies?	244
Industry models?	244
Life-cycle governance?	245
Governance for the business?	245
References	247
Index	262