

Contents

---

Contributors	vii
Introduction Kate Nash	1
1 Transnationalizing the Public Sphere: On the Legitimacy and Efficacy of Public Opinion in a Post-Westphalian World Nancy Fraser	8
2 What and Where is the Transnationalized Public Sphere? Nick Couldry	43
3 Towards Transnational Democratization? Kate Nash	60
4 An Alternative Transnational Public Sphere? On Anarchist Cosmopolitanism in Post-Westphalian Times Fuyuki Kurasawa	79

5	Time, Politics, and Critique: Rethinking the ‘When’ Question Kimberly Hutchings	98
6	Dilemmas of Inclusion: The All-Affected Principle, the All-Subjected Principle, and Transnational Public Spheres David Owen	112
7	Publicity, Subjection, Critique: A Reply to My Critics Nancy Fraser	129
	Index	157