

Contents

Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
Tables, Boxes, Figures and Appendices	xi
PART I: THE EVOLUTION OF CULTURAL TOURISM RESEARCH
1 Developments and Perspectives in Cultural Tourism Research Greg Richards and Wil Munsters	1
2 The Traditional Quantitative Approach. Surveying Cultural Tourists: Lessons from the ATLAS Cultural Tourism Research Project Greg Richards	13
3 A Comparison of Quantitative and Qualitative Approaches: Complementarities and Trade-offs Marjan Melkert and Katleen Vos	33
4 Blurring Boundaries in Cultural Tourism Research Esther Binkhorst, Teun den Dekker and Marjan Melkert	41
PART II: MIXED QUALITATIVE–QUANTITATIVE APPROACHES
5 The Cultural Destination Experience Audit Applied to the Tourist-historic City Wil Munsters	52
6 Methodological Triangulation: the Study of Visitor Behaviour at the Hungarian Open Air Museum László Puczko, Edit Bárd and Júlia Füzi	61

7	Employing the Grand Tour Approach to Aid Understanding of Garden Visiting	75
	Dorothy Fox, Jonathan Edwards and Keith Wilkes
8	Multi-method Research on Ethnic Cultural Tourism in Australia	87
	Jock Collins, Simon Darcy and Korrily Jordan
9	Tracking the Urban Visitor: Methods for Examining Tourists' Spatial Behaviour and Visual Representations	104
	Deborah Edwards, Tracey Dickson, Tony Griffin and Bruce Hayllar
PART III: QUALITATIVE APPROACHES
10	An Application of Grounded Theory to Cultural Tourism Research: Resident Attitudes to Tourism Activity in Santiponce	115
	Mario Castellanos-Verdugo, Francisco J. Caro-González and M. de los Ángeles Oviedo-García
11	Tales from the Field: Video and its Potential for Creating Cultural Tourism Knowledge	129
	Tijana Rakić
12	Using Photo-based Interviews to Reveal the Significance of Heritage Buildings to Cultural Tourism Experiences	141
	Gregory Willson and Alison McIntosh
13	Measuring the Image of a Cultural Tourism Destination through the Collage Technique	156
	Ana M. González Fernández, María Carmen Rodríguez Santos and Miguel Cervantes Blanco
PART IV: INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES
14	Ethnographic Research on Cultural Tourism: an Anthropological View	173
	Xerardo Pereiro
15	From Local to Global (and Back): Towards Glocal Ethnographies of Cultural Tourism	188
	Noel B. Salazar
16	Assembling the Socio-material Destination: an Actor–Network Approach to Cultural Tourism Studies	199
	Carina Ren
PART V: CONCLUSION
17	Methods in Cultural Tourism Research: the State of the Art	209
	Wil Munsters and Greg Richards
	Index	215