

CONTENTS

	Preface	xi
	Acknowledgements	xv
	Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1	Moral Psychology: The Grand Convergence	13
	Overview of Moral Psychology	16
	Psychology, Reasoning and Moral Exemplars	18
	Moral Reasoning, Harm and Culture	19
	Moral Judgment and Brain Science	21
	Merging Facts and Values: Philippa Foot	22
	Our Emotions Drive Our Reasons: Jonathan Haidt	23
	Debates in the Field	25
	Reason and Emotion in Moral Judgments	26
	Implications for Education and Pedagogy	28
	Application to Media Ethics	29
CHAPTER 2	Design of an Exemplar Study	35
	Selection of Exemplars	37
	The Interview	39
	The life story interview format	41
	The life story as research tool	44
	Phenomenological analysis	45
	The Survey	45
	Personality traits	46
	Ethical ideologies	48
	Moral reasoning	49
	Ethical workplace climate	51
	Combining Qualitative and Quantitative Data	52

CONTENTS

CHAPTER 3	A Profile of Media Exemplars by the Numbers	57
	Personality Traits	59
	Ethical Ideologies	62
	Moral Reasoning	64
	Workplace Climate	66
	An Emerging Profile	70
CHAPTER 4	Patterns That Point to Virtue	75
	Key Links in the Data	76
	Key Links in Narrative Themes	83
	The development transformation of moral goals	84
	The reciprocal nature of social influence	86
	Certainty and moral courage	87
	Positivity and faith	88
	Uniting self and morality	89
CHAPTER 5	Professionalism and Public Service	93
	A Day Job With “Moral Implications”	95
	Public trust and the media	97
	Media as Professionalized Practice	98
	Embracing the Common Good	104
	Driven by a Sense of “the Public”	109
	Public Service as a Virtue in Media	113
	The question of loyalty in public relations	115
CHAPTER 6	Moral Courage	119
	Understanding the Concept of Courage	122
	Media Exemplars: Standing on Principle	125
	General indications of courage as a value	127
	Moments of Courage in Media: Some Pivotal Stories	131
	Courage in a professional media context	131
	Courage in exemplars’ personal lives	136
	Moral Courage as a Virtue in Media	141
CHAPTER 7	Humility and Hubris	145
	Humility in Moral Psychology	148
	Humility Among Media Exemplars	149
	Self-awareness	152
	Openness	155
	Transcendence	157
	Hubris in Moral Psychology	159
	Hubris Among Media Exemplars	160
	Hubris and pride	161
	– Authentic pride	162
	– Hubristic pride	164
	The hubris of youth	166
	Humility as a Virtue in Media	169

CHAPTER 8	Crucibles of Experience	173
	“Crucibles” in Exemplars’ Life Stories	177
	Adversarial Growth and Resilience	179
	Resilience	183
	Hardiness	185
	Motivation and Flow	192
	Crucible Experiences and Virtue in Media	198
CONCLUSION	Lessons for Media Ethics Theory	201
	Virtue Ethics and Media Practice	206
	Future Media Ethics Research	211
APPENDIX A	The Life Story Interview	215
	Introduction	215
	A. Life Chapters	216
	B. Key Scenes in the Life Story	216
	C. Future Script	218
	D. Challenges	219
	E. Personal Ideology	220
	F. Life Theme	220
	G. Reflection	220
APPENDIX B	Moral Agency in Media: A Study of Professional Exemplars	221
	Part One: Personal Traits	222
	Part Two: Workplace Climate	223
	Part Three: Ethical Ideologies	225
	Part Four: Moral Reasoning	226
	Part Five: Demographic Data	226
	Index	229