

Contents

Foreword	007
Introduction	009
1. Why and How?	012
Research Methodologies	014
Process and Product	018
Design Commentators	020
Key Concepts: The Designer as Author	022
2. Design Literacy	024
Visual Literacy in Design Practice	026
Case Study 01: Visual Grammar	032
Key Concepts: Connotation and Denotation	046
Exercises: Design Literacy	048
3. Analysis and Proposition	052
Research and Design	054
Feedback and Evaluation	066
Languages and Identities	070
Key Concepts: Rhetoric	072
Case Study 02: Emotionally Vague	074
Case Study 03: Bibliospot	082
Key Concepts: Structuralism and Semiotics	092
Exercises: Design Analysis	094
4. Theory in Practice	096
Engaging with Visual Research	098
Graphic Authorship	102
Key Concepts: Post-structuralism	104
Case Study 04: The English	106
Case Study 05: An Inventory of Loss	114
Key Concepts: Rubbish Theory	124
Exercises: The Practice of Theory	126

5. Audience and Message	128
Receiving End	130
The Construction of Meaning	134
Two-way Communication	138
Case Study 06: Hybrid Novels	140
Case Study 07: Cypriot Identity	146
Key Concepts: Fitness Landscapes	154
Exercises: Are You Receiving Me?	156
 6. Process and Materials	 158
Practical Considerations	160
Tactility and Usability	162
Case Study 08: Mary	166
Case Study 09: Message as Flux	172
Key Concepts: Affordance	182
Exercises: Text Messages	184
 7. Synthesis	 186
The Process of Synthesis	188
Case Study 10: Memorial	194
Case Study 11: Happiness – todayifeel	202
Key Concepts: Modernism and Postmodernism	210
Exercises: Practical Methods	212
 8. Appendices	 214
Acknowledgements	216
Further Reading	218
Index	220
Picture Credits	224

