

Contents

SECTION I THE TREATMENT PLANNING PROCESS

Chapter 1 Information Gathering and Diagnosis Development 3

Stephen J. Stefanac

- Overview of the Diagnostic Process 3
- Information Gathering 4
- Components of a Patient History 7
- Clinical Examination 11
- Radiographic Examination 16
- Other Diagnostic Aids 21
- Developing Diagnoses and Problem Lists for Patients 23
- Documentation 28

Chapter 2 Evidence-Based Treatment Planning: Assessment of Risk, Prognosis, and Expected Treatment Outcomes 31

Samuel Paul Nesbit, Angela Broome, and Stephen J. Stefanac

- Traditional Model for Dental Treatment Planning 32
- Professional Diversity and Disagreement in Treatment Planning 33
- Evidence-Based Decision Making 34
- Risk Assessment 36
- Prognosis 42
- Outcomes and Outcomes Measures 44
- Changing the Treatment Planning Paradigm 47
- Conclusion 49

Chapter 3 Developing the Treatment Plan 53

Stephen J. Stefanac

- Developing Treatment Objectives 54
- Establishing the Nature and Scope of the Treatment Plan 57

Presenting Treatment Plans and Reaching Consensus With the Patient 60

Guidelines for Sequencing Dental Treatment 62

Obtaining Informed Consent and Documenting the Treatment Plan 67

Conclusion 68

Chapter 4 Ethical and Legal Issues in Treatment Planning 69

Robert Barsley and Helen Sharp

- Hippocratic Oath 70
- Ethical Codes 70
- Diagnosis and Treatment Planning 71
- Legal Guidelines 71
- Doctor-Patient Relationship and Professional Liability 72
- Accepting Patients into the Practice 74
- Dental Record 76
- Consent to Treatment 79
- Negligence and the Dental Practice 83
- Conclusion 86

SECTION II PHASES OF THE TREATMENT PLAN

Chapter 5 The Systemic Phase of Treatment 91

Stephen J. Stefanac

- Increasing Importance of the Systemic Phase of Treatment 92
- Rationale for Systemic Therapy 93
- Evaluating the Patient's Current Health Status 94
- Evaluating the Relationship Between Systemic Health and Dental Treatment 99
- Systemic Procedures 99
- How Systemic Conditions Can Affect Treatment Planning 104
- Documentation of Systemic Concerns 110
- Conclusion 110

Chapter 6 The Acute Phase of Treatment 113Stephen J. Stefanac and Samuel Paul Nesbit

- Challenges 114
- Rewards 115
- Profile of the Patient Requesting Immediate Treatment 115
- Patient Evaluation 117
- Common Acute Problems and Diagnoses 121
- Treatment Planning for Acute Needs 129
- Documenting Acute Care Treatment and Follow-Up 133
- Conclusion 135

Chapter 7 The Disease Control Phase of Treatment 137Samuel Paul Nesbit

- Purpose of the Disease Control Phase 138
- Structuring the Disease Control Phase 139
- Common Disease Control Problems 142
- Reassessment 166
- Making the Transition to the Definitive Phase of Care 167

Chapter 8 The Definitive Phase of Treatment 169Samuel Paul Nesbit, Preetha Kanjirath, and
Stephen J. Stefanac

- Definitive Phase Treatment Options 170
- Periodontal Therapy 171
- Orthodontic Treatment 174
- Nonorthodontic Occlusal Therapies 179
- Restoring Individual Teeth 181
- Cosmetic Dentistry 191
- Elective (Nonacute) Endodontic Problems 195
- Extractions and Preprosthodontic Surgery 197
- Replacing Missing Teeth 200
- Conclusion 209

Chapter 9 The Maintenance Phase of Care 213Samuel Paul Nesbit

- Posttreatment Assessment 215
- Rationale for Including a Maintenance Phase in the Treatment Plan 215
- Issues Typically Included in the Maintenance Phase 219
- Documenting the Maintenance Phase Plan 225
- The Periodic Visit 225
- Conclusion 231

SECTION III PLANNING TREATMENT FOR PATIENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS*Chapter 10 Special Care Patients 235Allen Samuelson

- Identifying the Patient With Special Needs 238
- Role of the General Dentist in the Management of the Patient With Special Needs 238
- Patient Evaluation 239
- Arriving at a Diagnosis 247
- Treatment Planning 248
- Planning for Specific Conditions 257
- Access to Care 258
- Delivery of Care 259
- Ethical and Legal Issues 268
- Conclusion 270

Chapter 11 Oral Cancer: Prevention, Management, and Treatment 273Patricia M. Crum, Deborah
A. DesRosiers, Christoph A. Ramseier, and Paul J. Vankevich

- Incidence and Prevalence 273
- Prognosis and Staging 275
- Causation 275
- Role of the Dental Team in Head and Neck Cancer 283
- Prevention Strategies 285
- Diagnosis of Oral Cancer 292
- Referral for Treatment 295
- Cancer Therapies 296
- Planning Dental Treatment After Diagnosis of Oral Cancer 300
- Conclusion 307

Chapter 12 Alcohol and Substance Abuse 311John B. Valentine

- Introduction 311
- Alcohol Abuse 313
- Other Abused Substances: Scope of the Problem and Pathophysiology 316
- Managing the Addiction 322
- Challenges to the Dentist 324
- Patient Assessment (Signs and Symptoms of Substance Abuse) 325
- Confronting the Problem 331
- Planning and Executing Dental Treatment 332
- Practice Management Issues 334
- Conclusion 336

Chapter 13 The Anxious or Fearful Patient 339Henrietta Logan and Cindy Marek

- Nature and Scope of the Problem 339
- Characteristics of Dental Anxiety, Fear, and Phobia 340
- Etiology 344
- Recognition and Diagnosis of Dental Anxiety 345
- Patient Examination, Referral, and Treatment Plan Presentation 345
- Delivery of Care to the Fearful Patient 352
- Conclusion 362

Chapter 14 Managing the Patient With Psychological Problems 367Edwin T. Parks and Cindy Marek

- Patient Evaluation 368
- General Treatment Planning Considerations for the Patient With a Psychological Disorder 370
- Major Types of Psychological Problems 371
- Anxiety Disorders 371
- Depressive Disorders 374
- Psychotic Disorders 377
- Other Pathologic Behaviors 379
- Medication Effects That Impact Dental Treatment 382
- Impact of Psychological Disorders on the Oral Cavity 383
- Conclusion 388

Chapter 15 The Adolescent Patient 391Lorne D. Koroluk

- The Adolescent in the World 391
- Lifestyle Issues That May Affect Adolescent Health 393

- Information Gathering 393
- Oral Disease in the Adolescent 395
- Treatment Planning for the Adolescent Patient 408
- Treating the Adolescent Patient 410
- Follow-Up and Maintenance 410
- Conclusion 411

Chapter 16 The Geriatric Patient 413Linda C. Niessen and Gretchen Gibson

- Oral Health in the Aging Population 414
- Evaluation of the Older Patient 415
- Systemic Phase Dental Treatment Planning 422
- Disease Control Phase and Prevention Strategies 427
- Definitive Treatment Planning for Older Adults 431
- Maintenance Phase Treatment Planning 437
- Conclusion 437

Chapter 17 The Motivationally or Financially Impaired Patient 439Samuel Paul Nesbit

- Common Clinical Scenarios 439
- Identifying the Underlying Problem 443
- Evaluating the Potential for Change 445
- Making a Treatment Decision 446
- Motivating the Patient 448
- Management Options 449
- Handling Finances 453
- Role of the Profession 457
- A Brief Look Forward 457

Glossary 459