

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Values, Models, and Codes	1
2 Autonomy and Diminished Capacity Commentators: Carol B. Liebman and Mary Radford	27
3 Autonomy and the Emotions Commentators: Dorothy Della Noce and John Winslade	55
4 Disputant Autonomy and Power Imbalance Commentators: Forrest S. Mosten and Bill Eddy	87
5 Tensions Between Disputant Autonomy and Substantive Fairness: The Misinformed Disputant Commentators: Lela P. Love and Jacqueline Nolan-Haley	113
6 Information, Autonomy, and the Unrepresented Party Commentators: Michael Moffitt and Dan Dozier	155
7 Mediating on the Wrong Side of the Law Commentators: John Bickerman, Jeremy Lack, and Julie Macfarlane	177
8 Mediating with Lies in the Room Commentators: Dwight Golann and Melissa Brodrick	199
9 Confidentiality Commentators: Bruce Pardy and Charles Pou	227
10 Confidentiality Continued: Attorney Misconduct or Child Abuse Commentators: Art Hinshaw and Gregory Firestone	255

11	Conflicts of Interest	277
	Commentators: Bruce E. Meyerson, Wayne Thorpe, Roger Wolf, and Susan Nauss Exon
12	Mediating Multiculturally: Culture and the Ethical Mediator	305
	Commentators: Carrie Menkel-Meadow and Harold Abramson
13	Ethics for ADR Provider Organizations	339
	Commentators: Phyllis Bernard and Susan M. Yates
	Appendix: Model Standards of Conduct for Mediators	369
	Notes	381
	The Editor	419
	The Contributors	421
	Index	431