

Contents

Introduction: E-Learning and Libraries—Not Your Father’s Oldsmobile	v
Linda W. Braun
1 Introducing Online Credit-Based Instruction for Undergraduates	1
Lauren Pressley
2 NCompass Live: Educating Nebraska’s Librarians Online	13
Christa Burns and Michael P. Sauers
3 Digital Reference That Supports E-Learning at the University of California	25
Teal Smith and Donald Barclay
4 The Critical Thinking Skills Initiative: An Information Literacy E-Learning Collaboration	39
Barbara Carrel, Jane Devine, Ann Matsuuchi, and Steven Ovadia
5 Cutting to the Quick: Library Instruction in the Age of Happy Distraction	51
Lura Sanborn
6 Developing and Sharing an Open Source Software Tool That Supports Online Interactive Learning	63
Leslie Sult

7	Screencasting for Instruction and Reference Greg R. Notess	79
8	Promoting Faculty Adoption of E-Learning Solutions and Library Services through Streaming Videos Coleen Meyers Martin and Lynn D. Lampert	91
9	E-Learning and Holocaust Education in a School Library Margaret Lincoln	105
	Index	121
	About the Editors and Contributors	123